CLASSES OF OXFORD BIBLES

Oxford Text Bibles

An Oxford Text Bible is one that contains the text only, and maps, but no references or helps of any kind. Listed on pages 32–39.

Oxford Reference Bibles

An Oxford Reference Bible has references down the centre of each page, referring the reader to other passages where similar subjects are treated. Listed on pages 43–47.

Oxford Concordance Bibles

An Oxford Concordance Bible in addition to references, contains a word book at the back of the book, by which thousands of passages may be found at once if but one important word in a verse is known. There is also an index to the proper names mentioned in the Bible. Listed on pages 48–50.

Oxford Teacher's Bibles

An Oxford Teacher's Bible besides having references, contains at the back the Oxford Cyclopædic Concordance, being the helps arranged under one alphabetical index, including a Complete Harmony of the Life of Jesus Christ, Chronology of the Old Testament, Weights and Measures, besides the word-book feature as in the Concordance Bibles. Listed on pages 51–57.

Maps

All Oxford Bibles contain twelve colored maps at the back unless otherwise noted.

Oxford India Paper

An "x" after a number indicates that the book is printed on Oxford India Paper, the lightest, strongest, and thinnest paper used for printing. See inside front cover.

OXFORD BIBLE BINDINGS

French Morocco

French Morocco is made of high grade sheepskin, the term "French" being rather that of a process, while the term "Morocco" applies to the grain. This has fair wearing qualities and usually the lower priced styles are bound in this leather.

Persian Morocco

Persian Morocco is superior to French Morocco in durability and is usually the skin of Persian goats or sheep.

Real Morocco

Real Morocco is genuine goatskin, and in the binding industry is considered the most satisfactory and strongest leather for binding purposes. Goatskins used for Oxford Bible bindings are specially prepared and only the most flexible skins are used.

Levant Morocco

Levant Morocco, sometimes known as Levant, is also a genuine goatskin, but of the finest quality and selection. The skins are specially tanned and prepared by processes for which France enjoys a high reputation.

Sealskin

Sealskin, because of its suppleness and durability, lends itself admirably to the binding of Bibles. It is used in making the finest editions.

Advisability of Selecting a Good Binding

In selecting a Bible it is advisable to choose one with a good binding. A Bible that is used for years often acquires a value far beyond its original price and rebinding frequently costs more than was paid for the book originally.

IMPROVED BIBLE INDEX

Any book in the Catalogue supplied, with "IMPROVED INDEX," 50 cents additional.

One cutting for each book, except the minor Prophets; combining the advantages of a complete Index, with fewer cuttings.

In ordering numbers with Index, add the letter I.

All prices are f. o. b. New York. Prices subject to change without notice.

CHAPTER 1.

THE book of the generation of Jesus Christ, the son of David, the son of Abraham.

2 Abraham begat Isaac; and Isaac begat Jacob; and Jacob begat Judas and his brethren;

3 And Judas begat Phares and Zara of Thamar; and Phares begat Esrom; and Esrom begat Aram;

4 And Aram begat Aminadab; and Aminadab begat Naasson; and Naasson begat Salmon;

5 And Salmon begat Booz of Rachab; and Booz begat Obed of Ruth; and Obed begat Jesse;

6 And Jesse begat David the king; and David the king begat Solomon of her that had been the wife of Urias;

7 And Solomon begat Roboam; and Roboam begat Abia; and Abia begat Asa;

8 And Asa begat Josaphat; and Josaphat begat Joram; and Joram begat Ozias;

9 And Ozias begat Joatham; and Joatham begat Achas; and Achas begat Ezekias;

10 And Ezekias begat Manasses; and Manasses begat Amon; and Amon begat Josias;

11 And Josias begat Jechonias and his brethren, about the time they were carried away to Babylon:

12 And after they were brought to Babylon, Jechonias begat Salathiel; and Salathiel begat Zorobabel;

13 And Zorobabel begat Abiud; and Abiud begat Eliakim; and Eliakim begat Azor;

14 And Azor begat Sadoc; and Sadoc begat Achim; and Achim begat Eliud;

15 And Eliud begat Eleazar; and Eleazar begat Matthan; and Matthan begat Jacob;

16 And Jacob begat Joseph the husband of Mary, of whom was born Jesus, who is called Christ.

17 So all the generations from Abraham to David are fourteen generations; and from David until the carrying away into Babylon are fourteen generations; and from the carrying away into Babylon unto Christ are fourteen generations.

18 ¶ Now the birth of Jesus Christ was on this wise: When as his mother Mary was espoused to Joseph, before they came together, she was found with child of the Holy Ghost.

19 Then Joseph her husband, being a just man, and not willing to make her a publick example, was minded to put her away privily.

20 But while he thought on these things, behold, the angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a dream, saying, Joseph, thou son of David, fear not to take unto thee Mary thy wife: for that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Ghost.

21 And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name JESUS: for he shall save his people from their sins.

22 Now all this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying,

23 Behold, a virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son, and they shall call his name Emmanuel, which being interpreted is, God with us.

24 Then Joseph being raised from sleep did as the angel of the Lord had bidden him, and took unto him his wife:

25 And knew her not till she had brought forth her firstborn son: and he called his name JESUS.

7 Then Herod, when he had privily called the wise men, enquired of them diligently what time the star appeared.

8 And he sent them to Bethlehem, and said, Go and search diligently for the young child; and when ye have found him, bring me word again, that I may come and worship him also.

9 When they had heard the king, they departed; and, lo, the star, which they saw in the east, went before them, till it came and stood over where the young child was.

10 When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy.

11 ¶ And when they were come into the house, they saw the young child with Mary his mother, and fell down, and worshipped him: and when they had opened their treasures, they presented unto him gifts; gold, and frankincense, and myrrh.

12 And being warned of God in a dream that they should not return to Herod, they departed into their own country another way.

13 And when they were departed, behold, the angel of the Lord appeareth to Joseph in a dream, saying, Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and flee into Egypt, and be thou there until I bring thee word: for Herod will seek the young child to destroy him.

shalt preserve me from trouble; thou shalt compass me about with songs of deliverance. Selah.
8 I will instruct thee and teach thee in the way which thou shalt go: I will guide thee with mine eye.
9 Be ye not as the horse, or as the mule, which have no understanding: whose mouth must be held in with bit and bridle, lest they come near unto thee.
10 Many sorrows shall be to the wicked: but he that trusteth in the LORD, mercy shall compass him about.
11 Be glad in the LORD, and rejoice, ye righteous: and shout for joy, all ye that are upright in heart.

PSALM 33.

REJOICE in the LORD, O ye righteous: for praise is comely for the upright.
2 Praise the LORD with harp: sing unto him with the psaltery and an instrument of ten strings.
3 Sing unto him a new song; play skilfully with a loud noise.
4 For the word of the LORD is right; and all his works are done in truth.
5 He loveth righteousness and judgment: the earth is full of the goodness of the LORD.
6 By the word of the LORD were the heavens made; and all the host of them by the breath of his mouth.
7 He gathereth the waters of the sea together as an heap: he layeth up the depth in storehouses.
8 Let all the earth fear the LORD: let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of him.
9 For he spake, and it was done; he commanded, and it stood fast.
10 The LORD bringeth the counsel of the heathen to nought: he maketh the devices of the people of none effect.
11 The counsel of the LORD standeth for ever, the thoughts of his heart to all generations.
12 Blessed is the nation whose God is the LORD; and the people whom he hath chosen for his own inheritance.
13 The LORD looketh from heaven; he beholdeth all the sons of men.
14 From the place of his habitation he looketh upon all the inhabitants of the earth.
15 He fashioneth their hearts alike; he considereth all their works.
16 There is no king saved by the multitude of an host: a mighty man is not delivered by much strength.
17 An horse is a vain thing for safety: neither shall he deliver any by his great strength.
18 Behold, the eye of the LORD is upon them that fear him, upon them that hope in his mercy;
19 To deliver their soul from death, and to keep them alive in famine.
20 Our soul waiteth for the LORD: he is our help and our shield.
21 For our heart shall rejoice in him, because we have trusted in his holy name.
22 Let thy mercy, O LORD, be upon us, according as we hope in thee.

PSALM 34.

A Psalm of David, when he changed his behaviour before Abimelech; who drove him away, and he departed.

I WILL bless the LORD at all times: his praise shall continually be in my mouth.
2 My soul shall make her boast in the LORD: the humble shall hear thereof, and be glad.
3 O magnify the LORD with me, and let us exalt his name together.
4 I sought the LORD, and he heard me, and delivered me from all my fears.
5 They looked unto him, and were lightened: and their faces were not ashamed.
6 This poor man cried, and the LORD heard him, and saved him out of all his troubles.
7 The angel of the LORD encampeth round about them that fear him, and delivereth them.
8 O taste and see that the LORD is good: blessed is the man that trusteth in him.
9 O fear the LORD, ye his saints: for there is no want to them that fear him.
10 The young lions do lack, and suffer hunger: but they that seek the LORD shall not want any good thing.
11 Come, ye children, hearken unto me: I will teach you the fear of the LORD.
12 What man is he that desireth life, and loveth many days, that he may see good?
13 Keep thy tongue from evil, and thy lips from speaking guile.
14 Depart from evil, and do good; seek peace, and pursue it.
15 The eyes of the LORD are upon the righteous, and his ears are open unto their cry.
16 The face of the LORD is against them that do evil, to cut off the remembrance of them from the earth.
17 The righteous cry, and the LORD heareth, and delivereth them out of all their troubles.
18 The LORD is nigh unto them

St. MATTHEW.

CHAPTER 1.

1 The genealogy of Christ from Abraham to Joseph. 18 He was conceived by the Holy Ghost, and born of the Virgin Mary when she was espoused to Joseph. 19 The angel satisfieth the misdeeming thoughts of Joseph, and interpreteth the names of Christ.

THE book of the generation of Jesus Christ, the son of David, the son of Abraham.

2 Abraham begat Isaac; and Isaac begat Jacob; and Jacob begat Judas and his brethren;

3 And Judas begat Phares and Zara of Thamar; and Phares begat Esrom; and Esrom begat Aram;

4 And Aram begat Aminadab; and Aminadab begat Naasson; and Naasson begat Salmon;

5 And Salmon begat Booz of Rachab; and Booz begat Obed of Ruth; and Obed begat Jesse;

6 And Jesse begat David the king; and David the king begat Solomon of her that had been the wife of Urias;

7 And Solomon begat Roboam; and Roboam begat Abia; and Abia begat Asa;

8 And Asa begat Josaphat; and Josaphat begat Joram; and Joram begat Ozias;

9 And Ozias begat Joatham; and Joatham begat Achaz; and Achaz begat Ezekias;

10 And Ezekias begat Manasses; and Manasses begat Amon; and Amon begat Josias;

11 And Josias begat Jechonias and his brethren, about the time they were carried away to Babylon:

12 And after they were brought to Babylon, Jechonias begat Salathiel; and Salathiel begat Zorobabel;

13 And Zorobabel begat Abiud; and Abiud begat Eliakim; and Eliakim begat Azor;

14 And Azor begat Sadoc; and Sadoc begat Achim; and Achim begat Eliud;

15 And Eliud begat Eleazar; and Eleazar begat Matthan; and Matthan begat Jacob;

16 And Jacob begat Joseph the husband of Mary, of whom was born Jesus, who is called Christ.

17 So all the generations from Abraham to David are fourteen generations; and from David until the carrying away into Babylon are fourteen generations; and from the carrying away into Babylon unto Christ are fourteen generations.

18 ¶ Now the birth of Jesus Christ was on this wise: When as his mother Mary was espoused to Joseph, before they came together, she was found with child of the Holy Ghost.

19 Then Joseph her husband, being a just man, and not willing to make her a publick example, was minded to put her away privily.

20 But while he thought on these things, behold, the angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a dream, saying, Joseph, thou son of David, fear not to take unto thee Mary thy wife: for that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Ghost.

21 And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name JESUS: for he shall save his people from their sins.

22 Now all this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying,

23 Behold, a virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son, and they shall call his name Emmanuel, which being interpreted is, God with us.

24 Then Joseph being raised from sleep did as the angel of the Lord had bidden him, and took unto him his wife:

25 And knew her not till she had brought forth her firstborn son: and he called his name JESUS.

CHAPTER 2.

1 The wise men out of the east are directed to Christ by a star. 11 They worship him, and offer their presents. 14 Joseph fleeth into Egypt, with Jesus and his mother. 16 Herod slayeth the children: 20 himself dieth. 23 Christ is brought back again into Galilee to Nazareth.

NOW when Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judæa in the days of Herod the king, behold, there came wise men from the east to Jerusalem,

2 Saying, Where is he that is born King of the Jews? for we have seen his star in the east, and are come to worship him.

3 When Herod the king had heard these things, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him.

4 And when he had gathered all the chief priests and scribes of the people together, he demanded of them where Christ should be born.

The servant's success. GENESIS 24. Rebekah is called.

43 Behold, I stand by the well of water; and it shall come to pass, that when the virgin cometh forth to draw water, and I say to her, Give me, I pray thee, a little water of thy pitcher to drink;

44 And she say to me, Both drink thou, and I will also draw for thy camels: let the same be the woman whom the LORD hath appointed out for my master's son.

45 And before I had done speaking in mine heart, behold, Rebekah came forth with her pitcher on her shoulder; and she went down unto the well, and drew water: and I said unto her, Let me drink, I pray thee.

46 And she made haste, and let down her pitcher from her shoulder, and said, Drink, and I will give thy camels drink also: so I drank, and she made the camels drink also.

47 And I asked her, and said, Whose daughter art thou? And she said, The daughter of Bethuel, Nahor's son, whom Milcah bare unto him: and I put the earring upon her face, and the bracelets upon her hands.

48 And I bowed down my head, and worshipped the LORD, and blessed the LORD God of my master Abraham, which had led me in the right way to take my master's brother's daughter unto his son.

49 And now if ye will deal kindly and truly with my master, tell me: and if not, tell me; that I may turn to the right hand, or to the left.

50 Then Laban and Bethuel answered and said, The thing proceedeth from the LORD: we cannot speak unto thee bad or good.

51 Behold, Rebekah is before thee, take her, and go, and let her be thy master's son's wife, as the LORD hath spoken.

52 And it came to pass, that, when Abraham's servant heard their words, he worshipped the LORD, bowing himself to the earth.

53 And the servant brought forth jewels of silver, and jewels of gold, and raiment, and gave them to Rebekah: he gave also to her brother and to her mother precious things.

54 And they did eat and drink, he and the men that were with him, and tarried all night; and they rose up in the morning, and he said, Send me away unto my master.

55 And her brother and her mother said, Let the damsel abide with us a few days, at the least ten; after that she shall go.

56 And he said unto them, Hinder me not, seeing the LORD hath prospered my way; send me away that I may go to my master.

57 And they said, We will call the damsel, and enquire at her mouth.

58 And they called Rebekah, and said unto her, Wilt thou go with this man? And she said, I will go.

59 And they sent away Rebekah their sister, and her nurse, and Abraham's servant, and his men.

60 And they blessed Rebekah, and said unto her, Thou art our sister, be thou the mother of thousands of millions, and let thy seed possess the gate of those which hate them.

61 ¶ And Rebekah arose, and her damsels, and they rode upon the camels, and followed the Christ's sermon ST. MATTHEW 6. on the mount.

CHAPTER 6.

TAKE heed that ye do not your alms before men, to be seen of them: otherwise ye have no reward of your Father which is in heaven.

2 Therefore when thou doest thine alms, do not sound a trumpet before thee, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may have glory of men. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.

3 But when thou doest alms, let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth:

4 That thine alms may be in secret: and thy Father which seeth in secret himself shall reward thee openly.

5 ¶ And when thou prayest, thou shalt not be as the hypocrites are: for they love to pray standing in the synagogues and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen of men. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.

6 But thou, when thou prayest, enter into thy closet, and when thou hast shut thy door, pray to thy Father which is in secret; and thy Father which seeth in secret shall reward thee openly.

7 But when ye pray, use not vain repetitions, as the heathen do: for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking.

8 Be not ye therefore like unto them: for your Father knoweth what things ye have need of, before ye ask him.

9 After this manner therefore pray ye: Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name.

10 Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth as it is in heaven.

11 Give us this day our daily bread.

12 And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

13 And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.

14 For if ye forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you:

15 But if ye forgive not men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.

16 ¶ Moreover when ye fast, be not, as the hypocrites, of a sad countenance: for they disfigure their faces, that they may appear unto men to fast. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.

17 But thou, when thou fastest, anoint thine head, and wash thy face;

18 That thou appear not unto men to fast, but unto thy Father which is in secret: and thy Father, which seeth in secret, shall reward thee openly.

19 ¶ Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal:

20 But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal:

21 For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

22 The light of the body is the eye: if therefore thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light.

23 But if thine eye be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in thee be darkness, how great is that darkness!

24 ¶ No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon.

25 Therefore I say unto you, Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than meat, and the body than raiment?

26 Behold the fowls of the air: for they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; yet your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are ye not much better than they?

27 Which of you by taking thought can add one cubit unto his stature?

28 And why take ye thought for raiment? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin:

29 And yet I say unto you, That

21 And going on from thence, he saw other two brethren, James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, in a ship with Zebedee their father, mending their nets; and he called them.

22 And they immediately left the ship and their father, and followed him.

23 ¶ And Jesus went about all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing all manner of sickness and all manner of disease among the people.

24 And his fame went throughout all Syria: and they brought unto him all sick people that were taken with divers diseases and torments, and those which were possessed with devils, and those which were lunatick, and those that had the palsy; and he healed them.

25 And there followed him great multitudes of people from Galilee, and from Decapolis, and from Jerusalem, and from Judæa, and from beyond Jordan.

CHAPTER 5.

1 Christ beginneth his sermon in the mount: 3 declaring who are blessed, 13 who are the salt of the earth, 14 the light of the world, the city on an hill, 15 the candle. 21 What it is to kill, 27 to commit adultery, 33 to swear: 38 exhorteth to suffer wrong, 44 to love even our enemies, 48 and to labour after perfectness.

AND seeing the multitudes, he went up into a mountain: and when he was set, his disciples came unto him:

2 And he opened his mouth, and taught them, saying,

3 Blessed are the poor in spirit: for their's is the kingdom of heaven.

4 Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted.

5 Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth.

6 Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled.

7 Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy.

8 Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God.

9 Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called the children of God.

10 Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness' sake: for their's is the kingdom of heaven.

11 Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake.

12 Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you.

13 ¶ Ye are the salt of the earth: but if the salt have lost his savour, wherewith shall it be salted? it is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out, and to be trodden under foot of men.

14 Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on an hill cannot be hid.

15 Neither do men light a candle, and put it under a bushel, but on a candlestick; and it giveth light unto all that are in the house.

16 Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven.

GENESIS 36 The generations of Esau

13 And these are the sons of Reû'ĕl; Nā'hăth, and Zĕ'räh, Shăm'măh, and Mĭz'zäh: these were the sons of Băsh'ĕ-măth Ē'sâu's wife.
14 ¶ And these were the sons of Ā-hŏl-ĭ-bā'măh, the daughter of Ā'näh the daughter of Zĭb'ĕ-on, Ē'sâu's wife: and she bare to Ē'sâu Jē'ŭsh, and Jā'ă-lăm, and Kôr'ăh.
15 ¶ These were dukes of the sons of Ē'sâu: the sons of Ē'lĭ'phăz the firstborn son of Ē'sâu; duke Tē'măn, duke Ō'mär, duke Zĕ'phō, duke Kĕ'năz, 16 Duke Kôr'ăh, duke Gā'tăm, and duke Ăm'ă-lĕk: these are the dukes that came of Ē'lĭ'phăz in the land of Ē'dom; these were the sons of Ā'dăh.
17 ¶ And these are the sons of Reû'ĕl Ē'sâu's son; duke Nā'hăth, duke Zĕ'räh, duke Shăm'măh, duke Mĭz'zäh: these are the dukes that came of Reû'ĕl in the land of Ē'dom; these are the sons of Băsh'ĕ-măth Ē'sâu's wife.
18 ¶ And these are the sons of Ā-hŏl-ĭ-bā'măh Ē'sâu's wife; duke Jē'ŭsh, duke Jā'ă-lăm, duke Kôr'ăh: these were the dukes that came of Ā-hŏl-ĭ-bā'măh the daughter of Ā'näh, Ē'sâu's wife.
19 These are the sons of Ē'sâu, who is Ē'dom, and these are their dukes.
20 ¶ These are the sons of Sē'ĭr the Hôr'ĭte, who inhabited the land; Lō'tăn, and Shō'băl, and Zĭb'ĕ-on, and Ā'näh, 21 And Dī'shŏn, and Ē'zĕr, and Dī'shăn: these are the dukes of the Hôr'ītes, the children of Sē'ĭr in the land of Ē'dom.
22 And the children of Lō'tăn were Hôr'ī and Hē'măm; and Lō'tăn's sister was Tĭm'nă.
23 And the children of Shō'băl were these; Ăl'văn, and Măn'ă-hăth, and Ē'băl, Shē'phō, and Ō'năm.
24 And these are the children of Zĭb'ĕ-on; both Ā'jäh, and Ā'näh: this was that Ā'näh that found the mules in the wilderness, as he fed the asses of Zĭb'ĕ-on his father.
25 And the children of Ā'näh were these; Dī'shŏn, and Ā-hŏl-ĭ-bā'măh the daughter of Ā'näh.
26 And these are the children of Dī'shŏn; Hĕm'dăn, and Ĕsh'băn, and Ĭth'răn, and Chē'răn.
27 The children of Ē'zĕr are these; Bĭl'hăn, and Zā'ă-văn, and Ā'kăn.
28 The children of Dī'shăn are these; Ŭz, and Ăr'ăn.
29 These are the dukes that came of the Hôr'ītes; duke Lō'tăn, duke Shō'băl, duke Zĭb'ĕ-on, duke Ā'näh,
30 Duke Dī'shŏn, duke Ē'zĕr, duke Dī'shăn: these are the dukes that came of Hôr'ī, among their dukes in the land of Sē'ĭr.
31 ¶ And these are the kings that reigned in the land of Ē'dom, before there reigned any king over the children of Ĭs'rā-ĕl.
32 And Bē'lă the son of Bē'ôr reigned in Ē'dom: and the name of his city was Dĭn'hă-băh.
33 And Bē'lă died, and Jō'băb the son of Zĕ'räh of Bŏz'răh reigned in his stead.
34 And Jō'băb died, and Hū'shăm of the land of Tē'măn-ī reigned in his stead.
35 And Hū'shăm died, and Hā'dăd the son of Bē'dăd, who smote Mĭd'ĭ-ăn in the field of Mō'ăb, reigned in his stead: and the name of his city was Ā'vĭth.
36 And Hā'dăd died, and Săm'lăh of Măs-rē'kăh reigned in his stead.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO

St. MATTHEW.

CHAPTER 1.

1 The genealogy of Christ. 18 He was conceived by the Holy Ghost, and born of the Virgin Mary when she was espoused to Joseph. 19 The angel satisfieth the misbeeming thoughts of Joseph, and interpreteth the names of Christ.

THE book of the generation of Jesus Christ, the son of David, the son of Abraham.

2 Abraham begat Isaac; and Isaac begat Jacob; and Jacob begat Judas and his brethren;

3 And Judas begat Phares and Zara of Thamar; and Phares begat Esrom; and Esrom begat Aram;

4 And Aram begat Aminadab; and Aminadab begat Naasson; and Naasson begat Salmon;

5 And Salmon begat Booz of Rachab; and Booz begat Obed of Ruth; and Obed begat Jesse;

6 And Jesse begat David the king; and David the king begat Solomon of her that had been the wife of Urias;

7 And Solomon begat Roboam; and Roboam begat Abia; and Abia begat Asa;

8 And Asa begat Josaphat; and Josaphat begat Joram; and Joram begat Ozias;

9 And Ozias begat Joatham; and Joatham begat Achaz; and Achaz begat Ezekias;

10 And Ezekias begat Manasses; and Manasses begat Amon; and Amon begat Josias;

11 And Josias begat Jechonias and his brethren, about the time they were carried away to Babylon:

12 And after they were brought to Babylon, Jechonias begat Salathiel; and Salathiel begat Zorobabel;

13 And Zorobabel begat Abiud; and Abiud begat Eliakim; and Eliakim begat Azor;

14 And Azor begat Sadoc; and Sadoc begat Achim; and Achim begat Eliud;

15 And Eliud begat Eleazar; and Eleazar begat Matthan; and Matthan begat Jacob;

16 And Jacob begat Joseph the husband of Mary, of whom was born Jesus, who is called Christ.

17 So all the generations from Abraham to David are fourteen generations; and from David until the carrying away into Babylon are fourteen generations; and from the carrying away into Babylon unto Christ are fourteen generations.

18 ¶ Now the birth of Jesus Christ was on this wise: When as his mother Mary was espoused to Joseph, before they came together, she was found with child of the Holy Ghost.

19 Then Joseph her husband, being a just man, and not willing to make her a publick example, was minded to put her away privily.

20 But while he thought on these things, behold, the angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a dream, saying, Joseph, thou son of David, fear not to take unto thee Mary thy wife: for that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Ghost.

21 And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name JESUS: for he shall save his people from their sins.

22 Now all this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying,

CHAPTER 1.

1 The genealogy of Christ from Abraham to Joseph. 18 He was conceived by the Holy Ghost, and born of the Virgin Mary when she was espoused to Joseph. 19 The angel satisfieth the misdeeming thoughts of Joseph, and interpreteth the names of Christ.

THE book of the generation of Jesus Christ, the son of David, the son of Abraham.

2 Abraham begat Isaac; and Isaac begat Jacob; and Jacob begat Judas and his brethren;

15 And Eliud begat Eleazar; and Eleazar begat Matthan; and Matthan begat Jacob;

22 Now all this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying,

23 Behold, a virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son, and they shall call his name Emmanuel, which being interpreted is, God with us.

24 Then Joseph being raised from sleep did as the angel of the Lord had bidden him, and took unto him his wife:

25 And knew her not till she had brought forth her firstborn son: and he called his name JESUS.

CHAPTER 2.

1 The wise men out of the east are directed to Christ by a star. 11 They worship him, and offer their presents. 14 Joseph fleeth into Egypt, with Jesus and his mother. 16 Herod slayeth the children: 20 himself dieth. 23 Christ is brought back again into Galilee to Nazareth.

thee the secrets of wisdom, that they are double to that which is! Know therefore that God exacteth of thee less than thine iniquity deserveth.

7 Canst thou by searching find out God? canst thou find out the Almighty unto perfection?

8 It is as high as heaven; what canst thou do? deeper than hell; what canst thou know?

9 The measure thereof is longer than the earth, and broader than the sea.

10 If he cut off, and shut up, or gather together, then who can hinder him?

11 For he knoweth vain men: he seeth wickedness also; will he not then consider it?

12 For vain man would be wise, though man be born like a wild ass's colt.

13 If thou prepare thine heart, and stretch out thine hands toward him;

14 If iniquity be in thine hand, put it far away, and let not wickedness dwell in thy tabernacles.

15 For then shalt thou lift up thy face without spot; yea, thou shalt be stedfast, and shalt not fear:

16 Because thou shalt forget thy misery, and remember it as waters that pass away:

17 And thine age shall be clearer than the noonday; thou shalt shine forth, thou shalt be as the morning.

18 And thou shalt be secure, because there is hope; yea, thou shalt dig about thee, and thou shalt take thy rest in safety.

19 Also thou shalt lie down, and none shall make thee afraid; yea, many shall make suit unto thee.

20 But the eyes of the wicked shall fail, and they shall not escape, and their hope shall be as the giving up of the ghost.

CHAPTER XII.

1 Job maintaineth himself against his friends that reprove him. 7 He acknowledgeth the general doctrine of God's omnipotency.

AND Job answered and said,
2 No doubt but ye are the people, and wisdom shall die with you.

3 But I have understanding as well as you; I am not inferior to you: yea, who knoweth not such things as these?

4 I am as one mocked of his neighbour, who calleth upon God, and he answereth him: the just upright man is laughed to scorn.

5 He that is ready to slip with his feet is as a lamp despised in the thought of him that is at ease.

44 But I say unto you, [a] Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and [a] pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you;

45 That ye may be the children of your Father which is in heaven: for he maketh his sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sendeth rain on the just and on the unjust.

46 [h] For if ye love them which love you, what reward have ye? do not even the publicans the same?

47 And if ye salute your brethren only, what do ye more than others? do not even the publicans so?

48 [k] Be ye therefore perfect, even [l] as your Father which is in heaven is perfect.

CHAPTER 6.

TAKE heed that ye do not your [2] alms before men, to be seen of them: otherwise ye have no reward [3] of your Father which is in heaven.

2 Therefore when thou doest thine alms, [4] do not [b] sound a trumpet before thee, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may have glory of men. Verily I say unto you, They [4] have their reward.

3 But when thou doest alms, let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth:

4 That thine alms may be in secret: and thy Father which seeth in secret himself [z] shall reward thee openly.

5 ¶ And when thou prayest, thou shalt not be as the hypocrites are: for they love to pray standing in the synagogues and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen of men. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.

6 But thou, when thou prayest, enter into thy [a] closet, and when thou hast shut thy door, pray to thy Father which is in secret; and thy Father which seeth in secret shall reward thee openly.

7 But when ye pray, use not vain repetitions, as the heathen do: for they think that they shall be heard [d] for their much speaking.

8 Be not ye therefore like unto them: for your Father knoweth what things ye have need of, before ye ask him.

9 After this manner therefore pray ye: [h] Our Father which art in heaven, [k] Hallowed be thy name.

10 Thy kingdom come. [l] Thy will be done in earth, [m] as it is in heaven.

11 Give us this day our [n] daily bread.

12 And forgive us our [o] debts, as we forgive our debtors.

13 [q] And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us [b] from evil: [c] For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.

14 [c] For if ye forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you:

15 [f] But if ye forgive not men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.

16 ¶ Moreover [p] when ye fast, be not, as the hypocrites, [i] of a sad countenance: for they disfigure their faces, that they may appear unto men to fast. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.

17 But thou, when thou fastest, [m] anoint thine head, and wash thy face;

18 That thou appear not unto men to fast, but unto thy Father which is in secret: and thy Father, which seeth in secret, shall reward thee openly.

19 ¶ [n] Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where [o] moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves [q] break through and steal:

20 [r] But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal:

21 For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

22 [t] The light of the body is the eye: if therefore thine eye be [u] single, thy whole body shall be full of light.

23 But if thine eye be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness. If therefore [v] the light that is in thee be darkness, how great is that darkness!

24 ¶ [z] No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. [b] Ye cannot serve God and [c] mammon.

25 [d] Therefore I say unto you, [e] Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than meat, and the body than raiment?

26 [f] Behold the fowls of the air: for they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; yet your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are ye not much better than they?

27 Which of you by taking thought can add [s] one cubit unto his stature?

28 And why take ye thought for raiment? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin:

29 And yet I say unto you, That even [p] Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

12 ¶ After this he went down to Capernaum, he, and his mother, and [a]his brethren, and his disciples: and they continued there not many days.

13 ¶ [b]And the Jews' passover was at hand, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem,

14 [d]And found in the temple those that sold oxen and sheep and doves, and the changers of money sitting:

15 And when he had made a scourge of small cords, he drove them all out of the temple, and the sheep, and the oxen; and poured out the changers' money, and overthrew the tables;

16 And said unto them that sold doves, Take these things hence; make not [f]my Father's house an house of merchandise.

17 And his disciples remembered that it was written, [h]The zeal of thine house hath eaten me up.

18 ¶ Then answered the Jews and said unto him, [i]What sign shewest thou unto us, seeing that thou doest these things?

19 Jesus answered and said unto them, [m]Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up.

20 Then said the Jews, Forty and six years was this temple in building, and wilt thou rear it up in three days?

21 But he spake [o]of the temple of his body.

22 When therefore he was risen from the dead, [r]his disciples remembered that he had said this unto them; and they believed the scripture, and the word which Jesus had said.

23 ¶ Now when he was in Jerusalem at the passover, in the feast day, many believed in his name, when they saw the miracles which he did.

24 But Jesus did not commit himself unto them, because he knew all men,

25 And needed not that any should testify of man: for [z]he knew what was in man.

CHAPTER 3.

1 Christ teacheth the necessity of regeneration. 16 The great love of God towards the world. 18 Condemnation for unbelief. 23 The baptism and witness of John.

THERE was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews:

2 [a]The same came to Jesus by night, and said unto him, Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God: for [c]no man can do these miracles that thou doest, except [d]God be with him.

3 Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, [e]Except a man be born [4]again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.

4 Nicodemus saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter the second time into his mother's womb, and be born?

5 Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, [e]Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God.

6 That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit.

7 Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born [4]again.

8 [e]The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is every one that is born of the Spirit.

9 Nicodemus answered and said unto him, [g]How can these things be?

10 Jesus answered and said unto him, Art thou a master of Israel, and knowest not these things?

11 [k]Verily, verily, I say unto thee, We speak that we do know, and testify that we have seen; and [l]ye receive not our witness.

12 If I have told you earthly things, and ye believe not, how shall ye believe, if I tell you of heavenly things?

13 And [n]no man hath ascended up to heaven, but he that came down from heaven, even the Son of man which is in heaven.

14 ¶ [p]And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so [q]must the Son of man be lifted up:

15 That whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but [s]have eternal life.

16 ¶ [t]For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

17 [u]For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved.

18 ¶ [v]He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God.

19 And this is the condemnation, [x]that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil.

20 For [b]every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be [5]reproved.

21 But he that doeth truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God.

22 ¶ After these things came Jesus

20 And the field, and the cave that is therein, [a] were made sure unto Abraham for a possession of a buryingplace by the sons of Heth.

CHAPTER 24.

x Abraham sendeth his servant to seek a wife for Isaac. 50 He obtaineth Rebekah. 62 Isaac meeteth her.

AND Abraham was old, and [2] well stricken in age: and the LORD [c] had blessed Abraham in all things.

2 And Abraham said [c] unto his eldest servant of his house, that [f] ruled over all that he had, [g] Put, I pray thee, thy hand under my thigh:

3 And I will make thee [i] swear by the LORD, the God of heaven, and the God of the earth, that [k] thou shalt not take a wife unto my son of the daughters of the Canaanites, among whom I dwell:

4 [l] But thou shalt go [m] unto my country, and to my kindred, and take a wife unto my son Isaac.

5 And the servant said unto him, Peradventure the woman will not be willing to follow me unto this land: must I needs bring thy son again unto the land from whence thou camest?

6 And Abraham said unto him, Beware thou that thou bring not my son thither again.

7 ¶ The LORD God of heaven, which [n] took me from my father's house, and from the land of my kindred, and which spake unto me, and that sware unto me, saying, [q] Unto thy seed will I give this land; [r] he shall send his angel before thee, and thou shalt take a wife unto my son from thence.

8 And if the woman will not be willing to follow thee, then [s] thou shalt be clear from this my oath: only bring not my son thither again.

9 And the servant put his hand under the thigh of Abraham his master, and sware to him concerning that matter.

10 ¶ And the servant took ten [u] camels of the camels of his master, and departed; [5] for all the goods of his master were in his hand: and he arose, and went to Mesopotamia, unto [y] the city of Nahor.

11 And he made his camels to kneel down without the city by a well of water at the time of the evening, even the time [6] [z] that women go out to draw water.

12 And he said, [c] O LORD God of my master Abraham, I pray thee, [d] send me good speed this day, and shew kindness unto my master Abraham.

13 Behold, [f] I stand here by the well of water; and [g] the daughters of the men of the city come out to draw water:

14 And let it come to pass, that the damsel to whom I shall say, Let down thy pitcher, I pray thee, that I may drink; and she shall say, Drink, and I will give thy camels drink also: let the same be she that thou hast appointed for thy servant Isaac; and [b] thereby shall I know that thou hast shewed kindness unto my master.

15 ¶ And it came to pass, before he had done speaking, that, behold, Rebekah came out, who was born to Bethuel, son of [d] Milcah, the wife of Nahor, Abraham's brother, with her pitcher upon her shoulder.

16 And the damsel was [h] very [3] fair to look upon, a virgin, neither had any man known her: and she went down to the well, and filled her pitcher, and came up.

17 And the servant ran to meet her, and said, Let me, I pray thee, drink a little water of thy pitcher.

18 And she said, Drink, my lord: and she hasted, and let down her pitcher upon her hand, and gave him drink.

19 And when she had done giving him drink, she said, I will draw water for thy camels also, until they have done drinking.

20 And she hasted, and emptied her pitcher into the trough, and ran again unto the well to draw water, and drew for all his camels.

21 And the man wondering at her held his peace, to wit whether [o] the LORD had made his journey [p] prosperous or not.

22 And it came to pass, as the camels had done drinking, that the man took a golden [4] earring of half a shekel weight, and two bracelets for her hands of ten shekels weight of gold;

23 And said, Whose daughter art thou? tell me, I pray thee: is there room in thy father's house for us to lodge in?

24 And she said unto him, [t] I am the daughter of Bethuel the son of Milcah, which she bare unto Nahor.

25 She said moreover unto him, We have both straw and provender enough, and room to lodge in.

26 And the man [x] bowed down his head, and worshipped the LORD.

27 And he said, Blessed be the LORD God of my master Abraham, who hath not left destitute my master of [z] his mercy and his truth: I being in the way, the LORD [b] led me to the house of my master's brethren.

28 And the damsel ran, and told them of her mother's house these things.

29 ¶ And Rebekah had a brother, and his name was [c] Laban: and Laban ran out unto the man, unto the well.

30 And it came to pass, when he saw the earring and bracelets upon his sister's hands, and when he heard the ing [2]in the visions of God: and as long as he sought the LORD, God made him to prosper.

6 And he went forth and [b]warred against the Philistines, and brake down the wall of Gath, and the wall of Jabneh, and the wall of Ashdod, and built cities [3]about Ashdod, and among the Philistines.

7 And God helped him against [c]the Philistines, and against the Arabians that dwelt in Gur-baal, and the Mehunims.

8 And the Ammonites [e]gave gifts to Uzziah: and his name [4]spread abroad even to the entering in of Egypt; for he strengthened himself exceedingly.

9 Moreover Uzziah built towers in Jerusalem at the [f]corner gate, and at the valley gate, and at the turning of the wall, and [5]fortified them.

10 Also he built towers in the desert, and [6]digged many wells: for he had much cattle, both in the low country, and in the plains: husbandmen also, and vine dressers in the mountains, and in [8]Carmel: for he loved [9]husbandry.

11 Moreover Uzziah had an host of fighting men, that went out to war by bands, according to the number of their account by the hand of Jeiel the scribe and Maaseiah the ruler, under the hand of Hananiah, one of the king's captains.

12 The whole number of the chief of the fathers of the mighty men of valour were two thousand and six hundred.

13 And under their hand was [2]an army, three hundred thousand and seven thousand and five hundred, that made war with mighty power, to help the king against the enemy.

14 And Uzziah prepared for them throughout all the host shields, and spears, and helmets, and habergeons, and bows, and [3]slings to cast stones.

15 And he made in Jerusalem engines, invented by cunning men, to be on the towers and upon the bulwarks, to shoot arrows and great stones withal. And his name [4]spread far abroad; for he was marvellously helped, till he was strong.

16 ¶ But [o]when he was strong, his heart was [p]lifted up to his destruction: for he transgressed against the LORD his God, and [q]went into the temple of the LORD to burn incense upon the altar of incense.

17 And [r]Azariah the priest went in after him, and with him fourscore priests of the LORD, that were valiant men:

18 And they withstood Uzziah the king, and said unto him, It [4]appertaineth not unto thee, Uzziah, to burn incense unto the LORD, but to the [a]priests the sons of Aaron, that are consecrated to burn incense: go out of the sanctuary; for thou hast trespassed; neither shall it be for thine honour from the LORD God.

19 Then Uzziah was wroth, and had a censer in his hand to burn incense: and while he was wroth with the priests, [a]the leprosy even rose up in his forehead before the priests in the house of the LORD, from beside the incense altar.

20 And Azariah the chief priest, and all the priests, looked upon him, and, behold, he was leprous in his forehead, and they thrust him out from thence; yea, himself [g]hasted also to go out, because the LORD had smitten him.

21 [h]And Uzziah the king was a leper unto the day of his death, and dwelt in a [47]several house, being a leper; for he was cut off from the house of the LORD: and Jotham his son was over the king's house, judging the people of the land.

22 ¶ Now the rest of the acts of Uzziah, first and last, did [k]Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, write.

23 [l]So Uzziah slept with his fathers, and they buried him with his fathers in the field of the burial which belonged to the kings; for they said, He is a leper: and Jotham his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER 27.

1 Jotham reigning well prospereth. 5 He subdueth the Ammonites. 7 His reign. 9 Ahaz succeedeth him.

JOTHAM [m]was twenty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Jerushah, the daughter of Zadok.

2 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father Uzziah did: howbeit he entered not into the temple of the LORD. And [n]the people did yet corruptly.

3 He built the high gate of the house of the LORD, and on the wall of [5]Ophel he built much.

4 Moreover he built cities in the mountains of Judah, and in the forests he built castles and towers.

5 ¶ He fought also with the king of the Ammonites, and prevailed against them. And the children of Ammon gave him the same year an hundred talents of silver, and ten thousand measures of wheat, and ten thousand of barley. [6]So much did the children of Ammon pay unto him, both the second year, and the third.

PSALM 50.

A Psalm [4] of Asaph.

THE mighty God, even the LORD, hath spoken, and called the earth [s] from the rising of the sun unto the going down thereof.

2 Out of Zion, [u] the perfection of beauty, [v] God hath shined.

3 Our God shall come, and shall not keep silence: [z] a fire shall devour before him, and it shall be very tempestuous round about him.

4 [a] He shall call to the heavens from above, and to the earth, that he may judge his people.

5 Gather [b] my saints together unto me; [c] those that have made a covenant with me by sacrifice.

6 And [e] the heavens shall declare his righteousness: for [f] God is judge himself. Selah.

7 [h] Hear, O my people, and I will speak; O Israel, and I will testify against thee: [k] I am God, even thy God.

8 [m] I will not reprove thee for thy sacrifices or thy burnt offerings, to have been continually before me.

9 [p] I will take no bullock out of thy house, nor he goats out of thy folds.

10 For every beast of the forest is mine, and the cattle upon a thousand hills.

11 I know all the fowls of the mountains: and [d] the wild beasts of the field are [2] mine.

12 If I were hungry, I would not tell thee: [e] for the world is mine, and the fulness thereof.

13 Will I eat the flesh of bulls, or drink the blood of goats?

14 [g] Offer unto God thanksgiving; and [i] pay thy vows unto the most High:

15 And [l] call upon me in the day of trouble: I will deliver thee, and thou shalt glorify me.

16 But unto the wicked God saith, What hast thou to do to declare my statutes, or that thou shouldest take my covenant in thy mouth?

17 Seeing thou hatest instruction, and castest my words behind thee.

18 When thou sawest a thief, then thou consentedst with him, and [9] hast been partaker with adulterers.

19 [3] Thou givest thy mouth to evil, and thy tongue frameth deceit.

20 Thou sittest and [p] speakest against thy brother; thou slanderest thine own mother's son.

21 These things hast thou done, and I kept silence; thou thoughtest that I was altogether such an one as thyself: but I will [t] reprove thee, and [r] set them in order before thine eyes.

22 Now consider this, ye that [t] forget God, lest I tear you in pieces, and there be [z] none to deliver.

23 Whoso offereth praise glorifieth me: and to him [5] that ordereth his conversation aright will I shew the salvation of God.

the caul above the liver of the sin offering, he burnt upon the altar; [b] as the LORD commanded Mō'-šĕš.

11 [c] And the flesh and the hide he burnt with fire without the camp.

12 And he slew the burnt offering; and Aâ'-rŏn's sons presented unto him the blood, [d] which he sprinkled round about upon the altar.

13 [e] And they presented the burnt offering unto him, with the pieces thereof, and the head: and he burnt them upon the altar.

14 [g] And he did wash the inwards and the legs, and burnt them upon the burnt offering on the altar.

15 ¶ [i] And he brought the people's offering, and took the goat, which was the sin offering for the people, and slew it, and offered it for sin, as the first.

16 And he brought the burnt offering, and offered it [l] according to the [2] manner.

17 And he brought [n] the meat offering, and [3] took an handful thereof, and burnt it upon the altar, [o] beside the burnt sacrifice of the morning.

18 He slew also [s] the bullock and the ram for [q] a sacrifice of peace offerings, which was for the people: and Aâ'-rŏn's sons presented unto him the blood, which he sprinkled upon the altar round about,

19 And the fat of the bullock and of the ram, the rump, and that which covereth the inwards, and the kidneys, and the caul above the liver:

20 And they put the fat upon the breasts, [s] and he burnt the fat upon the altar:

21 And the breasts and the right shoulder Aâ'-rŏn waved [u] for a wave offering before the LORD; as Mō'-šĕš commanded.

22 And Aâ'-rŏn lifted up his hand toward the people, and [y] blessed them, and came down from offering of the sin offering, and the burnt offering, and peace offerings.

23 And Mō'-šĕš and Aâ'-rŏn went into the tabernacle of the congregation, and came out, and blessed the people: [a] and the glory of the LORD appeared unto all the people.

24 And [c] there came a fire out from before the LORD, and consumed upon the altar the burnt offering and the fat: which when all the people saw, [e] they shouted, and fell on their faces.

PSALM 64.

David prayeth for deliverance.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

HEAR my voice, O God, in my prayer: preserve my life from fear of the enemy.

2 Hide me from the secret counsel of the wicked; from the insurrection of the workers of iniquity:

3 [k] Who whet their tongue like a sword, and [l] bend their bows to shoot their arrows, even bitter words:

4 That they may shoot in secret at the perfect: suddenly do they shoot at him, and fear not.

5 They encourage themselves in an evil [8] matter: they commune [9] of laying snares privily; [o] they say, Who shall see them?

6 They search out iniquities; [2] they accomplish [3] a diligent search: both the inward thought of every one of them, and the heart, is deep.

OXFORD TEXT BIBLES—Continued

An Entirely New Series

Oxford Brevier 16mo, Black-faced Type Self-Pronouncing Bible

Size, 6⅜ x 4¼ x 1¼ Inches. With 12 Maps

An entirely new series, beautifully printed from new plates, with exceptionally clear, black-faced type. The full-page specimen on page 17 shows how easily the type can be read.

Full Self-Pronouncing

Every proper name, at each place of its occurrence, is divided into syllables and accented so that it may be correctly pronounced.

Pocket Size Edition

The styles printed on the famous Oxford India Paper (used only in Oxford Bibles) are unusually compact in size. They fit easily into a coat pocket. Because this wonderful paper is so light, these new Oxford editions weigh only thirteen ounces each.

AN ENTIRELY NEW SERIES

Superior Black-Faced Type

Self-Pronouncing

OXFORD BIBLES

VERY EASY TO READ

This entirely new series of Oxford Bibles is printed with exceptionally large, black-faced type that is very easy to read. (See full-page specimen on other side of circular.) These styles will therefore prove a boon to older folks and those who need very large print to read with comfort.

FULL SELF-PRONOUNCING

Unusually attractive and useful is the extensive use of the self-pronouncing feature. Every proper name in the Bible, at each place of its occurrence, is divided into syllables and accented so that it may be correctly pronounced instantly.

For the HOME, PULPIT and PLATFORM

The fine white paper styles will be found very desirable to those who want a Bible of medium size at a moderate price, for pulpit or platform use in church, Sunday School, day school, or any organization. The full self-pronouncing feature will be found a great help if the Bible is to be read publicly. The text is the Authorized or King James version.

OXFORD FINE WHITE PAPER EDITION

Size 9x5⅞x1⅝ inches.

Measures 14 inches in width, when open.

Full-page specimen of type on other page.

me this day; and he sware unto him: and he sold his birthright unto Jā'-cŏb.

34 Then Jā'-cŏb gave Ē'-saû bread and pottage of lentiles; and he did eat and drink, and rose up, and went his way: thus Ē'-saû despised his birthright.

26] CHAPTER 26

AND there was a famine in the land, beside the first famine that was in the days of Ā'-brā-hăm. And Ī'-sāāc went unto Ă-bĭm'-ĕ-lĕch king of the Phĭl'-ĭs-tīnes unto Gē'-rär.

2 And the LORD appeared unto him, and said, Go not down into Ē'-gўpt; dwell in the land which I shall tell thee of:

3 Sojourn in this land, and I will be with thee, and will bless thee; for unto thee, and unto thy seed, I will give all these countries, and I will perform the oath which I sware unto Ā'-brā-hăm thy father;

4 And I will make thy seed to multiply as the stars of heaven, and will give unto thy seed all these countries; and in thy seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed;

5 Because that Ā'-brā-hăm obeyed my voice, and kept my charge, my commandments, my statutes, and my laws.

6 ¶ And Ī'-sāāc dwelt in Gē'-rär:

7 And the men of the place asked him of his wife; and he said, She is my sister: for he feared to say, She is my wife; lest, said he, the men of the place should kill me for Rĕ-bĕk'-ăh; because she was fair to look upon.

8 And it came to pass, when he had been there a long time, that Ă-bĭm'-ĕ-lĕch king of the Phĭl'-ĭs-tīnes looked out at a window, and saw, and, behold, Ī'-sāāc was sporting with Rĕ-bĕk'-ăh his wife.

9 And Ă-bĭm'-ĕ-lĕch called Ī'-sāāc, and said, Behold, of a surety she is thy wife: and how saidst thou, She is my sister? And Ī'-sāāc said unto him, Because I said, Lest I die for her.

10 And Ă-bĭm'-ĕ-lĕch said, What is this thou hast done unto us? one of the people might lightly have lien with thy wife, and thou shouldest have brought guiltiness upon us.

11 And Ă-bĭm'-ĕ-lĕch charged all his people, saying, He that toucheth this man or his wife shall surely be put to death.

12 Then Ī'-sāāc sowed in that land, and received in the same year an hundredfold: and the LORD blessed him.

13 And the man waxed great, and went forward, and grew until he became very great:

14 For he had possession of flocks, and possession of herds, and great store of servants: and the Phĭl'-ĭs-tīnes envied him.

15 For all the wells which his father's servants had digged in the days of Ā'-brā-hăm his father, the Phĭl'-ĭs-tīnes had stopped them, and filled them with earth.

16 And Ă-bĭm'-ĕ-lĕch said unto Ī'-sāāc, Go from us; for thou art much mightier than we.

17 ¶ And Ī'-sāāc departed thence, and pitched his tent in the valley of Gē'-rär, and dwelt there.

18 And Ī'-sāāc digged again the wells of water, which they had digged in the days of Ā'-brā-hăm his father; for the Phĭl'-ĭs-tīnes had stopped them after the death of Ā'-brā-hăm: and he called their names after the names by which his father had called them.

19 And Ī'-sāāc's servants digged in the valley, and found there a well of springing water.

20 And the herdmen of Gē'-rär

THE OXFORD PICTORIAL BIBLE

Some illustrated Bibles contain copies from the Old Masters, and grand as these pictures are in color and artistic skill, no one would venture to say they are correct either as to place or costume. Other editions contain modern pictures drawn by very capable artists unfamiliar with the East. Some Bibles are full of pictures of supposed occurrences, but to our mind, no legend or tradition should be pictorially represented in a Bible. In these Bibles no attempt has been made to illustrate by picture the Divine Christ, but to depict existing customs, which throw light on Bible statements. THE PICTURES, WHATEVER MERIT OR DEMERIT THEY MAY HAVE, ARE AT LEAST TRUE.

OXFORD REFERENCE BIBLES

(WITHOUT TEACHERS' HELPS)

The specimen below illustrates the features of the references to be found in all Oxford Reference, Concordance, and Teachers' Bibles. In verse 37 will be found a letter i next to the word "Thou." In the reference column in the centre under i there are four references where a similar thought may be found. In the nineteenth verse, next to the word "penny," is a figure 2. This guides to the reference under the same figure, which gives the modern equivalent to the Galilean penny. In the 20th verse, next to "superscription," is the figure 3, which guides to an alternative reading in the reference column.

Much light is thrown on many difficult passages by using the references connected with them; in fact, there is no more fruitful method of "searching the Scriptures" than by following out various thoughts by this system.

The Better Grade Bindings Most Economical

In selecting a Bible it is advisable to choose one with a better grade binding. While the lower priced ones give good service, the better ones will last much longer. A Bible that is used for years often acquires a value far beyond its original price, and if it needs rebinding, this will cost more, perhaps, than the book did originally. Rebinding is comparatively high in cost because of the charge for binder's time on one special copy. Therefore, it is well to suggest to your customer the selection of as good a binding as he can possibly afford.

OXFORD TEACHERS' BIBLES

With New and Up-to-Date Helps
Arranged Under One Alphabet

The Only Teachers' Bible made with 20th Century Helps

Being a Practical Bible Dictionary, Including Index, Concordance, Glossary, Weights, Measures, Coins, Botany, Etc., Etc.

ARRANGED UNDER ONE ALPHABET WITH NEW ILLUSTRATIONS

THE HELPS in this new Series of Teachers' Bibles have been thoroughly revised by English and American scholars, so as to embody the results of the most recent researches. For the greater convenience of teacher and student the information given in the forty-seven alphabetical lists of the Helps has been rearranged in a single alphabetical order, so that any subject about which information is required may be instantly found in its proper alphabetical place, without the necessity of reference to an index, or of search in a table of contents.

But though the arrangement is that of a Dictionary, the CYCLOPEDIC HELPS are much more than a word-book, for many of the cyclopedic articles of the Helps are included, each in its alphabetical place, and wherever it is necessary cross references to these are given under the more special entries. For instance, each weight, measure, and coin is entered in its own place in the general alphabetical order, and under each entry a reference is given to the general articles, such as Weights, Measures, or Coins, in which further information will be found. Of the illustrations, some have been taken from the "Bible Illustrations" which have appeared in recent issues of the Oxford Helps, and nothing has been included that is not authentic beyond all possibility of doubt. The pictures of scenes in Bible Lands are from photographs recently taken by M. Bonfils, and are reproduced with his permission. A new series of maps, fifteen in all, is included in the volume.

These new Helps doubly strengthen the position which the OXFORD TEACHERS' BIBLE has always held as

"The Bible par excellence of the World"

OXFORD TEACHERS' BIBLES

ILLUSTRATING THE TREATMENT OF SUBJECTS

Animals

Leviathan, lĕ-vī′-a-thăn (Ps. 74. 14; Job 41. 1). Heb. Livyâthân: Gk. δράκων: Zool. S. Crocodilus vulgaris: R. V. marg. 'crocodile.' The word occurs five times, and in every case but one (Ps. 104. 26) denotes the crocodile; there it denotes the whale. In Job 3. 8, 'their mourning' in A. V., but 'leviathan' in R. V. & A. V. marg., probably refers to the 'dragon.'

Birds

Eagle. (1) (Deu. 32. 11). Heb. Nésher: Gk. ἀετός. (Specimens, Circaetus Gallicus; Gyps fulvus. T. Found at Yebua.) The word is used by the Arabs for the true eagles, of which there are eight species in the Holy Land, and for the vulture, of which there are four species.
(2) Gier (Lev. 11. 18). Heb. Rachâm: Gk. πορφυρίων: R. V. vulture. (Specimen Neophron percnopterus.) The 'Egyptian vulture' or 'Pharaoh's hen,' common in Asia and all parts of Africa.

Botany

Aloes, or Lign-Aloes. (Num. 24. 6.) Heb. (1) Ahâlim, (2) Ahâloth: Gk. στακτή, σκηναί, ἄλοη: Bot. N. Aquilaria agallocha. (1) A spice. (2) A vigorous native tree used by Balaam as a figure of the prosperity of Israel. The aloes of medicine differs from both.
Ps. 45. 8, smell of . . . and a.
S. of S. 4. 14, a., with all the chief spices.
John 19. 39, a mixture of myrrh and a.

Concordance

Abhor. Ex. 5. 21, made our savour to be a.
Job 19. 19, my inward friends a.
Ps. 78. 59, God wroth, and a. Israel.
89. 38, thou hast cast off and a. R. V. rejected.
107. 18, soul a. all manner of meat.
119. 163, I hate and a. lying.
Prov. 22. 14, a. of the Lord shall fall therein.
Isa. 7. 16, land thou a. shall be forsaken.
66. 24, they shall be an a. unto all flesh.
Ezek. 16. 25, beauty to be a. R. V. an abomination.
Am. 6. 8, I a. the excellency of Jacob.
See Lev. 26. 11; Job 42. 6; Rom. 12. 9.

Dictionary of Scripture Proper Names

Elisha, ē-lī′-shā, 'God is salvation.' (1) succeeds Elijah. 1 Kn. 19. 16. receives his mantle, and divides Jordan. 2 Kn. 2. 13.
heals the waters with salt. 2 Kn. 2. 22.
bears destroy the children who mock him. 2 Kn. 2. 24.
his miracles: water, 2 Kn. 3. 16; oil, 4. 4; Shunammite's son, 4. 32; death in the pot, 4. 40; feeds a hundred men with twenty loaves, 4. 44; Naaman's leprosy, 5. 14; iron swims, 6. 5; Syrians struck blind, 6. 18.
prophesies plenty in Samaria when besieged. 2 Kn. 7. 1. sends to anoint Jehu. 2 Kn. 9. 1.
his death. 2 Kn. 13. 20.
miracle wrought by his bones. 2 Kn. 13. 21.

Glossary of Antiquities

Amen, ā′-mĕn, a Hebrew word meaning literally firm, sure, faithful (Rev. 3. 14); (tantamount to an oath).
Num. 5. 22, the woman shall say, A.
Deu. 27. 15–26, the people shall say, A
Ps. 41. 13; 72. 19; 89. 52, A. and A.
106. 48, let all the people say, A.
Mat. 6. 13; Rom. 16. 27, glory for ever, A
1 Cor. 14. 16, of the unlearned say, A.
2 Cor. 1. 20, and in him, A.
Rev. 3. 14, these things saith the A.
See Rev. 22. 20.

Jewish Sects

Sadducees, săd′-dū-cēes. A religious party of the Jews, in opposition to the Pharisees. The name is derived either from Zadok (Gk. often Saddouk), a Rabbi who lived about 300 B. C., or from Sadoc, 'just,' 'righteous,' as a retort against the arrogant title of 'pious' adopted by the Pharisees. They were very conservative in theology, and refused to admit any doctrine which could not be traced to Moses. (Hence their address to our Lord — 'Master, Moses said . . .') Thus they retained the vague ideas of a future life held by the earlier Hebrews, denying the doctrine of resurrection; and in consequence their creed was rationalistic in tone; they held that there was 'neither angel nor spirit.' In our Lord's time the high-priestly aristocracy was largely Sadducean (Acts 4. 17). their controversies with Christ, Mat. 16. 1; 22. 23; Mk. 12. 18; Lu. 20. 27. with the apostles, Acts 4. 1; with Paul, Acts 23. 6. their doctrines. Mat. 22. 23; Mk. 12. 18; Acts 23. 8.

Insects

Fly (n.). (1) (Ex. 8. 21; Ps. 78. 45.) Heb. Arôb, or Orôb: Gk. κυνόμυια: Zoöl. S. Musca, or Culex. The word means 'swarms' or 'divers sorts.' It is probably here generic, including in the 'plague of swarms' flies, sand-flies, gnats, mosquitoes, &c.
(2) (Eccl. 10. 1). Heb. Zebûb: Gk. μυῖα, only twice mentioned; once here, referring to the common fly, whose swarms would corrupt any unguent or savoury compote in a few minutes. (In Isa. 7. 18) (Zoöl. S. Hippobosca, or Œstrus), a gadfly tormenting the horses on the banks of the Nile, where 'probably the poisonous Tsetse, described by Livingstone, is meant.'

Seas and Lakes

Galilee, Sea of, called also Sea of Tiberias, Lake of Gennesaret, Sea of Chinnereth. About 13 miles long and 7 broad; 700 feet below the level of the Mediterranean. In the time of Christ the shore was a continuous garden, with several cities and villages, and was a favorite summer resort.

Weights and Money

Shekel, shĕ′-kĕl. (1) a weight = 224½ grs. See WEIGHTS.
(2) a silver coin = stater = 4 denarii = 65 cts. See MONEY.
See Gen. 23. 15; Ex. 30. 13; Jos. 7. 21; 2 Sam. 14. 26; 1 Kn. 10. 16; Neh. 5. 15; Jer. 32. 9; Ezek. 4. 10.

Minerals

Clay. (1) (Isa. 29. 16; 45. 9; 64. 8; Jer. 18. 4). Heb. Hômer: Gk. πηλός. A tenacious earth, like that so called by us, used for making bricks and earthenware. It was less cohesive than ours, and accordingly for the former purpose was bound together by an admixture of straw before being baked, and for building purposes was mixed with sand.
(2) (Isa. 41. 25). Heb. Tît: Gk. πηλός. Tît (lit. dirt) was, and still is, the common building material of the mud-houses of the peasantry of Palestine.

Jewish Calendar

Passover. The Passover was a great Historical Festival. Year after year it recalled, as in 'a living drama,' the great facts of the national deliverance from Egyptian bondage. The directions for its yearly celebration are given in Ex. 23. 15; Lev. 23. 5–8; Num. 28. 16–25. It lasted from the 14th to the 21st of Nisan or Abib. See FEASTS.

Musical Instruments

Dulcimer (Dan. 3. 5, 10, 15). Chald. Sumphônyah: Gk. συμφωνία: R. V. marg. 'bagpipe,' probably correct. The real dulcimer is the Psantêrin (translated 'psaltery' in A. V.), an instrument formed of strings tightly stretched, by fixed pins and turning screws, over a rectangular sounding-board or box; and was played by hammers struck with the hand against the strings. It is the germ of the piano.

Obsolete Words

Prophet. The literal meaning of the Greek word (προφήτης, from πρόφημι, 'to speak forth') is a forth-teller, i. e., one who speaks forth the message which has been communicated to him through Divine inspiration, whether of practical duties or future events. The emphasis of the prophet's work lay on the former
The Heb. words are: (1) nâbî', from a verb meaning 'to boil forth' as a fountain, hence one who speaks out freely from a full heart impelled by an inspiration from God. (2) rô'eh, from a verb meaning to see, hence a seer (1 Sam. 9. 10), one who saw Divine visions, Divine truths, and spoke what he had seen from God.

Precious Stones

Carbuncle (Ex. 28. 17; R. V. marg. emerald). Heb. Bâréketh: Gk. σμάραγδος. A mistranslation in Ex. 28. for 'emerald,' the only green stone 'flashing light,' which is the meaning of the Hebrew It is likened to a rainbow in Rev 4. 3.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO

1 1] ST. JOHN. [1 14

WRITER. The fourth Gospel was written by the Apostle John (John 21. 24). This has been questioned on critical grounds, but on the same grounds and with equal scholarship, the early date and Johanean authorship have been maintained.

Date. The date of John's Gospel falls between A.D. 85 and 90. Probably the latter.

Theme. This is indicated both in the Prologue (1. 1–14), and in the last verse of the Gospel proper (20. 31), and is: The incarnation of the eternal Word, and Son of God, Himself God, in Jesus the Christ, (1) to reveal God in the terms of a human life; (2) that as many as believe on Him as "the Christ, the Son of God" (20. 31) may have eternal life. The prominent words are, "believed" and "life."

The book is in seven natural divisions: I. Prologue: The eternal Word incarnate in Jesus the Christ, 1. 1–14. II. The witness of John the Baptist 1. 15–34. III. The public ministry of Christ, 1. 35–12. 50. IV. The private ministry of Christ to His own, 13. 1–17. 26. V. The sacrifice of Christ, 18. 1–19. 42. VI. The manifestation of Christ in resurrection, 20. 1–31. VII. Epilogue: Christ the Master of life and service, 21. 1–25.

The events recorded in this book cover a period of 7 years.

CHAPTER 1.

The deity of Jesus Christ. (Cf. Heb. 1. 5–13.)

IN the beginning was the [1][a]Word, and the Word was with [b]God, and the Word was [c]God.

2 The same was in the beginning with God.

His pre-incarnation work. (Cf. Heb. 1. 2.)

3 [d]All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made.

4 In him was [e]life; and the life was the light of men.

5 And the light shineth in darkness; and the darkness [f]comprehended it not.

Ministry of John Baptist. (See vs. 29–34. Cf. Mt. 3. 1–17; Mk. 1. 1–11; Lk. 3. 1–23.)

6 There was a [g]man sent from God, whose name was John.

7 The same came for a [h]witness, to bear witness of the Light, that all men through him might believe.

8 [i]He was not that Light, but was sent to bear witness of that Light.

A.D. 26.

a Rev.19.13.
b John 17.5.
c Heb.1.8,13; 1 John 5.20.

o Flesh. John 3.6. (John 1. 13; Jude 23.)
p 1 Tim.3.16.

Jesus Christ the true Light. (Cf. John 8. 12; 9. 5; 12. 46.)

9 That was the true [j]Light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the [k]world.

10 He was in the [k]world, and the world was made by him, and the world knew him not.

The two classes: sons and unbelievers. (Cf. 1 John 3. 1, 2; 5. 11, 12.)

11 [l]He came unto his own, and his own received him not.

12 But as many as received him, to them gave he [m]power to become the sons of God, even to them that [n]believe on his name:

13 Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the [o]flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.

The incarnation. (Cf. Mt. 1. 18–23; Lk. 1. 30–35; Rom. 1. 3, 4.)

14 And the [p]Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth.

[1] Gr. Logos (Aram. Memra, used in the Targums, or Heb. paraphrases, for God). The Greek term means, (1) a thought or concept; (2) the expression or utterance of that thought. As a designation of Christ, therefore, Logos is peculiarly felicitous because, (1) in Him are embodied all the treasures of the divine wisdom, the collective "thought" of God (1 Cor. 1. 24; Eph. 3. 11; Col. 2. 2, 3); and, (2) He is, from eternity, but especially in His incarnation, the utterance or expression of the Person, and "thought" of Deity (John 1. 3–5, 9, 14–18; 14. 9–11; Col. 2. 9). In the Being, Person, and work of Christ, Deity is told out.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO

1 1] ST. JOHN. [1 14

WRITER. The fourth Gospel was written by the Apostle John (John 21. 24). This has been questioned on critical grounds, but on the same grounds and with equal scholarship, the early date and Johanean authorship have been maintained.

Date. The date of John's Gospel falls between A.D. 85 and 90. Probably the latter.

Theme. This is indicated both in the Prologue (1. 1–14), and in the last verse of the Gospel proper (20. 31), and is: The incarnation of the eternal Word, and Son of God, Himself God, in Jesus the Christ, (1) to reveal God in the terms of a human life; (2) that as many as believe on Him as "the Christ, the Son of God" (20. 31) may have eternal life. The prominent words are, "believed" and "life."

The book is in seven natural divisions: I. Prologue: The eternal Word incarnate in Jesus the Christ, 1. 1–14. II. The witness of John the Baptist, 1. 15–34. III. The public ministry of Christ, 1. 35–12. 50. IV. The private ministry of Christ to His own, 13. 1–17. 26. V. The sacrifice of Christ, 18. 1–19. 42. VI. The manifestation of Christ in resurrection, 20. 1–31. VII. Epilogue: Christ the Master of life and service, 21. 1–25.

The events recorded in this book cover a period of 7 years.

CHAPTER 1.

The deity of Jesus Christ. (Cf. Heb. 1. 5–13.)

IN the beginning was the [1][a]Word, and the Word was with [b]God, and the Word was [c]God.

2 The same was in the beginning with God.

His pre-incarnation work. (Cf. Heb. 1. 2.)

3 [d]All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made.

4 In him was [e]life; and the life was the light of men.

5 And the light shineth in darkness; and the darkness [f]comprehended it not.

Ministry of John Baptist. (See vs. 29–34. Cf. Mt. 3. 1–17; Mk. 1. 1–11; Lk. 3. 1–23.)

6 There was a [g]man sent from God, whose name was John.

7 The same came for a [h]witness, to bear witness of the Light, that all men through him might believe.

8 [i]He was not that Light, but was sent to bear witness of that Light.

A.D. 26.

a Rev.19.13.
b John 17.5.
c Heb.1.8,13; 1 John 5.20.
d Eph.3.9.
e Life (eternal). John 3.15,16,36. (Mt.7.14; Rev.22.19.)
f Or, apprehended; lit. laid not hold of it.
g Mal.3.1; Lk.3.2,3.
h John 3.26,36.
i Acts 19.4.
j Isa.49.6.
k kosmos (Mt. 4.8) = mankind.
l i.e. He came unto his own things, and his own people received him not.
m Or, authority.
n Faith. John 3.15,16,18,36. (Gen.3.20; Heb.11.39.)
o Flesh. John 3.6. (John 1. 13; Jude 23.)
p 1 Tim.3.16.

Jesus Christ the true Light. (Cf. John 8. 12; 9. 5; 12. 46.)

9 That was the true [j]Light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the [k]world.

10 He was in the [k]world, and the world was made by him, and the world knew him not.

The two classes: sons and unbelievers. (Cf. 1 John 3. 1, 2; 5. 11, 12.)

11 [l]He came unto his own, and his own received him not.

12 But as many as received him, to them gave he [m]power to become the sons of God, even to them that [n]believe on his name:

13 Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the [o]flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.

The incarnation. (Cf. Mt. 1. 18–23; Lk. 1. 30–35; Rom. 1. 3, 4.)

14 And the [p]Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth.

[1] Gr. Logos (Aram. Memra, used in the Targums, or Heb. paraphrases, for God). The Greek term means, (1) a thought or concept; (2) the expression or utterance of that thought. As a designation of Christ, therefore, Logos is peculiarly felicitous because, (1) in Him are embodied all the treasures of the divine wisdom, the collective "thought" of God (1 Cor. 1. 24; Eph. 3. 11; Col. 2. 2, 3); and, (2) He is, from eternity, but especially in His incarnation, the utterance or expression of the Person, and "thought" of Deity (John 1. 3–5, 9, 14–18; 14. 9–11; Col. 2. 9). In the Being, Person, and work of Christ, Deity is told out.

Christians obliged ROMANS, 6. to holiness.

19 For as by one man's disobedience many were made sinners, so by the obedience of one shall many be made righteous.

20 Moreover the law entered, that the offence might abound. But where sin abounded, grace did much more abound:

21 That as sin hath reigned unto death, even so might grace reign through righteousness unto eternal life by Jesus more; death hath no more dominion over him.

10 For in that he died, he died unto sin once: but in that he liveth, he liveth unto God.

11 Likewise reckon ye also yourselves to be dead indeed unto sin, but alive unto God through Jesus Christ our Lord.

12 Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal body, that ye should obey it in the lusts thereof.

13 Neither yield ye your

The incarnation. (Cf. Mt. 1. 18–23; Lk. 1. 30–35; Rom. 1. 3, 4.)

14 And the p Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth.

[1](1. 1). Gr. Logos (Aram. Memra, used in the Targums, or Heb. paraphrases, for God). The term means, (1) a thought or concept; (2) the expression or utterance of that thought. As a designation of Christ, therefore, Logos is peculiarly felicitous because, (1) in Him are embodied all the treasures of the divine wisdom, the collective "thought" of God (1 Cor. 1. 24; Eph. 3. 11; Col. 2. 2, 3); and, (2) He is, from eternity, but especially in His incarnation, the utterance or expression of the Person, and "thought" of Deity (John 1. 3–5, 9, 14–18; 14. 9–11; Col. 2. 9). In the Being, Person, and work of Christ, Deity is told out.

MORNING PRAYER. 7.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be : world without end. Amen.

¶ At the end of the whole Portion of the Psalms or Selection from the Psalter, the Gloria in excelsis may be sung or said instead of the Gloria Patri.

¶ Then shall be read the FIRST LESSON, according to the Table or Calendar. After which shall be said or sung the following Hymn.

¶ Note, That before every Lesson, the Minister shall say, Here beginneth such a Chapter [or Verse of such a Chapter] of such a Book; and after every Lesson, Here endeth the First [or the Second] Lesson.

Te Deum laudamus.

WE praise thee, O God : we acknowledge thee to be the Lord.

All the earth doth worship thee : the Father everlasting.

To thee all Angels cry aloud : the Heavens, and all the Powers therein;

To thee Cherubim and Seraphim : continually do cry,

Holy, Holy, Holy : Lord God of Sabaoth;

Heaven and earth are full of the Majesty : of thy glory.

The glorious company of the Apostles: praise thee.

The goodly fellowship of the Prophets: praise thee.

The noble army of Martyrs : praise thee.

The holy Church throughout all the world : doth acknowledge thee;

The Father : of an infinite Majesty;

Thine adorable, true : and only Son;

Also the Holy Ghost : the Comforter.

Thou art the King of Glory : O Christ.

Thou art the everlasting Son : of the Father.

When thou tookest upon thee to deliver man: thou didst humble thyself to be born of a Virgin.

When thou hadst overcome the sharpness of death : thou didst open the Kingdom of Heaven to all believers.

Thou sittest at the right hand of God : in the glory of the Father.

FROM Greenland's icy mountains,
From India's coral strand,
Where Afric's sunny fountains
Roll down their golden sand;
From many an ancient river,
From many a palmy plain,
They call us to deliver
Their land from error's chain.

2 What though the spicy breezes
Blow soft o'er Ceylon's isle;
Though every prospect pleases,
And only man is vile:
In vain with lavish kindness
The gifts of God are strown;
The heathen in his blindness
Bows down to wood and stone.

3 Can we, whose souls are lighted
With wisdom from on high;
Can we to men benighted
The lamp of life deny?
Salvation, O salvation!
The joyful sound proclaim,
Till each remotest nation
Has learnt Messiah's Name.

JESUS, thy boundless love to me
No thought can reach, no tongue declare;
O knit my thankful heart to thee,
And reign without a rival there!
Thine wholly, thine alone, I am;
Be thou alone my constant flame.

2 O grant that nothing in my soul
May dwell, but thy pure love alone!
O may thy love possess me whole,
My joy, my treasure, and my crown!
Strange flames far from my heart remove;
May every act, word, thought be love!

THE BOOK OF COMMON PRAYER

20 EVENING PRAYER.

God, who confess their faults. Restore thou those who are penitent; According to thy promises declared unto mankind in Christ Jesus our Lord. And grant, O most merciful Father, for his sake; That we may hereafter live a godly, righteous, and sober life, To the glory of thy holy Name. Amen.

The Declaration of Absolution, or Remission of Sins.

¶ To be made by the Priest alone, standing; the People still kneeling.

ALMIGHTY God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who desireth not the death of a sinner, but rather that he may turn from his wickedness and live, hath given power, and commandment, to his Ministers, to declare and pronounce to his people, being penitent, the Absolution and Remission of their sins. He pardoneth and absolveth all those who truly repent, and unfeignedly believe his holy Gospel. Wherefore let us beseech him to grant us true repentance, and his Holy Spirit, that those things may please him which we do at this present; and that the rest of our life hereafter may be pure and holy; so that at the last we may come to his eternal joy; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Or this.

ALMIGHTY God, our heavenly Father, who of his great mercy hath promised forgiveness of sins to all those who, with hearty repentance and true faith, turn unto him; Have mercy upon you; pardon and deliver you from all your sins; confirm and strengthen you in all goodness; and bring you to everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Then the Minister shall kneel, and say the Lord's Prayer; the People still kneeling, and repeating it with him.

OUR Father, who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done

3 O love, how cheering is thy ray!
All pain before thy presence flies;
Care, anguish, sorrow melt away,
Where'er thy healing beams arise.
O Jesus, nothing may I see,
Nothing desire or seek, but thee!

4 Still let thy love point out my way!
What wondrous things thy love hath wrought!
Still lead me, lest I go astray;
Direct my word, inspire my thought;
And if I fall, soon may I hear
Thy voice, and know that love is near.

5 In suffering, be thy love my peace;
In weakness, be thy love my power;
And when the storms of life shall cease,
Jesus, in that dark, final hour
Of death, be thou my Guide and Friend,
That I may love thee without end. Amen.

3 Can we, whose souls are lighted
With wisdom from on high;
Can we to men benighted
The lamp of life deny?
Salvation, O salvation!
The joyful sound proclaim,
Till each remotest nation
Has learnt Messiah's Name.

4 Waft, waft, ye winds, his story,
And you, ye waters, roll,
Till, like a sea of glory,
It spreads from pole to pole:
Till o'er our ransomed nature,
The Lamb for sinners slain,
Redeemer, King, Creator,
In bliss returns to reign.

The Oxford Dickens

Complete works of Charles Dickens, including all the additional stories and sketches which appear in the Gadshill and authentic editions, with 696 illustrations from the original drawings by Cruikshank, 'Phiz,' etc.

Specimen of Type

"Very odd!" said Mr. Winkle; "I'll be down directly." He hurriedly wrapped himself in a travelling-shawl and dressing-gown, and proceeded down-stairs. An old woman and a couple of waiters were cleaning the coffee-room, and an officer in undress uniform was looking out of the window. He turned round as Mr. Winkle entered, and made a stiff inclination of the head. Having ordered the attendants to retire, and closed the door very carefully, he said, "Mr. Winkle, I presume?"

The Oxford Thackeray

Edited, with Introductions, by GEORGE SAINTSBURY

In this edition the various writings have been arranged in chronological order, as far as such an arrangement is possible, so that the reader may get a very much better appreciation of the nature and development of Thackeray's genius.

The illustrations, of which there are 1,942 (many of which are drawn by Thackeray himself), are taken mainly from early editions.

THE ENGLISH REPLICAS

are exact reproductions of rare editions. They have an interest quite apart from that of the usual reprint in that not only the text but also the physical appearance of the early edition is reproduced to the last detail, by a new process. They are printed on Abbey Mills paper and bound in Japan vellum and boards. An edition of each volume, limited to 100, or in some cases 250 numbered copies, is printed on a fine rag paper and bound in vellum.

The books by George Wharton Edwards are the most sumptuous examples of the printers' and binders' art that have been published in recent years. The illustrations are of exceptional artistic value and are reproduced in full color.

†SPAIN. By George Wharton Edwards. Spain is the country of Romance. Spanish culture, art and literature are as old as antiquity itself. In picturing and describing this country, Mr. Edwards has caught the color of the country as no other artist and he has here achieved his most eminent work. Over sixty illustrations in color and monotone by the author. Boxed. $7.50

PARIS. By George Wharton Edwards. Paris, the city beautiful; Paris, of the Grand Boulevards, Notre Dame, the Latin Quarter; Paris, the great playground of the world, the intellectual center, the source of clothes and cooking, all written with the same charm and knowledge that features the other books by Mr. Edwards. Forty-six illustrations in color and monotone by the author. Boxed. $7.50.

LONDON. By George Wharton Edwards. The most interesting city in the world, with its buildings, its bridges, its monuments, and its wealth of history, is presented to the reader by the artist-author in all its beauty. Forty or more illustrations in rich color and monotone. Boxed. $7.50.

Special Edition of George Wharton Edwards' Books for Travelers

These five volumes have been reprinted in a size convenient for travelers. The volumes are regular octavo in size, uniformly bound in green cloth with cover designs stamped in three colors and gold. TOURING NEW ENGLAND. By Clara Whiteside. The delightfully told story of a summer motor trip through the highways and byways of lower New England. Not only are the larger cities described but much attention is given to lesser known towns and villages which are nevertheless replete with historic interest. Illustrated with etchings by Ada C. Williamson. Boxed. $5.00.

†DOWN TO THE SEA IN SHIPS. By Irvin Anthony. The story of ships from the first crude raft to the superb clippers, with a particular emphasis on American ships. The book contains chapters on the Vikings, the East India Company, and the achievements of America's packet and clipper ships. Profusely illustrated with old prints, drawings, photographs of model ships, and paintings. Boxed. $5.00.

MY TRIP AROUND THE WORLD. By Dorothy Dix. Starting from New York City, the author crosses America, sails to the Orient, stopping at the Hawaiian Islands, visits Japan, China, the East Indies, and back by way of Southern Europe to Boston. She reports in her own inimitable manner her impressions of the cities and countries she visits. Illustrated with photographs. Boxed. $5.00.

The Shackleton Books

The Shackleton books of travel and collecting have an informality which is not found in other books. They are splendid examples of observation and intimate knowledge, combined with the rare ability to present the facts in an entertaining style. Handsomely bound and illustrated and suitable for gifts.

THE BOOK OF NEW ORLEANS. By Elizabeth Shackleton. The romantic interest of the old creole city is presented to the reader with all the sympathy of Mrs. Shackleton's descriptive powers. The historic churches, the law courts, the old restaurants, markets, streets and byways are intimately and faithfully described. Cloth, $3.50.

†THE BOOK OF WASHINGTON. By Robert Shackleton. Life at the capital, the beauties of the city and the foibles of those prominent in public life, treated in a whimsical but searching manner. The architectural beauty of the first city of the land is described. Cloth, $3.50. Half Morocco, $10.00.

†THE BOOK OF BOSTON. By Robert Shackleton. With charming intimacy Mr. Shackleton discusses the history of the city, its institutions, traditions, landmarks, and above all its people. Nothing is too small for him to chronicle. A sympathetic, often humorous interpretation of the city. Bostonians claim this is the best book dealing with their city. Cloth, $3.50. Half Morocco, $10.00.

†THE BOOK OF NEW YORK. By Robert Shackleton. Any American who reads this volume will have a new pride in this greatest of American cities. Mr. Shackleton has found the spirit and history back of the towers of Manhattan. Cloth, $3.50. Half Morocco, $10.00.

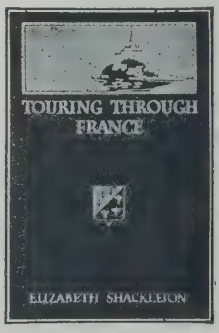
Travel and Collecting

†THE BOOK OF PHILADELPHIA. By Robert Shackleton. Quaint, old-time Philadelphia finds a place here, but the big, business Philadelphia is also pictured in a fascinating way. Famous folk appear as living beings in this record of the nation's first capital. Cloth, $3.50. Half Morocco, $10.00.

†THE BOOK OF CHICAGO. By Robert Shackleton. An excellent picture of Chicago from all angles: art, literature, music and daily life. The landmarks of the early settlers and the "beauty spots" of the modern city receive equal attention. Cloth, $3.50. Half Morocco, $10.00.

†UNVISITED PLACES OF OLD EUROPE. By Robert Shackleton. Strange, out-of-the-way places off the tourist's beaten track. Written with an enthusiasm and an original point of view that is catching. Cloth, $5.00. Half Morocco, $12.00.



†TOURING THROUGH FRANCE. By Elizabeth Shackleton. A chatty travel book of the author's trip from Cherbourg through Brittany, Carcassone, The Riviera, to Paris and back across Normandy. Mrs. Shackleton has discovered all the charm and the sense of adventure in remote places. Profusely illustrated with photographs. Boxed. $5.00.

†TOURING GREAT BRITAIN. By Robert Shackleton. On informal account of a thorough and leisurely automobile tour in Great Britain. In this chronicle of six weeks of motoring the author reveals to the reader the very heart and essence of England, Scotland and Wales. One of the best books for "arm chair travel." Cloth, $5.00. Half Morocco, $12.00.

†THE CHARM OF THE ANTIQUE. By Robert and Elizabeth Shackleton. The charm that pervades the antique, the allurement that goes with time, the fascination that accompanies the serene mellowing of age, are infinitely increased by possession. A wealth of information about Colonial houses, furniture and china. Cloth, $5.00. Half Morocco, $12.00.

†THE QUEST OF THE COLONIAL. By Robert and Elizabeth Shackleton. The experiences, very often humorous, of two collectors of things Colonial. The authors found many genuine antiques and learned how to shun those which were imitation. An invaluable guide to those who love and seek furniture, china, and copper and silverware. Cloth, $5.00. Half Morocco, $12.00.

Stories for Little Children

Cloth binding. Each, $1.50

Covers in full color by Kate Greenaway and others. Attractively illustrated in color and in black and white by Hattie Longstreet Price.

It is exceedingly difficult to find interesting and yet simple stories for children of tender age. Here are four books about seven cousins and their animal playmates. The good times they have all happen at Grandmother's, out in the country where there is a big, big house and everything that could make a child happy. With these four books there is also included a most attractive edition of Mother Goose with other old standard fairy tales.

THE ALL-ALONE HOUSE. By Ruth Campbell. Colin goes to Grandmother's, away out in the country, and such good times he has with the little cousins and Rex and the paint pots.

THAT PINK AND BLUE AFFAIR. By Ruth Campbell. Grandmother gives a birthday party for Marcia, because she is ten years old. It was a glorious outdoor party, with a band and ice cream, and the next day came the pony and cart for all the cousins.

THE RUNAWAY SMALLS. By Ruth Campbell. The children really went on a picnic and when they started home they took the wrong turning and the next thing they knew they were lost. Then Grandmother came and found them.

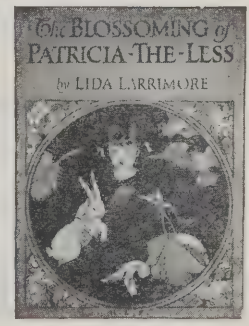
KIDDIES AND GROWN-UPS, TOO. By Ruth Campbell. Colin comes back to Grandmother's and he and the cousins evolve some truly original money-making ideas. The Grown-ups are at first, to say the least, unreasonable, but they finally see the matter through the children's eyes.

OLD MOTHER GOOSE and Other Fairy Tales. Whatever else may change, Mother Goose will never go out of fashion. All the most important of the old rhymes are presented here, together with other favorites, such as Red Riding Hood, Cinderella, Puss-in-Boots and other imaginative stories.

Specially Priced Children's Gift Books

All Illustrated in Color $1.00, Each

BINKIE AND THE BELL DOLLS. By Margaret Widdemer. The story of a little girl who loses one doll after another, but finds them all again. A delightful child's story by a leading fiction writer.



THE BLOSSOMING OF PATRICIA-THE-LESS. By Lida Larrimore. Patricia is the victim of her imagination. Repressed by her aunt, she, with Barrington Sidney and Froggy Ellis, runs away to join the Gipsies. The love affair of her two best friends figures as a background.

CAPTAIN KITTY, COLONIAL. By Lucy Foster Madison. The story of a little girl in Colonial New York shortly before the Revolution. Kitty's adventures are unusual and thrilling. There is a hunt for a chest of gold, encounters with blackguard sailors and similar exciting events.

THE GINGERBREAD HOUSE. By Ruth Brown MacArthur. A story of cheerfulness. Sherman is a manly, self-reliant American youngster, who makes friends wherever he goes. Troubles came but Sherman stood by his friends and won out. Illustrated in color by Hattie Longstreet Price.

LITTLE MOTHER. By Ruth Brown MacArthur. Little Tannie came to live under the roof of her wealthy cousin. That household was just waiting for her and didn't know it. She "wished on a star" that they would like her and want her to stay; and you will find yourself hoping that her wish comes true.

THE MUSHROOM BOY. By Theodore Acland Harper. An unusual fairy tale in which fanciful things happen in a real way and real things become inexplicable. David is the Mushroom Boy, and to be a Mushroom Boy is to see with one's imagination. Illustrated by Florenz Clark.

THE MUSICAL TREE. By Sarah Stilwell Weber. A collection of simple, delightful and original songs and verses for children by this well-known artist. There are beautiful pictures in color, both full page and half-page, for each song.

OLD SONGS IN FRENCH AND ENGLISH. This book is composed of three volumes, Old Rhymes of France, Bergerettes, and Songs of Old England. It is a collection suitable for children as well as adult lovers of old music and favorite folk-songs. Wonderful pictures by Rie Cramer.

THE PLAYTIME BOOK. By Raymond Perkins. For young children. These are old rhymes from Mother Goose and other familiar sources arranged with easy accompaniments and set to old tunes or new, to be sung by children. Attractive illustrations in color.

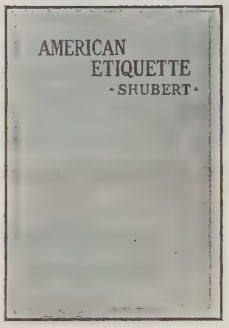
Useful Books for Everybody

10 Titles

Cloth binding. $1.00 Each



These books are new and up-to-date in every particular, and each title contains the most reliable information obtainable. They are written by experts and, covering as they do a wide range of subjects, they are of great value to every member of the family. Handsomely bound in red cloth, 6⅜ by 4½ inches in size.

AMERICAN ETIQUETTE. By Ethel Shubert. Success in life is often marred by bad manners. Social blunders may be prevented by the knowledge of the right thing to do. The book represents the latest vogue.

AMERICAN LETTER WRITING. By Ethel Shubert. This admirable book shows, by various forms, just what kind of letters to write for all occasions. The numerous examples enable the reader to become an accomplished letter writer.

CANDY-MAKING AT HOME. By Mary M. Wright. Two hundred kinds of candy, fondant, fruit and nut candies, cream candies, fudges and caramels, cakes with the home flavor and the professional style. Clear and detailed receipts are given.

CHECKERS. By David A. Mitchell. An expert explains here the standard openings, positions, moves and traps, illustrating everything with diagrams. The problems are numerous and helpful.

CHESS. By David A. Mitchell. This book contains the full rules of the game, unusual chapters on openings, the attack, and scores of problems with diagrams. Every move is helpfully analyzed.

DREAM BOOK. By Madame Xanto. The old traditions proved by time and experience of famous Oriental, Celtic and early English observers. The interpretations are arranged alphabetically according to subject. The book contains the Xanto oracle which answers questions everyone is asking.

ERRORS IN ENGLISH. By John H. Bechtel. No necessity for studying rules of grammar or rhetoric when this book may be had. It teaches both without the study of either.

HOME GAMES. By George Hapgood, Esq. A collection of the newest and best games for amusing people. Games with cards, charades, action games and games of thought and memory are among the novel suggestions.

STORIES OF THE OPERAS. By Ethel Shubert. This gives the complete story of every opera ordinarily produced in America and many less frequently heard. Also a short sketch of the life of each composer.

STORIES WORTH TELLING. By Herbert L. Coggins. The cream of all funny stories. The book is as funny as human nature, which is saying a good deal. Illustrated with 100 pictures by Claire Victor Dwiggins.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S SOCIAL LIVING SERIES

By SIDNEY A. WESTON

Jesus and the Problems of Life

Discussions of problems facing young people in their everyday world. Based on life and teachings of Jesus. 128 Pages. Cloth, 60 cents; Paper, 45 cents. Now Ready.

Jesus' Teachings

Like its companion volume above, this discussion course is also deservedly popular and helpful, because, as one leader of young people aptly remarks, "It is right down where they live." 128 Pages. Cloth, 60 cents; Paper, 45 cents. Now Ready.

Social Ideals and Principles

A platform of social ideals developed by young people through a series of discussions. In preparation.

The Prophets' Messages for the New Age

A discussion study course on high points in the messages of the prophets which young people find helpful today. In preparation.

Another New Course for Young People

Christian Life Problems
HARRY T. STOCK

A series of discussions on problems with which young people are grappling. Challenges and inspires them to live according to Christ's way of life. 64 Pages. Price, 35 cents. Now Ready.

Teacher Training

How to Teach Seniors
ERWIN L. SHAVER

A teacher-training course for leaders of young people, which stresses the importance of active participation in projects giving opportunity to carry out Jesus' ideals of living. Price, $1.00. Now Ready.

The Teachers' and Officers' Conference
ERWIN L. SHAVER

A pamphlet presenting the salient points, methods, and organization of such a conference. Price, 15 cents. Now Ready.

BONSER, EDNA M.

The Golden Rule City. A Sunday and Weekday Course for Juniors. Second unit in the "Everyday Christian Living Series" of which "At School With the Great Teacher" is the first unit. Like its companion volume the course is built out of the experiences of children — through their play, their constructive activities, their work, their questions, their difficulties and their self-revelations of all kinds and the author and her associates in teaching the groups under their care ever kept in mind the moral and religious issues involved in these experiences. A careful record of the development of the course and children is set forth in these pages, and teachers of other junior girls and boys will find it illuminating and especially helpful in attempting similar enterprises. The book is also rich in story and worship material, suggested service activities, and character building projects, as well as studies of various types of children and reports of their reactions to these programs. $2.50.

BOOK OF CHURCH SERVICES

Prepared by Commission of the National Council of Churches, Dr. Charles H. Richards, Chairman.

Who Is Jesus Christ? An address to young people which proved so helpful that over 450,000 have been distributed by the Y.M.C.A. It presents in clear and convincing style the modern thought of the evangelical churches. Paper, 6 cents, $5.00 per 100.

The Modern Man's Religion. "In the break-up of conventional ideas which has been so marked a characteristic of the generation in which we live, many intelligent men and women have lost the clue to the meaning of religion and to its significance for human life. These addresses are offered as a corrective to teachings of another kind."—From introduction by President Nicholas Murray Butler. $1.25.

The Main Points. A clear, concise statement of Christian belief. Dr. Brown himself likens his book to the small change into which the twenty-dollar gold pieces of the more elaborate theological treatises are broken up for greater convenience. $1.25.

BROWN, ROBERT E. and PERDRIAU, LESLIE H.

Christian Certainties, — A Catechism of the Christian Faith. "A survey of the Christian faith from the modern point of view,"—prepared especially for young people. Paper, 20 cents.

The Spiritual Messages of the Miracles. Dr. Hubbard's book gives a strictly modern interpretation and application of the spirituality of the miracles. His viewpoint is fresh and unusual, and his style invigorating. The book is thoroughly readable. $2.00.

The Teaching of Jesus in Parables. A really vital contribution to this body of literature. There is a certain quality of nervous concentration of style, even in the fullest elaborations, that barbs his truths. $2.00.

HUNTING, HAROLD B.

A Life of Christ for Young People. The story in this book is not chiefly a chronological succession of journeys, healings, and sermons, but a narrative of the major human relationships into which Jesus poured the richness of his life. We are told in these pages how Jesus lived as a member of a family, as a patriot, as a churchman, as a friend of the poor and of the social outcasts of his time—and what the consequences were, for him and for humanity. $2.00.

HUNTLEY, GEORGE E.

Seeing Straight in the Sunday School: the Observations of Uncle Hezekiah. A book of sound common sense on Sunday School problems, enlivened by the homely wit of "Uncle Hezekiah." $1.25.

HYMNALS AND SONG BOOKS

Lift Up Your Hearts. A Service Book for Use in Hospitals and Similar Institutions. Edited by Anton T. Boisen, Chaplain of the Worcester State Hospital, Worcester, Mass. This hymnal aims to bring comfort, confidence, and courage to those who are mentally and physically ill. The editor consulted with psychiatrists, musicians, and clergymen, and the hymnal, therefore, not only represents his individual judgment but the judgment of those who speak with authority in each of these fields. $20.00 per 100 copies, plus expressage; single copies, 25 cents.

The Pilgrim Hymnal. The years of service which it has seen have tested and approved the merits of the Pilgrim Hymnal plan. There have been, however, many changes made to improve the hymnal in every respect that experience has shown desirable. A careful inquiry has been made among the many churches using the former edition of the book and the results of these criticisms, favorable and adverse, appear in this revision. The book will prove a wonderful aid to a revived and enriched devotional service. The Pilgrim Hymnal contains 713 hymns and chants, 127 pages of Responsive Readings, and other aids to worship, and 34 pages of indices. The printed page is wonderfully clear and legible. It is printed from an entirely new font of type, cut especially for it, thus enabling the use of one size larger type than is employed in most other hymn books. The paper on which the book is printed is light in weight, thin, yet exceedingly opaque. Size, 8⅝ x 6½ x 1 inch. Bound in full cloth, $1.50, 100 copies $130.00. Carriage extra.

The Finnish Hymnal. A hymnal especially prepared for use of Finnish churches and printed in that language. Single copies, $1.25. In quantities, $1.00 per copy. Carriage extra.

Song and Worship Book for Young People's Conferences. Edited by Sidney A. Weston. This new and distinctive song and worship book contains material for which young people all over the country have shown a preference. Not only are the old favorites included, but there are featured many of the newer hymns expressing Christian patriotism, social service, and world friendship. The Orders of Worship, prepared by Harry T. Stock, are the reverent expressions of the young people themselves, and have been used in their summer conferences. There is also a section of prayers for strength, courage, of gratitude and trust, for divine companionship, world peace, social justice, as well as prayers for use in time of doubt and decision. $35.00 per 100 copies, plus carriage charges.

Worship and Song. Revised Edition. Without question this is the best song book ever issued for the Church School, Young People's Meeting, Social Service, or for the smaller churches desiring a book suited for all services.

Completely Revised. In preparing this revision the editors have sought constructive criticism from many authorities and by thorough elimination and selection have produced a book without a peer in its field.

Orders of Worship. In response to a general demand for well-balanced Orders of Worship the New Worship and Song devotes nearly one hundred pages to this special feature. $1.00 per copy, 100 or more 75 cents each. Carriage extra.

Abridged Edition of Worship and Song. A booklet containing about 75 selected hymns indicative of the wide range of Worship and Song, together with selected services and responsive readings. Bound in manila with cloth back. $15.00 per hundred.

The Chapel Hymnal. The Chapel Hymnal has 360 hymns and responsive readings. 360 pages, green cloth, $1.00 each, $75.00 per hundred to churches. Express additional.

Song and Play for Children. Workers with Beginners and Primary Children, especially in weekday schools of religion and similar organizations, will find in this song and play book an abundance of material to enrich their programs. It features a section of work songs, well-known folk games and simple marches; a section of songs on friendliness and service; songs of family life, songs for special days, hymns, seasonal songs, nature songs, animal songs; a section of songs for Beginners' classes; and music to create desirable moods. Song and Play for Children is a companion volume to Songs for Little People. While the latter is designed more particularly for Sunday use, the former is prepared for weekday use. This does not mean, however, that each book limits itself to these two fields, for each contains rich material for use whenever groups of children may be gathered together. $1.25.

Songs for Little People. A song book for the kindergarten and primary grades. By Frances Weld Danielson and Grace Wilbur Conant. $1.25.

JEFFERSON, CHARLES E.

Forefathers' Day Sermons. Sermons on the history and spirit of the Pilgrims and Puritans, full of information and inspiration. 12mo, cloth. $2.00.

Why I Am a Congregationalist. Reprint of an article which appeared in "The Forum." A supply should be in the vestibule of each church. 10 cents.

JENNESS, MARY

Carrying the Christian Message. To be used as an individual reading book or a course of study for young people's groups. A book of nine stories, presenting typical forms of Congregational missionary work, home and foreign, each centering about the personality of some outstanding leader or significant movement or institution. The author is an experienced and successful teacher and leader of young people, both in the high school and the church. Paper, 40 cents.

Leader's Manual (to accompany above book). In the Leader's Manual are given general suggestions for teaching by the squad method, or socialized recitation plan, and specific suggestions for each lesson. Paper, 30 cents.

JONES, CHARLOTTE CHAMBERS

*Things to Make. Patterns of fascinating things for children to make, many of which they will want to give away to their friends and members of their families. Included in the wealth of material there are designs for transparencies, seasonal greeting cards and gifts, valentines, book marks, book ends and coverings, plans for a furnished doll house, a bird house, toys, and useful household articles. Recommended for week-day schools of religious education, Daily Vacation Bible Schools, and similar organizations. $1.00.
(See Chambers also.)

KING, ELISHA ALONZO

Shall We Live Forever? Gives the best of the New Testament affirmations about immortality. A persuasive cumulative argument for belief in immortality. Pamphlet, 15 cents.

KING, HENRY CHURCHILL

The Laws of Fellowship. A simple yet profound interpretation of our relations with God and with men as Christ understood them—showing the same fundamental laws of fellowship to underlie both of these relationships. Reprinted from "The Greatness and Simplicity of the Christian Faith." 10 cents.

KNIGHT, WILLIAM A.

The Love Watch. A reprint of one of Dr. Knight's most appealing booklets. In realistic and touching fashion it pictures the loyalty of Jesus' friends at the time of the Crucifixion, and of their joy on Easter Day. 50 cents.

The Pictureland of the Heart. This volume by the author of "The Song of Our Syrian Guest" is rich in human coloring as it appears in many of our older American towns. One of the most helpful volumes that this author has written. Handsomely illustrated. $1.25.

The Song of Our Syrian Guest. After a million copies have been issued the demand for this book is greater than ever. It has been translated into seven different languages, and into two raised languages for the blind.

The Envelope Edition, printed in two colors, and containing as a frontispiece a copy of a painting by Harold Sichel. 35 cents.

The Copeland Edition is bound in pearl-gray cloth with illuminated cover, containing illustrations by Charles Copeland. Black and gold Jacket. 90 cents.

On the Way to Bethlehem. The sympathetic journey through Palestine of a man of rare insight and unusual descriptive power. Sixteen beautiful half-tones in colors. $1.00.

The Well by Bethlehem's Gate. "Do you remember that fine story of a time when David was warring in the hills of Judea—how it says, 'And David longed, and said, Oh, that one would give me water to drink of the well of Bethlehem, which is by the gate'?" Illustrated by a number of beautiful photographs. 60 cents.

Outside a City Wall. A beautifully written description of the places outside the wall of Jerusalem which are connected with the life and work of Jesus Christ, such as Gethesmane, Calvary, and the Tomb in the Garden. 35 cents.

To Little David of Smyrna. An Easter message. One of Mr. Knight's charming treatments of an all-important lesson. Unique Envelope Series. 25 cents.

No Room in the Inn. One who journeys along the roadways traveled by Mary and Joseph long ago tells in beautiful word pictures of experiences and scenes which cause the incident of "no room in the inn" to stand out in its touching actuality. 50 cents.

The Shepherd of Jebel Nur. A delightfully refreshing interpretation of John 10:9-16. "I am the good shepherd; and I know mine own, and mine own know me, even as the Father knoweth me, and I know the Father; and I lay down my life for the sheep." 50 cents.

MILLARD, C. N.

A Parent's Job. The author, who is master of a grammar school, Buffalo, N. Y., makes a plea for the intelligent co-operation of parents with teachers in the child's school life. That the all-round development of the child at home and in school is the parent's most important job is the message of the volume. It is rich in practical suggestions to this end. 12mo. $1.00.

MILLIKAN, ROBERT A.

Science and Life. To those who claim that modern science has discredited religion, there can be no more effective answer than this plea for religion on the part of the physicist who won the Nobel Prize for 1923, for his achievement in isolating the electron. $1.00.

MODERN RELIGIOUS PROBLEMS

"Questions that Appeal to Every-day Men and Women." A series of Little Books on Religion, remarkably concise, readable and convincing. Without exception these books are written by men who, in both position and attainment, are among those best qualified to speak with authority on the important subjects which face intelligent men today. Printed in clear, large type, well spaced, each book averaging about 112 pages. These little volumes, 7 by 4¾ inches, are attractively bound in cloth and popularly priced at 35 cents.

PERDRIAU, LESLIE W. (See Brown, R. E.)

PERKINS, JEANETTE ELOISE

At School with the Great Teacher. Grade III in Everyday Christian Living Series. A Unified Sunday and Weekday Course in Religious Education for Eight-year-olds. This course is essentially a curriculum of religious experience which grew out of the common experiences and problems of two groups of eight-year-olds, and is placed at the disposal of leaders who wish to use it as a basis for a similar enterprise. It is not only for those leaders ready to carry out a similar project, but also for schools wishing a better type of Sunday lessons, worship programs, and suggested service activities, schools having two week-day sessions, and vacation schools of religion. The programs are seasonal, being designed to run from October to June. $2.50.

The Amateur Poster-Maker. The poster is coming to be recognized as the most effective kind of Church publicity. Miss Perkins, with characteristic clearness, humor and practical common sense, shows how the veriest tyro can make good ones. Profusely illustrated. $1.00.

The Knights of Anytown. Twelve stories telling how the boy and girl "knights" of "Good Neighborhood Street" transformed it into a place worthy of the name. Constitutes the first three months' work in a third week-day Primary course, along with the Mayflower Program books. Also a delightful collection of stories for the children's own reading. $1.50.

The Rest of the Family. Twelve delightful stories aiming to awaken the sympathy of children for their brothers and sisters in other circumstances and other lands. Forms, with The Knights of Anytown, the second half of a third week-day Primary course. $1.50.

Manual for Teachers, accompanying Knights of Anytown, and The Rest of the Family. 85 cents.

PERKINS, JEANETTE ELOISE, and DANIELSON, FRANCES WELD

Mayflower Program Book. The first definite program outline for Mission Bands and similar organizations—as a week-day auxiliary to the church school.

Purpose. To develop in children of Primary age (6 to 9) appreciation of all people near and far who contribute to their happiness, and a spirit of comradeship and sympathetic helpfulness for any less favored; to provide practice in service.

Contents. Twenty-six complete programs of stories, songs, illustrations and conversation.

Game periods provided for by over fifty games. Five songs printed in the book. Plans for the use of charts.

Unique Features. Pattern Sheets containing over fifty patterns of Gifts for one's community and for mission schools—Candle-lighting Service every other week—Mayflower Band Buttons — Mayflower Chart Stickers — Suggestions for Radiopticon and Shadow Pictures—A fascinating play, entitled "Every-day Magic" as a climax to this charming course. Cloth, $2.00. Book of duplicate patterns, 35 cents.

The Second Year Mayflower Program Book. This course should be preceded by The Mayflower Program Book, thus offering a two-year week-day course in world friendship. This second-year book uses the topics of the first year, and furnishes a complete new program of stories, fresh patterns and plans for the hour of work, alternate holiday programs, Christmas carols and games, plan for new type of charts, and a new playlet, "The Fairies' Model Kingdom," to sum up the year's teaching, with an exhibit of work done. $2.00.

Vacation School Guide—Primary. By Frances Weld Danielson. Furnishes complete outlines of programs for a thirty-day, twenty-day, and fifteen-day session, based on the Mayflower Program Books, The Knights of Anytown, The Rest of the Family, with additional correlated Bible stories and worship material. Also contains programs based on the Two-year Beginners' Course of the International Graded Lessons for Beginners' Groups. Paper, 35 cents.

PORTER, DELIA LYMAN

Christian Discussion Club Programs. Programs for meetings, for home groups, neighborhood groups, or church meetings, where Christain themes are discussed. The booklets now in print are:

Realizing God in Everyday Life. 15 cents each.

Christian Ideals for Twentieth Century Living. $3.50 a hundred.

The Moral and Religious Training of the Child. $3.50 a hundred.

What Do I Believe Today? $3.50 a hundred.

Christian Ideals for a New World. $3.50 a hundred.

The Blues Cure. Three bright and original little stories intended to fulfil the mission of their title, and to contribute much to the world's cheerfulness. 25 cents.

POULSSON, EMILIE

Johnny Blossom. Translated from the Norwegian. An ideal birthday or Christmas gift for a boy. Illustrated attractively by Mrs. Florence Lilley Young. $1.50.

PROCTOR, HENRY HUGH

Between Black and White. Autobiographical sketches. The story of a man whose life has been so wrapped up in the progress of the Negro race during the past half-century that the two are inseparable. Consequently this autobiography speaks of the reconstruction days in the South, of the development of Fisk University and similar institutions for colored youth, of race riots, of interracial commissions, and of the meaning of the recent Negro immigration to the North in which the writer himself joined. $1.50.

PROGRAMS AND PAGEANTS FOR SPECIAL DAYS

The imprint of "The Pilgrim Press" on a special day program is a guarantee of its quality.

All of the following are recommended as exceptional and characterized by sane, thoughtful preparation, good music and qualities which appeal.

RALLY DAY

The Good American. Single copy, 6 cents; 50 copies, $2.60; 100 copies, $5.00. 1 Supplement free with 12 copies, 2 with 50 copies, 4 with 100 copies. Extra Supplements, 5 cents each.

Forward Steps. Margaret Slattery. Single copies 6 cents, 50 copies $2.60, 100 copies $5.00.

Faith of Our Fathers. Arthur L. Goudy. Single copy, 6 cents; 12 copies, 65 cents; 50 copies, $2.60; 100 copies, $5.00. 1 Supplement free with 12 copies, 2 with 50 copies, 4 with 100 copies. Extra Supplements, 5 cents each.

CHRISTMAS

At the Door of the Inn. A Christmas pantomime. By Martha Race. A vivid, sympathetic portrayal of the scene before the crowded inn which would not shelter Mary and Joseph during the late afternoon and night of the Nativity. Paper, 20 cents.

Christmas Plays for Children. Three simple dramatizations: What Child Is This? By Martha Race. A short pageant woven about the carol, "What Child Is This?" The First Christmas Morning. By Maud Lindsay. A playlet for nine girls in which the Bethlehem events are narrated by villagers. Frankincense. By Louise G. Cummings. A short pageant which shows how a selfish child becomes filled with the Christmas spirit. 40 cents.

Good Will Among Men. By Marshall N. Goold. A Christmas Service for Churches and Church Schools. The theme is based on an almost literal interpretation of the angel's song, "Peace on Earth, Good Will Among Men," calling us "to supplant war with coöperation and peace among the nations, and suspicion with sympathy towards all men." The charm of the service lies in its simplicity and the human appeal of its message. Single copies, 8 cents; 12 copies, 85 cents; 50 copies, $3.25; 100 copies, $6.00.

The Prophetic Child. By Rev. Langley Sears. 15 cents per copy; $1.50 per dozen; $12.00 per hundred.

Why the Chimes Rang. Arranged from Raymond Macdonald Alden's famous story, by Martha Race. Paper, 35 cents.

A Christmas Mystery. To be used as part of a Community Christmas Sing. By Jane Judge and Linwood Taft. 15 cents; 12 copies, $1.44; 50 copies, $5.50; 100 copies, $10.00.

The Adoration of the Kings and Shepherds. A Pageant of the Nativity. By Mildred Emily Cook. Castilian paper cover, 75 cents.

EASTER

A Legend of the Graal. By Rev. Douglas Horton. To be played or read at Easter time. This appealing little drama brings to us—clothed in the picturesque and reverent symbolism of the Middle Ages—a lesson in helpfulness and child-like faith. Paper, 30 cents.

The Call to Service. This impressive service of song, responsive readings, prayers, and a special dialogue-feature expresses the joyous, triumphant significance of Easter, and carries with it a challenge to young people to a life of service. Only familiar hymns and carols used. Equally effective for use by small or large groups of young people. Also recommended for the regular morning or evening Easter service, or for a Sunrise Service held out-of-doors. 12 cents each in quantities under 20; 10 cents each in quantities over 20.

The Resurrection of Peter. By Inez Funk Clinton. Most Easter services close with the empty tomb and the risen Jesus. This carries on the influence of Jesus in the life of Peter, showing how that life was transformed. It is a short service and may well be used as a part of a larger Easter program. 25 cents.

The Rock. See Hamlin, Mary P. 50 cents.

Saint Claudia. See Goold, Marshall N. 65 cents and $1.00.

The Triumph of Love. Margaret Slattery. Sample 6 cents, $5.00 per 100.

The Immortality of Love and Service. H. Augustine Smith. Sample 6 cents, $5.00 per 100.

The Life Victorious. Margaret Slattery. Sample 6 cents; 12 copies, 65 cents; 50 copies, $2.65; 100 copies, $5.00.

He is the Son of God. By Linwood Taft. An Easter Drama. 35 cents.

CHILDREN'S WEEK

Tomorrow. Margaret Slattery. A speaking pageant for Children's Week, or any occasion when the emphasis is on the part of the present in shaping the future. Single copy 15 cents; 10 for $1.25; 50 for $5.00.

Children's Week Plays and Programs. Compiled by Frances Weld Danielson. A fine collection of playlets, programs, and appropriate music for Children's Week. Reprinted from the Pilgrim Elementary Teacher. 35 cents.

They Who Weave and Gold, Silver and Precious Stones. See Race, Martha. 25 cents.

PUDDEFOOT, GEORGE WILLIAM

The Log of a Sky Pilot. Many of the thousands who have heard Mr. Puddefoot in these years will read the story with delight. About 400 pages. Illustrated. 50 cents.

RACE, MARTHA

Missionary Marionette Plays. Producing a play with marionettes is fascinating, because the little stage must be built, the marionettes made and dressed, the scenery painted, and finally the play put on with puppets to manipulate and no lines to be learned. These four simple and unique marionette playlets picture bits of life in India, China, the Philippines, and Japan. Children find it easy and great fun to manipulate the marionettes. $1.00.

At the Door of the Inn. Described on page 12. Paper, 20 cents.

They Who Weave and Gold, Silver and Precious Stones. Two dramatic programs stressing the importance of religious education. Prepared especially for use during Children's Week. They Who Weave is a short pageant symbolic of the love, work, and gifts which mothers have handed down through the ages in the religious training of their children. Gold, Silver and Precious Stones is a playlet presenting a picture of modern home life in which a young couple discuss plans for their baby's future. They are influenced by a middle-aged couple who believe that the best way to safeguard their children's future is to be their companions in solving all problems from a religious point of view. 25 cents.

Why the Chimes Rang. Arranged from Raymond Macdonald Alden's famous story. Paper, 35 cents.

RANKIN, ISAAC O.

Prayers and Thanksgivings for a Christian Year.

A choice selection of Scripture passages and prayers for each day in the year, with additional prayers for special occasions, by the Editor of the Closet and Altar column in The Congregationalist. As an aid to private devotion and public worship, we believe this little book is unequalled. $1.25.

RAUSCHENBUSCH, WALTER

Prayers of the Social Awakening (New and Enlarged Edition). There is always a demand for collections of prayers, and among those which have made their appeal to the public in this line none seem to have come nearer to the soul aspirations of their readers than Prof. Rauschenbusch. The book is small enough for the pocket. $1.00. Note: Old Edition, 50 cents.

Dare We Be Christians. Three addresses given by the author in the chapel of the Iowa State College and founded on the remarkable message of Saint Paul contained in the thirteenth chapter of First Corinthians. The author covers practically the same ground as the great apostle, but deals with love as the great social virtue from a modern point of view. 75 cents.

"Unto Me." (Reprint from pamphlet published in 1912.) Professor Rauschenbusch believed that in service for others life has found its fullest expression, and that "social work offers religious experience to be found nowhere else; it is both the product and the source of genuine religion." Paper, 15 cents.

RECORD BOOKS

Pilgrim Church Register and Record. Has 280 pages of records and blank spaces for all of the essential facts. Adapted to churches having a membership up to 500. $4.50, carriage prepaid.

NOTE.—For complete list of our Sunday School Records and all other Sunday School Accessories, send for Complete Catalogue of Sunday School Supplies.

RICHARDS, CHARLES H.

Make Your Church Attractive. Plans and suggestions for making the church more attractive in its buildings, surroundings and ritual. A special feature is the "Lectionary" furnishing readings and teachings which give a general survey of the Bible in a year. $1.00.

RICHARDS, THOMAS C.

Young Men and Prayer. This volume shows the attitude of eminent men of the past and present toward prayer, and has a collection of prayers for young men. Boards, 60 cents.

SAILER, T. H. P.

What Does Christ Expect of Young People Today? First and Second Series. Discussion studies for girls and boys thirteen to seventeen years of age, in which they try to solve their problems according to Christ's way of living. Teacher's Manual, 75 cents each series. Pupil's Assignments, 25 cents a set each series.

ST. JOHN, EDWARD P.

Child Nature and Child Nurture. Usable outline lessons on the subject of child training. Professor St. John possesses the rare blending of spiritual insight with practical working knowledge. 85 cents.

Stories and Story-Telling. "This little book is having an enormous sale, and should be immensely useful to parents and teachers. Discriminating, interesting and instructive story-telling is an art, and should be studied, and its principles applied, such as are recommended in this book." 75 cents.

ST. JOHN, EDWARD P. and ELITHARP, MARIE

God's Laws of Life. A Junior Week-day Course Based on Nature Study. This course is designed to lay a basis for ethical and religious teaching by observation of the way in which the Creator provides for the welfare of his creatures. Selling price to be announced.

SCOTT, ERNEST F.

The Historical and Religious Value of the Fourth Gospel. "Presents with clearness and in popular fashion the results of a sane, critical study of the book, showing the character of its content, the place it filled in early Christian thought and its permanent value."—American Journal of Theology. 35 cents.

SHAVER, ERWIN L.

How to Teach Seniors. One of the Pilgrim Leadership Training Courses for Young People. Stresses the importance of active participation in projects giving opportunity to carry out Jesus' ideals of living. (See Pilgrim Leadership Training Courses.) $1.00.

The Teachers' and Officers' Conference. A pamphlet presenting the salient points, methods, and organization of such a conference. Suggestive plans for a year's meetings. 15 cents.

The Teaching Church. (See Winchester.)

SHELDON, FRANK M.

The Teaching on the Mount. A discussion course for young people's and adult groups. Its purpose is to discover the mind, spirit, and program of Jesus as these are revealed in the teachings on the mount. The author says that these teachings, when coupled with the occasions which called them forth, and considered with other teachings of the Master bearing upon the same theme, should possess us (1) of what Jesus considered most essential in attitude, purpose and life, and thus (2) of the most essential ideals and program of this master teacher. 25 cents.

The Bible in Our Modern World. What is the Bible? In the light of present-day knowledge, how shall we interpret and teach it to our youth? How find its positive, life-giving values? How handle the question of authority? How harmonize its essential message with scientific truth? This book will help you answer these questions. 12mo. Cloth. 75 cents.

The Distortion of the Bible. Three articles, one on the distortion of the Bible by literalists, one entitled Literalism's Denial of Jesus, and the other, Christ and Premillennialism. 10 cents.

Why I Believe in Immortality. The combined argument of reason, science and Scripture, a convincing statement which will prove helpful to the bereaved, and to any who are perplexed on this subject. Unique Envelope Series. 25 cents.

SIMONS, GEORGE T.

A California League of Youth. A plan for the organization of young people's work in the local church, including suggestions as to the service such an organization may render. 40 cents.

SLATTERY, MARGARET

*Two Words. The two words Miss Slattery has selected for the basis of these inspirational talks to young people have been significant since the beginning of time. In all languages, they carry more weight and power for good or evil than all the combined vocabularies. Upon their choice, individuals determine the road their lives shall take, nations rise and fall, all history has been made. In these pages Miss Slattery tells thrilling stories of the actual experiences of girls and boys today in making life decisions. Interesting and stimulating in its approach and appeal, the book is sure to help young people to discover right values in life. 65 cents.

You Can Learn to Teach. Recommended for teacher training classes and individual reading. The rich experience of twenty years actively engaged in the furtherance of religious education, together with a thorough knowledge of the most recent advances in the fields of psychology and pedagogy, has gone into the making of this lucid and inspiring handbook. $1.35.

When You Enlist. This latest book from Miss Slattery's pen is intended primarily for young people from twelve to twenty-five, especially those who are looking forward to church membership. Paper 50 cents. Cloth, $1.00.

Tomorrow. The purpose of this pageant is to impress in dramatic fashion the truth that tomorrow is being made today. Especially appropriate for Children's Week. Single copy 15 cents, 10 copies $1.25, 50 copies $5.00.

New Paths Through Old Palestine. In her own inimitable way Miss Slattery pictures modern Palestine as she observed it on her recent trip to the Far East.
Every opportunity was granted her to obtain first-hand information on the many phases of modern Palestine life, in which the world has a keener interest than ever before. $1.00.

The Highway to Leadership. This volume is best interpreted by its chapter headings:
1. A Leader — One Who Leads. 2. The Eyes that See. 3. The Ears that Hear. 4. The Heart that Feels. 5. The Mind that Interprets. 6. The Courage that Faces Fact. 7. The Confidence that Dares Dream. 8. The Patience that Practices. 9. The Persistence that Overcomes Prejudice. 10. The Will to Follow. $1.50.

The American Girl and Her Community. Probably no woman in America is better qualified to write a book of this nature than Miss Slattery, since she, through observation and experience, has approached every phase of the matter with an unusual vision of the possibilities of young womanhood. Boards, $1.00.

A Girl's Book of Prayer. A girl willing to pray so often finds it hard to express herself or to get words in which to pray for others. This book of prayers for the things girls need, expressing sympathetically the things they want to say, cannot fail to stimulate their devotional spirit and deepen their religious life. Boards, 35 cents.

He Took It Upon Himself. Men and women at work in any line of endeavor looking toward the uplift of their fellow men will find in this book encouragement and new incentives, and those who may have left the problems of human betterment to others, will find their own souls stimulated and awakened. 75 cents.

The Girl and Her Religion. Presents a systematic and helpful discussion of an interesting and important subject. Illustrated. Boxed, $1.35.

Just Over the Hill. No one has a warmer love for boys and girls or a keener insight into their needs than Miss Slattery. $1.35.

The Girl in Her Teens. Pointed, pithy, practical. Packed with information of immense value to the parent and teacher of girls. $1.00.

Talks with the Training Class. "It is an unusually bright, suggestive, readable, helpful book, which should be read by every Sunday-school teacher and prospective teacher in the land. Full of practical suggestions and alive with true stories of real experience." Boards, 50 cents.

The Teacher's Candlestick. A reprint of one of the author's older inspirational messages for teachers. Its message is just as pertinent today as when it first appeared. 50 cents.

Seed, Soil and Sower. The fifty-one pages of this little book are filled with stimulating, encouraging words to the teacher who wonders how effectually to reach particular boys and girls with the truth of the Bible. Wise use is made of illustrations from the actual experience of teachers and parents. Boards, 60 cents.

The Charm of the Impossible. "If I had the money I'd gladly place a copy of 'The Charm of the Impossible' in the hands of every pastor, every superintendent and every Sunday-school teacher in North America, on the one condition —viz., that they read it."—Marion Lawrance. In art boards, 50 cents. Unique Envelope Edition, 25 cents.

SMART, GEORGE T.

The Golden Bond. A collection of the choicest love lyrics which English literature has produced from Elizabethan to modern times. With marriage certificate. Pure white binding, with title in red and gold, enclosed in two envelopes, and printed on selected wedding stock. Envelope Edition. 50 cents.

If I Should Meet the Master. One cannot follow the author without being caught up into his aspiring and longing mood as he faces the great problems of the soul. 50 cents.

The Mystery of Peace. A discussion of the question of what real peace is and how to obtain it. Leather, $1.00. Unique Envelope Series. 35 cents.

Studies in Conduct. Thoughtful essays. 75 cents.

SMITH, H. AUGUSTINE

A Pageant of the Stars and Stripes. A patriotic service for churches, church schools, public schools, boy or girl scout organizations, and civic celebrations. Single copies, 15 cents; 12 copies, $1.44; 50 copies, $5.50; 100 copies, $10.00.

SOARES, THEODORE G.

A Study of Adult Life.
(See Pilgrim Leadership Training Courses.)

STOCK, HARRY T.

*Christian Life Problems. A series of discussions on actual problems with which young people are grappling. Challenges and inspires them to live according to Christ's teachings. 35 cents.

A Year's Program for Young People. This booklet furnishes a collection of practical plans and interrelated activities and projects for young people's groups, included in which are plans for organization, worship services, expressional activities, discussion studies, and resulting projects. Various emphases are stressed each month, although the general theme for the year remains the same. 25 cents.

STOCKING, JAY T.

*Query Queer. This is another collection of fascinating stories of Query Queer and the Wise-and-Wonder Man, two lovable characters first introduced to children in the author's famous volumes of The Golden Goblet and The City That Never Was Reached. Query Queer is a boy, thoughtful, imaginative and of inquiring mind. The Wise-and-Wonder Man is a whimsical spirit who knows the Why of things. Illustrated. $2.00.

The Golden Goblet. A collection of children's stories that will not fail to appeal to the most imaginative of the little folks. While always awake to the opportunity of teaching moral truths — either directly or allegorically — they will not fail of interest to the youth of real red blood and masculine mind. $1.50.

The City That Never Was Reached. The child will read these stories primarily for the charm of their telling, but their underlying ethical lessons will return to him again and again. $1.50.

STOOKER, WILHELMINA

(See F. W. Danielson.)

TAFT, LINWOOD

He is the Son of God. An Easter drama, showing the divine power of the Christ. 35 cents.

TALBOT, EDITH ARMSTRONG

TILLACK PICTURES, THE Old Testament Character Studies

*A set of twelve Old Testament pictures in four colors introducing the following characters well known and loved by children: Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, Joseph before Pharaoh, Moses, Solomon, Saul, David, Samson and Delilah, Hagar, Ruth, Daniel. They are printed on a particularly high-grade paper to bring out the fine detail in the pictures and to realize the best color values. Teachers and all leaders of children will find them exceptionally valuable in making these Old Testament characters loved and remembered. They are printed in two sizes. The set of twelve in post-card size is assembled in attractive folder in order that they may be kept together. 50 cents a set. Large size suitable for wall use and framing. Unframed: $6.00 a set. $1.00 singly. Framed: each subject, $5.00.

TUCKER, WILLIAM JEWETT

The Church in Modern Society. "A sympathetic criticism of the church and a notable call to the church to do what she alone can do."—Boston Transcript. 35 cents.

TWEEDY, HENRY H.

The Prophets' Messages for the New Age. A discussion study course on high points in the messages of the prophets which young people find helpful today. In preparation.

WEYMOUTH, RICHARD FRANCIS — Revised Edition

The Modern Speech New Testament. 1924 Edition. Completely revised and printed from new type.

Modern English translations of the New Testament have been criticised as too colloquial and undignified, or as too harshly literal. Dr. Weymouth's famous version avoids these pitfalls. While thoroughly modern in diction and phrasing, it is a dignified and worthy vehicle of the thoughts of the New Testament writers.

This new edition has been revised by Rev. S. W. Green, author of many of the articles in Hastings' One Volume Bible Dictionary; Rev. Prof. A. J. D. Farrar, of Regents Park College; and Prof. H. T. Andrews, one of the contributors to Peake's One Volume Bible Commentary. The publication of this revised edition is a notable event in contemporary Biblical scholarship.

Isaac Pitman Shorthand—Commercial Course. A "New Era" presentation designed for self-tuition and use in the Private School.

Cloth, $1.60.

This Course is arranged in 30 Chapters and totals 256 pages. The section covering the Theory includes 170 Exercises, occupying 179 pages. There is a liberal supply of Reading and Dictation material—28 pages, and in addition 29 pages of helpful Reference Tables are included.

Key to Commercial Course. Cloth, 70c.

Containing the Shorthand notes of all longhand exercises and the transcript of all shorthand exercises.

Course in Isaac Pitman Shorthand. Latest Revised Edition—"New Era." Adopted by the New York Board of Education.

192 pages, cloth, $1.60.

In this work Isaac Pitman Shorthand is presented in twenty simple lessons. The arrangement of the principles is such that real business dictation is possible from the first lessons.

The Course is supplemented by fifty up-to-date business letters and many pages of literary selections in engraved shorthand. Suggestive phrases, complete lists of Wordsigns and Contractions, together with contractions for the principal cities, afford an easy reference for the student.

This new text enables the average student to acquire a complete mastery of shorthand in the shortest time without sacrificing any of the completeness of Isaac Pitman Shorthand.

Key to "Course." Cloth, 70c.

The "Key" contains the shorthand notes of all longhand exercises and the transcript of all shorthand exercises in the "Course."

Supplementary Exercises in Isaac Pitman Shorthand. Adopted by the New York Board of Education.

Book I, limp cloth, Lessons 1-11, 71 pages, 50c.
Book II, limp cloth, Lessons 12-20, 85 pages, 75c.
The two books bound in one volume, full cloth, $1.25.

These exercises are arranged in lessons in accordance with the "Course." Each lesson consists of exercises of words, sentences, paragraphs, and business letters in longhand for dictation practice and similar exercises in engraved shorthand for reading and copying practice.

Each lesson provides a review of the material in the corresponding lesson in the instruction book. The word exercises are so arranged that groups of words can conveniently be selected for drill on some specific principle. The sentence, paragraph, and letter exercises provide a thorough drill on the entire lesson as a unit.

Supplementary Exercises is in itself a complete dictation course, containing more than 100 business letters and business paragraphs and more than 400 sentences selected from business correspondence of all kinds.

It is not only a handbook for use during the theory course, but is of even greater value to review the principles of the system as an introduction to speed dictation.

Correspondence Course in Pitman Shorthand. A series of 20 lessons printed in loose-leaf form, each lesson separate, and sold in sets in stout envelopes. $1.75 net.

Prepared by expert teachers in Pitman's Schools for self-tuition or for use through Correspondence Course Schools. To be used in conjunction with the standard textbook—"New Era Course." For home study this "Course" will help somewhat as a substitute for a teacher, when it is impossible to attend school.

Pitman's Shorthand Writing Exercises and Examination Tests. Adopted by New York Board of Education. 220 pages cloth, $1.00.

This work contains exhaustive classified lists of words, illustrative of every rule in the system and over 100 graduated sentence exercises in ordinary print for writing or dictation practice.

As an aid to the teacher in preparing tests the exercises are invaluable. The writing of them by the student provides a complete shorthand vocabulary, as well as a thorough grounding in the principles of phrase writing.

Key to Pitman's Shorthand Writing Exercises and Examination Tests. 220 pages, cloth, $1.30.

The exercises which appear in the regular printed longhand edition of this book are here reproduced in engraved shorthand.

The "Key" is a shorthand reader for class use which develops the ability to write, read, and transcribe notes rapidly and accurately.

When exercises are assigned from the longhand edition, much time can be saved by having students correct their own papers from the shorthand edition.

DICTATION AND SPEED PRACTICE

Business Letters in Shorthand. Nos. 1, 2, 3, 4, and 5.
Each 56 pages, 35c. each.
This valuable and up-to-date collection of business letters furnishes the student or teacher of shorthand with ample material, in beautifully engraved Isaac Pitman Shorthand, for writing and dictation practice. About four hundred letters are graded according to length and difficulty; the letters being of sufficient simplicity to enable the use of the course immediately following the theory.

Isaac Pitman Dictation Course. By LOUISE MCKEE. Second Edition. Adopted by the New York Board of Education.

208 pages, cloth, $1.00.

For use immediately after the completion of the principles of Isaac Pitman Shorthand. The 150 business letters are carefully graded as to content and difficulty, and the twenty-five literary selections have been chosen for their educative as well as for their dictation value.

In the margin of each page outlines are given for many of the most difficult words and phrases occurring in the adjoining letters or articles.

The dictation matter is followed by fifty pages of engraved shorthand notes, lists of principal cities, contractions, wordsigns, phrases, and special word lists.

Business Letters for Dictation. By EDWIN A. BOLGER, Ph.D.; ROBERT P. ST. JOHN, M.A.; RAYMOND L. NOONAN, M.A. Adopted by the New York Board of Education. 272 pages, cloth gilt, $1.20.

Contains 400 letters, each a suitable up-to-date model for business correspondence. They are arranged in the order of stenographic difficulty, but in ordinary type, with notes calling attention to the underlying principles of letter-writing and can be used with any system of shorthand. This work forms a type Key to "Business Letters in Shorthand," Nos. 1 to 5.

Shorthand Key to "Business Letters for Dictation."

251 pages, cloth, $1.35.

This work, in beautifully engraved shorthand, presents a Key to "Business Letters for Dictation." Adopted by the New York Board of Education.

The Expert Dictator. By CONRAD J. SAPHIER and THOMAS J. SMYTH. Adopted by the New York Board of Education.

392 pages, cloth, $2.00.

This work presents a new departure from the accustomed make-up of a dictation book. This work is intended for the student who has completed the theory and is ready for actual dictation practice.

A mental picture of the correct shorthand outline instantaneously transfers itself from the mind to the hand. With that end in view, every rule is presented in such a way that the student may thoroughly master each principle. In addition, exhaustive lists of engraved shorthand outlines are given in the lessons, and in the margins adjoining the dictation material, together with an additional vocabulary at the end of the book, so as to enable the student to acquire a very extensive knowledge of words and phrases so essential to one in quest of speed.

The "Expert Dictator" presents the following unusual and interesting features: (a) A combination, in one volume, of a dictation book, supplemented by questions covering innumerable subjects of practical interest. (b) A large number of up-to-date business letters, as well as literary articles systematically arranged and proportioned, so as to allow sufficient dictation material for the average daily recitation period. (c) A complete discussion of all the important principles of the system. (d) A review of word-signs, contractions, and phrases, coupled with special word drills.

One-Session Dictation Book. 64 pages, 30c.

This book is intended for dictation purposes in classes where theory and speed are combined. The matter, which is in the form of commercial letters, is divided into eight sections, each section dealing with three or four principles. The letters are carefully graded from the students' point of view, but not obviously so. The matter is counted in tens, and as the actual number of words is given after each division of ten, the teacher is enabled to read, with the minimum of trouble, at any desired speed. A list of the grammalogues used is given before each section.

Practical Business Letters in Shorthand 64 pages, 35c.
A series of 76 Business Letters in engraved Isaac Pitman's Shorthand, with Key in ordinary type.

Every letter in this book is adapted from an original commercial letter.

Miscellaneous Dictation Tests for Shorthand Students.
144 pages, size 7 × 5¼ in., 60c.
This volume contains a wide selection of articles on varied subjects suitable for dictation to advanced speed classes. The matter is counted in such a manner that it can be dictated without difficulty at practically any speed. The articles are also reproduced in engraved shorthand—Advanced Style.

High Speed in Shorthand. Its Attainment and Possibilities. By K. S. AIYAR, B.A. 143 pages, 60c.
In this work the author deals as comprehensively and at the same time as briefly as possible, with the many interesting aspects of the theory and practice of Phonography and gives an indication of the correct lines of work one must follow to acquire not only a sound knowledge of the theory, but equally a tolerably high speed which is within the competence of every persevering shorthand student.

The Stenographic Expert. By WILLARD B. BOTTOME and W. F. SMART.
264 pages, cloth, ††$2.25.
Contains 96 pages of Isaac Pitman engraved shorthand notes.
The desire of every ambitious stenographer is " to sit in the reporter's chair " in court, and to reach the object of his ambition it is absolutely necessary that he familiarize himself not only with the best methods of acquiring speed and accuracy, but the forms, technical practice, and procedure of the court room. This can be done only in two ways: by slowly and laboriously learning through the few opportunities for practice work that present themselves from time to time, or to profit from the experiences of others.

WORKS ON SHORTHAND AND COMMERCIAL EDUCATION

FOR THE TEACHER

Principles of Teaching Applied to Pitman's Shorthand. By R. W. HOLLAND, LL.D. 126 pages, cloth, 75c.
An invaluable handbook for teachers and prospective teachers of Pitman's Shorthand.

Notes of Lessons on Pitman's Shorthand. New Revised and Enlarged Edition. 141 pages, cloth, $1.00.
This volume, which embodies over thirty years' experience, should prove of very great assistance to shorthand teachers, and to prospective shorthand teachers, as it indicates the lines upon which shorthand lessons should be drawn up and presented.

Commentary on Pitman's Shorthand, or the Teacher's Vade Mecum. New and Revised Edition. By J. W. TAYLOR.
384 pages, cloth, $1.50 net.
This work takes rank as the most authoritative analysis of the basic principles of Phonography yet published. The author, James William Taylor, has crystallized in this work the results of many years of experience in successfully teaching the Isaac Pitman system. Engraved shorthand examples are given which cover the whole of the principles, and the Commentary contains what practically amounts to a classification of the words in the "Shorthand Dictionary" under their respective rules.

The Methods of Teaching Shorthand. By EDWARD J. MCNAMARA.
Cloth, gilt, $1.50.
Containing a plan of instruction for shorthand classes that will furnish practical solutions to many of the problems that confront the teacher in the classroom. The wide experience of the author has enabled him to make the treatise pre-eminently practical.

Shorthand Teachers' Examination—How to Prepare for It. By J. E. MCLACHLAN. 120 pages, cloth, 75c.

Syllabus in Isaac Pitman Shorthand. Prepared by ELIZABETH A. ROCHE, Head, Department of Stenography and Typewriting, Washington Irving High School, New York. 81 pages, cloth, 75c.

Pitman's Shorthand and English. By W. F. DINGWALL. M.A., and JAMES HYNES, Author of "Talks with Shorthand Students."
96 pages, cloth, 75c.
A guide for the teacher and student, containing a brief outline of English grammar; combined lessons in shorthand and English; notes on the correct use of words, etc.; and exercises on the various chapters.

History of Shorthand. By SIR ISAAC PITMAN. Fourth Edition, revised and enlarged. 258 pages, cloth, gilt, $1.75.

The Life of Sir Isaac Pitman, Inventor of Phonography.
392 pages, cloth, gilt, gilt top, $1.50.
With 50 illus., including photogravure and many other full-page plates, consisting of portraits, views, and facsimiles.

Derivative and Compound Words in Pitman's Shorthand. 71 pages, 60c.

Pitman's Examination Notes on Shorthand. 48 pages, cloth, 65c.
Containing valuable information for teachers. With shorthand illus.

Shorthand Catechism. 95 pages. Size 7 × 5¼ in. 60c.
The New Era Edition of the Shorthand Catechism contains a thousand questions and answers on the theory of the system. It is valuable alike to the shorthand teacher and to students at all stages of the study.

†Charts on Pitman's Shorthand. 35 by 22 in., $2.25.
Ready for hanging on wall. A series of 20 large Charts illustrating the principles of Phonography as developed in the textbooks. Every teacher should have a set to hang on the walls of his classroom. These Charts are invaluable for class tuition.

An Hour with Pitman Shorthand. 24 pages. Free to Schools and Teachers.
Fully illustrated with engraved shorthand cuts and numerous diagrams. A very attractive brochure giving a complete Trial Lesson and numerous Test Sentences.

TYPEWRITING

A Practical Course in Touch Typewriting. By CHARLES E. SMITH. Adopted by the New York, Boston, Baltimore (Md.), Milwaukee (Wis.), Newark (N.J.), Trenton (N.J.), Boards of Education. Also by the California State Board of Education.
Published in three editions: Stiff paper cover, 120 pages, $1.00.
Cloth cover, 120 pages, $1.35.
High School Edition, 208 pages, $1.60.
The Sixteenth edition, greatly enlarged and completely re-written, is more than an enlargement or a revision. It is a new book. The work is presented in the most instructive and teachable manner, and has won the commendation of the World's Greatest Typists and typewriting teachers everywhere. All world's typing records for both speed and accuracy are held by typists who studied from "A Practical Course in Touch Typewriting." It has justly been called the typewriting method of the Champions. A special edition of the complete volume has been issued, using the method of fingering in which "B" is struck with the left hand.

Pitman's Loose-Leaf Typewriting Exercises. Revised Edition including Regents' Tests. By LOUISE MCKEE. Adopted by the New York, Philadelphia, Rochester (N.Y.), Milwaukee (Wis.) Boards of Education, Temple University, Philadelphia, etc.
On cardboard, 50 cards, $1.50 a set.
The unique form for these Supplementary Typewriting Exercises was chosen with two ends in view—
(1) To provide new material for the teaching of Transcription and Tabulation which the teacher knows has never been seen by the pupils.
(2) To furnish models for both of these types of work to be studied by the pupils after they have completed their work—models by which they can correct their own errors. In large classes it is impossible for the teacher to give that close inspection necessary to catch every error on every paper, and, heretofore, it has been equally impossible to place before the pupils the perfect model of the work they have attempted to do.

High Speed in Typewriting. By A. M. KENNEDY and FRED JARRETT. Adopted by the New York Board of Education, California State Board of Education, Pittsburg, (Pa.) Board of Education, and Indiana State Normal School. 108 pages, cloth, $1.25.
Complete in Fifty Lessons. Each lesson is divided into four exercises. The fourth exercise of each of the fifty lessons is graded in such a way that the operator commences the work at a speed of 4.7 strokes per second, or 50 words in the minute; and finishes the fiftieth lesson with a speed of 9.3 strokes per second, or 102 words a minute.
The use of "High Speed in Typewriting" will develop an unusual degree of typewriting skill.

Advanced Typewriting and Office Training. Fourth Edition Revised and Enlarged. Adopted by the New York Board of Education.
155 pages, 60c.

Practice book for advanced students. Teachers will find this book an excellent aid in preparing pupils not only for the Regent's Examinations, but for a better understanding of what a stenographer and typist should know in the business world. This work has been placed upon the Authorized List by the Board of Regents, Albany, N.Y., for use in all schools conducting commercial classes.

"It is well organized, written in clear, simple English and contains an unusual number of good exercises."—New Jersey Journal of Education.

Mechanical Devices of the Typewriter.
88 pages, 46 illus. and 28 diagrams, cloth, $1.75.

Un Método Practico Para Aprender a Escribir Por Medio Del Tacto.
53 pp. Size 8½ by 6 in. Stiff paper cover, 85c.

Business Letter Practice. Second Edition Revised. By JOHN B. OPDYCKE, Author of "The Language of Advertising."
582 pages, cloth, gilt, $2.50.

The last word on the Business Letter. For the student, for the teacher, for the general reader, for the school, for the library, for the business office. Adopted by the New York Board of Education, Bowling Green Business University, North Dakota State School of Science, etc.

Press and Other Opinions

". . . a liberal education."—New York Times.

". . . a classic in business expression."—New York World.

"For comprehensiveness in scope, practicability of treatment, and a 'human interest' style we do not know its equal."—The Literary Review—New York Evening Post.

"It is exceedingly complete and essential. Certainly anyone who is interested in better business letter writing needs a copy of this book."—John M. Avent, Chairman, English Department, Julia Richman High School, New York, N.Y.

"The work is illuminating, practical and authoritative. For handy reference in business offices it is invaluable. As a text for the classroom there is none better"—J. A. Luman, Vice-Principal, Pierce School of Business Administration, Philadelphia, Pa.

"I think one of the greatest compliments that can be paid 'Business Letter Practice' is that out of sixty students in the last class I had, only one wanted to sell his book. These people are going out to positions as book-keepers and stenographers and other office positions and they have seen how much good they may get out of this book if they keep it on their desk."—T. M. Dickerson, Bowling Green Business University, Bowling Green, Ky.

"This work is equally valuable for the teacher and student of stenography, for the teacher and student of business, and for the manager of the business office or the correspondence supervisor. It is essentially a guide-book along the lines laid down by the Better Letter Movement. Criticism of modern business letter practice has been overdone in recent years. However, this type of book is really valuable in pointing out essential principles and serving to direct attention toward better practice in specific instances."—Harvard Business Review (Cambridge, Mass.).

How to Become an Office Stenographer—Elements of Office Practice. By WILLIAM L. MASON. Adopted by the New York Board of Education, Bowling Green (Ky.) Business University, etc. Cloth, $1.50.

A complete course intended for the untrained shorthand student who is ambitious to secure a good position without previous experience, and adapted for use as a textbook in business schools and high school commercial departments. The Course is thoroughly up to date, and follows the actual practice of the best houses in America. Many facsimile forms and illustrations are included.

Supplementary Forms for "How to Become an Office Stenographer." 75c.

How to Become a Law Stenographer. By W. L. MASON, a Law and Convention Reporter of 30 years' experience. 168 pages, cloth, $1.25.

For Stenographers and Typists. Fifth Edition, revised and enlarged. A compendium of Legal Forms containing a complete set of Legal Documents accompanied with full explanations and directions for arranging the same on the typewriter.

A large number of legal words and phrases have been added to the new edition, together with engraved shorthand outlines.

Style Book of Business English. Eighth Edition, Revised and Enlarged. By H. W. HAMMOND and MAX J. HERZBERG. Adopted by the New York Board of Education. 234 pages, cloth, $1.15.

For Stenographers and Correspondents. This treatise will especially appeal to the teacher of English wherever it is seen. Teachers of this subject using this work can feel assured of vastly better results than they have ever before secured. The new edition contains a special chapter on Card-Indexing, Letter-Filing, and the duties of a Private Secretary. In every instance the usage indicated has been based on actual correspondence, but the material has been so arranged as to be pedagogically most effective. The book will be found of more than ordinary helpfulness to students preparing for the Regent's and Teachers' Examinations. Adopted by the New York High Schools.

What They Say

"I have received a copy of Style Book of Business English and wish to say that it impresses me as being a very valuable publication and one which should be very helpful to the schools in the matter of business correspondence."—Edw. W. Stitt, Associate Superintendent of Schools, New York City.

"Your Style Book of Business English is the only text that I know of that contains completely and in lesson form all the points on business correspondence needed by students of stenography, book-keeping and typewriting."—Leo P. Callan, St. John's College, Brooklyn, N.Y.

FRENCH

Practical Course in French. By HENRI MAYOUX, B. ès S. Cloth, 561 pages, $1.75.

This book is laid out on very simple lines and on the principle of careful graduation. Every lesson, practically, consists of three sections, namely, vocabulary, grammar, and exercises. As the pupil advances, he is given very entertaining stories in French, upon which questions arising out of them are set. He is then required to turn into French a piece of English resembling the original story in regard to incidents and reproducing some of the special phrases.

French Course. Part I. New Edition. By V. F. HIBBERD. Limp cloth, 50c.

This book contains an outline of the Grammar to the end of the regular verbs, together with conversational phrases and sentences, short stories and double vocabularies. The rules are stated concisely and clearly and the lessons are very carefully graded.

Progressive French Grammar. By Dr. F. A. HEDGCOCK. 498 pages, cloth, $1.65.

The method is a combination of the direct with the indirect, and by means of phonetic type, a closely approximate idea of French pronunciation is conveyed.

Progressive French Grammar. By Dr. F. A. HEDGCOCK.

Pitman's Commercial French Grammar. 166 pages, cloth, 75c.
A thorough treatise on French Grammar containing in its exercises an abundant commercial phraseology. The grammar is taught on normal lines; accidence and syntax have been, as far as possible, blended.

First Steps in French. By A. VIZETELLY. New Edition with tinted illus. 64 pages, cloth, 50c.
"This little book really 'is different.' It is a child's book, dealing with things dear to the child heart. There are 64 lessons, the subject matter well chosen, the exercises well graded, and almost every page illustrated."—Sierra Educational News (San Francisco).
"The illustrator has caught the pose and expression of children intent upon work or play."—American School Board Journal.
"Is a very engaging textbook. It is copiously and charmingly illustrated with pictures which carry forward the work of instruction. The method employed is simple and sensible, though it pre-supposes a good teacher. Moreover—a rare thing in these days—the price of the book, fifty cents, is quite reasonable."—The Ave Maria Notre Dame, Ind.

French Commercial Correspondence, A Manual of. By GEORGE R. MACDONALD, Author of "Manual of Spanish Commercial Correspondence." 341 pages, cloth, $1.50.
"This is an excellent text in commercial French correspondence by an author already well known in the textbook field through his Manual of Spanish Commercial Correspondence, Portuguese Commercial Correspondence, and so forth. The 331 pages of the book are packed with the essential materials of French commercial expression, and the content is at all places compact, at the same time that it is fluid and comprehensive . . . and concerned himself with the preparation of a thorough-going drill-book in French commercial correspondence as 'she is writ.' This he accomplished superlatively well."—Saturday Review of Literature (New York).

Pitman's French Commercial Reader. 208 pages, cloth, gilt, $1.00.
Deals in an interesting manner with the leading commercial and national institutions of France.
The reading matter is most carefully selected, and while the student of French is improving his mastery of the language, he is at the same time getting a good insight into French commercial methods. Accuracy is assured, as the Reader has been prepared under the supervision of well-known masters in modern languages.

Artistic Leather Craft. By HERBERT TURNER. Recommended by the American Library Association.

120 pages, 5½ in. by 8½ in., with numerous illustrations, cloth, $1.50.

The pursuit of Leather Craft is distinctly of benefit if only because it is so capable of arousing the real love for beautiful things that is inherent in humanity, although it may be latent, that its spread should receive all possible encouragement.

Artificial Flower Making. By Mrs. JANET BASKIN.

150 pages, 8¼ in. by 6½ in., 5 colored insets and 44 half-tone plates, cloth, $2.50.

A Practical Craft for Trade and Domestic Training Classes, Milliners, Dressmakers, and the Home Worker.

This book contains an organized course of instruction in the making of artificial flowers from many kinds of material. Most of the artificial flowers for sale in shops are made from specially prepared materials that can be obtained only by those in the trade. The craft of artificial flower making, explained in this book, differs especially from the shop industry in that the worker builds the flower completely herself, making everything of which it is composed.

Pastel, The Art of Painting in. By J. LITTLEJOHNS, R.B.A., and L. RICHMOND, R.B.A.

189 pages, and 40 full-page colored plates and 15 other illus., cloth, gilt, $4.75.

A book which has the special advantage of having been written and illustrated by two artists of repute who have a thorough knowledge of pastel, and use it habitually with power and distinction. Their technical directions are practical and intelligible, and are calculated not only to assist the student greatly in his work, but to enable the art lover to grasp surely the principles by which all pastel painting that is to be reckoned as sound and legitimate should be directed. The sections into which the book is divided cover adequately the whole ground over which the pastel-painter is likely to travel, and the illustrations deserve high praise for their artistic merit and quality.

Basket-Making, The Art of. By THOMAS OKEY.

154 pages, with 74 illus., cloth, $1.50.

Drawing and Design. By SAMUEL CLEGG.
10 by 7½ in., 224 pages, 18 plates in color, and 148 other illus. and diagrams, cloth, $4.50.
A School Course in Composition. This book should be particularly useful in a girls' school or in a mixed school, for special attention is paid to design in needlework. Art and craft work are linked together. The subject of lettering and manuscript writing is treated suggestively as part of the course in Art.

Drawing from Memory and Mind Picturing. By R. CATTERSON-SMITH, M.A. Edited by F. MORLEY FLETCHER. Adopted by the New York Board of Education.
6¾ by 8¼ in., 60 pages, plus 43 full-page plates, $3.00.
This is the only work in the English language dealing with the subject. The eminence of the author in the world of art makes the book of first importance, and it should find a place in the library of every one concerned with art, if only for the beauty of the illustrations and the innate excellence of the book as a whole.
"The book is seriously worth reading by all who are interested in drawing and design, their teaching and learning."—Journal of the American Institute of Architects.

Dress Cutting and Making. For the Classroom, Workroom, and Home. By EMILY WALLBANK.

Written and illus. by LUTHER HOOPER.
50 illus. and 8 colored plates, cloth, $2.25.

The author is recognized as the foremost authority on this subject, and the carpets used in the Doll's House at the Wembley Exposition were woven by Mr. Hooper in accordance with the principle explained in his various books on "Hand-Loom Weaving."

Weaving. By W. P. CRANKSHAW. 142 pages, 114 illus., cloth, $1.00.

"The author has admirably succeeded in covering the subject in a broad manner and in logical sequence. The elementary principles of fabric construction and the essential principles of weaving are presented most interestingly. The book is a useful addition to 'Silk and Its Manufacture,' by Luther Hooper."—The American Silk Journal.

Weaving for Beginners. By LUTHER HOOPER.
114 pages, with 62 illus., $1.50.

A simply written book explaining making, mounting, and working a hand loom.

Woodwork for Infants and Juniors. By ETHEL S. MORLAND.
In demy 8vo., about 64 pages, with 28 full-page illus., cloth, 60c.

THE ARTISTIC CRAFTS SERIES

Bookbinding and The Care of Books. A Textbook for Bookbinders and Librarians. Fourth Edition. By DOUGLAS COCKERELL.
In small crown 8vo, artistically bound quarter cloth, 350 pages, 122 drawings by NOEL ROOKE, 8 pages half-tone illus., $3.00.
This book will help bookbinders and librarians to select sound methods of binding books.

Decorative Writing and Arrangement of Lettering. Second Edition. By Prof. ALFRED ERDMANN AND ADOLPHE A. BRAUN.
Size 9½ by 6½ in. 144 pages, with 68 plates in color and in black-and-white, $3.00.
In assuming that an ever-increasing taste for good and sound lettering makes it necessary to approach the subject from within the craftsman's own individuality, the authors have sought a method of tuition by which the learner is led to develop his own handwriting.

Dress Design. An Account of Costume for Artists and Dressmakers. A Handbook on Historic Costume from early times, containing over 600 figures, 35 collotype reproductions for 100 specimens of Genuine Dresses, besides 80 Scaled Patterns, taken from Antique Apparel, together with over 400 illus. of Head-dresses and Foot-wear. By TALBOT HUGHES. Adopted by the New York and Detroit (Mich.) Boards of Education and University of Missouri.
361 pages, cloth, $3.75.

Embroidery and Tapestry Weaving. Third Edition. By Mrs. A. R. CHRISTIE.
420 pages, 178 diagrams and illus. by the Author. 16 pages of collotype reproductions, cloth, $3.00.
Mrs. Christie has performed her task to admiration and her lucid explanations of various kinds of stitches will be of value to all workers at embroidery or tapestry weaving, and to novices anxious to learn.

Heraldry for Craftsmen and Designers. By Sir W. H. ST. JOHN HOPE, Litt.D., D.C.L. Fourth Edition.
496 pages, 300 diagrams and designs, 24 half-tone reproductions and 8 colored plates, $3.75.
"A series which includes three such books as Mr. Douglas Cockerell's Bookbinding, Mr. Edward Johnston's Writing, and this, ranks almost as a national possession. . . . No artist can see this book without wanting to buy it, if it were only for the beauty of the objects selected for illustration."—Extract from The Athenaeum.

Hand-Loom Weaving. By LUTHER HOOPER. Adopted by the New York and Detroit (Mich.) Boards of Education.
368 pages, 125 drawings by the Author and NOEL ROOKE. Colored and collotype reproductions, $3.00.
Every phase and process in weaving is described with so clear and careful an exactitude, that, helped as the text is by the author's sketches and diagrams, the reader should have no difficulty in conquering with its aid the rudiments of the craft.

Lacquer Work. By G. KOIZUMI.
Size 7½ in. by 10½ in., 50 half-tone and collotype plates, cloth, full gilt lettering, $4.50.
This book is intended for students and collectors of lacquer work. Up to the present there was practically no book to help the student to acquire practical knowledge of this subject. The most useful chapter for the collector contains valuable hints for identifying antique from modern lacquer.

Manuscript and Inscription Letters. Fifth Edition. By EDWARD JOHNSTON.
With 5 plates by A. E. R. GILL. 16 plates in all. Full notes and descriptions by the Author, $2.25.

Manuscript Writing and Lettering. A handbook for Schools and Colleges. By AN EDUCATIONAL EXPERT.
Fully illustrated, cloth, $1.75.

Silverwork and Jewelry. Second Edition. By H. WILSON.
500 pages, 280 diagrams by the Author, 32 pages of collotype reproductions, cloth, $2.50.

A practical guide to some of the more simple processes of the craft, the author has endeavoured to avoid vagueness by describing the operations of each process consecutively from beginning to end.

The various chapters are written round the diagrams which are inserted in the text. These in most cases have been drawn from work actually carried out. The methods described, with such changes as the common sense of the worker will suggest, may be applied to objects of whatever form carried out in the same materials.

Stained Glass Work. By C. W. WHALL.
392 pages, with 73 diagrams by TWO OF THE AUTHOR'S APPRENTICES, 16 pages half-tone reproductions, $3.00.

This work sets out plainly and in detail the art of glass staining for the benefit of those who wish to learn about this extremely interesting subject, while for those who are already familiar with it, the author examines and discusses the right principles on which stained-glass windows should be made, and the rules of good taste and imagination which makes such a difference between beautiful and vulgar art.

Stencil Craft: Color Decoration by Means of Stencilling. By HENRY CADNESS. 105 pages, with numerous colored and other illus., $3.00.

A craft of much artistic and industrial importance is dealt with in such a way as to make it of interest from an educational point of view and to be a help in the training of hand and eye for the production and application of decorative work by the pupils.

Ticket and Show Card Designing. By F. ARTHUR PEARSON.
Cloth, 84 pages, $1.25.

A practical guide to the design and production of Show Cards, Shop Window Price Tickets, etc. It is written in a particularly clear and interesting manner, and is illustrated with over forty designs drawn by the author. The various methods of ticket writing with pens, brushes, chalks, and pastels all receive full attention, while the methods of stencilling are considered in detail.

Water Color Painting, The Technique of. Second Edition. By L. RICHMOND, R.B.A., and J. LITTLEJOHNS, R.B.A., Authors of "The Art of Painting in Pastel."
Size, 11 in. by 8¾ in., cloth, gilt, with 32 full-page colored plates, $6.00.

This new book, in which two well-known artists explain the various materials and methods available for the water-colorist, has met with the unqualified praise of artists, art teachers and students as well as the Art Press. The following are a few extracts—

"Messrs. Richmond and Littlejohn's book which concerns only the craft of the water-colorist is a repertory of experiment well illustrated by color plates. . . . The survey is thorough and to a water-colorist who has already achieved with reasonable proficiency personal habits the book should usefully serve the purpose of a first-aid kit."—The Saturday Review of Literature (New York).

"Will be welcome by many art teachers. The interest in water-color work has grown considerably and many art teachers are looking for a comprehensive book on this subject. This new volume is well printed and illustrated with many handsome color pages."—School Arts Magazine. (Worcester, Mass.)

"The book is quite the best 'guide' that has so far appeared, and of equal value to the beginner as the mature student. The joint authors are to be congratulated on their success."—Apollo.

"Few books on the technical side have succeeded in setting down so much as these born teachers now offer in a volume equally fascinating for its accuracy in advice as for examples of accomplished workmanship in the numerous and well printed plates. . . . This delightful book by two enthusiastic craftsmen is a valuable work, and there are few water-colorists who could fail to benefit by reading it carefully."—Artwork.

"They (the authors) explain a number of effects which are produced by means of materials which will greatly surprise all unacquainted with all 'the tricks of the trade,' be they merely enthusiasts of water-color painting or old hands. . . . The illustrations are all very fine."—Drawing and Design.

Woodcarving: Design and Workmanship. Second Edition. By GEORGE JACK.
320 pages, 79 drawings by the Author, 16 pages of collotype reproductions, $2.50.

"Undoubtedly the best guide to Woodcarving extant. . . . A practical work, written with clearness and literary power by a practical man . . . of great artistic talent. . . . The illustrations are excellent."—The Builders' Journal.

Woodblock Printing. By F. MORLEY FLETCHER. A Description of the Craft of Wood-cutting and Color-printing based on the Japanese Practice. With an Original Print in color, designed and cut by the Author, printed by hand on Japanese paper, together with working diagrams and 23 full-page collotype reproductions of Woodblock Printing and Process. 131 pages, $2.50.

Giving an account of this primitive craft, in the practice of which only the simplest of tools and materials are used. Their method of use may serve as a means of expression for artist-craftsmen, or may be studied in preparation for, or as a guide towards, more elaborate work in printing, of which the main principles may be seen most clearly in their application in this craft.

Written in the simplest language and copiously illustrated, this work will be found suited to the requirements of the serious student.

Writing and Illuminating and Lettering. Fifteenth Edition. By EDWARD JOHNSTON. Adopted by the New York Board of Education, and Teachers' College, Columbia University, New York City.
512 pages, 227 illus. and diagrams by the Author and NOEL ROOKE. 8 pages of examples in red and black, 24 pages of collotype reproductions, $2.50.

". . . This book belongs to that extremely rare class in which every line bears the impress of complete mastery of the subject. We congratulate Mr. Johnston on having produced a work at once original and complete."—The Athenaeum.

Plain and Ornamental Lettering. By EDWIN G. FOOKS. A Practical Guide to Ticket and Showcard Writing, Signwriting, and other forms of Decorative Lettering. Adopted by the New York Board of Education. 88 pages, size 6½ × 8, Illus., $1.00.

It may seem strange that the publishers of that acknowledged "standard" book on lettering, namely Writing, Illuminating and Lettering, by Edward Johnston, should think it advisable to issue another work on the same subject. The explanation is that Mr. Johnston's book is academic in treatment, and unnecessarily exhaustive for the non-craftsman. There are many artists, architects, designers, shopkeepers and others to whom business lettering is necessary but of subsidiary importance, who will welcome this simple and practical treatment.

EDUCATION

The Encyclopaedia and Dictionary of Education. Edited by PROFESSOR FOSTER WATSON, M.A., D.Litt. With articles by over 800 specialists. In Four Volumes.

MISCELLANEOUS

Economic Geography. Third Edition, Revised and Enlarged. By JOHN MCFARLANE, M.A. Adopted by the New York, Detroit (Mich.), Milwaukee (Wis.) Boards of Education, New York University, University of Chicago, University of California, Ohio University, University of Santa Clara, University of Michigan, University of Minnesota, Kansas State Teachers' College, etc.
641 pages, with numerous maps and illus., cloth, $3.00.

This standard text was, in its first edition, recognized to be one of the most complete works on geographical science yet produced. The author has made a substantial revision of the book, bringing the facts and figures right up to the present date, and introducing a quantity of new subject matter and several new maps.

"Is a mine of information, scholarly written, and as a source book for grade and high school teachers it is excellent. Its value as a college text needs no comment."—The Journal of Geography (Chicago).

"This book can be thoroughly recommended to students who are taking an advanced course in economic geography. The various sections contain a wealth of information that is both trustworthy and well arranged."—Journal of Education.

The Language of Advertising. By JOHN B. OPDYCKE, Author of Business Letter Practice.
508 pages, 153 illus., cloth gilt, $3.50.

This new work constitutes a comprehensive treatment of both the science and the art of advertising in its present-day manifestations. It is calculated for use in the publicity office, in the school and college classroom, and in the copy-writingl aboratory. It is never too technical, however, to be of absorbing interest to the general reader. It may be read for entertainment and inspiration quite as much as for information and instruction. It differs from other advertising books on the market chiefly in that it establishes close-up and practicable relationships between advertising and literature, a thesis that no other book on the subject has attempted. Thoroughly stimulating interpretations of present-day copy specimens, together with novel suggestions for the construction and focusing of copy, make the book invaluable in the hands of the student of advertising. Numerous challenging exercises, a detailed index, a readable style, a profusion of well-pointed illustrations, and—An introduction by Mr. Percy S. Straus, Vice-President of R. H. Macy and Company, Inc., one of the largest and best-known mercantile establishments in America, all go to make this new publication unique and distinguished in its voluminous field.

"The author is keen, practical and concise, and he gives reasons for every point emphasized. Whether he is advising and discussing newspaper or magazine or billboard announcements, there is a little philosophical guidance, a touch of pleasant wisdom which makes the whole thing linger in the memory."—New York Times.

"This is one of the few books of advertising that can be thoroughly recommended just as highly to the practising publicist as well as to one who is literary curious."—The Journal of Commerce.

"Mr. Opdycke has done more than compile, he has illuminated every page with his own enthusiasm. Here is a book for the blue days that every advertising man knows—the days when ideas simply will not come and words simply will not behave. By which I mean to say that it is a stimulating book, an electric starter that will turn the mental engine over until it (catches) even on the leanest mixture of ideas that a jaded copy man ever tried to run on."—The Mailbag (Cleveland, Ohio).

Principles of Commercial History. By JAMES STEPHENSON, M.A., M.Com., B.Sc. 280 pages, cloth, $2.25.

It is not sufficient for the business man to know merely the routine of his branch of work; he must learn to form an opinion of his own, to be able to judge more exactly the phenomena of modern business life and to draw from the past conclusions concerning the future. This interesting presentation embraces a description of the general economic condition when the country under study first became known; the surplus raw materials grown which could be exchanged for the products of other lands; the prevailing means of communication; the influence of political treaties on the economic life of the people; and the factors which have gradually led to changes in the methods of industry.

Practice in English. By P. H. REANEY, M.A. 88 pages, cloth, 75c.

A collection of exercises, rules, and models in grammar and composition.

English Grammar and Composition. New Edition. By W. JAYNE WESTON, B.Sc. 320 pages, cloth, $1.35.

In this volume the theory of the language is made interesting and is taught with effect by being brought into union with the practice of the language. The book is a manual of Grammar taught through Composition. The writer's object has been not to gather together a set of rules and definitions, unattractive and uninspiring because divorced from practical use, but rather to examine the mechanism of the living English tongue, and to do this so as to arouse intelligent interest in the facts of language.

Synonyms and Antonyms. 140 pages, cloth, 85c.

This is a handy book for the speaker and the writer. It contains a very full list of words with their synonyms and antonyms, arranged in such a form as to be readily referred to when it is necessary to find words of like meaning, or words opposite in sense to any other word.

Who's Who in the Theatre. Fifth, Revised, and Enlarged Edition. Compiled and edited by JOHN PARKER. A Biographical Record of the Contemporary Stage.
1500 pages, large crown 8vo, cloth gilt, †$6.00.
This work is a veritable epitome of all matters relating to the theatre, and is recognized generally as being a work which cannot easily be dispensed with by anyone interested in the theatre of to-day.

"To those who have had trouble in locating authors of plays they want to produce I always refer to "Who's Who in the Theatre," the new edition of which is just out. It contains not only the biographies but their mail addresses."—Leon Edward Joseph in the "New York Herald-Tribune."

"The present is the fifth issue of this invaluable reference work for those having to do with the theatre. Since the first issue appeared in 1912 it has been accepted as a standard work in England, and this country. It is a mine of interesting information for those concerned with the world of the theatre and its people. This biographical record of the contemporary stage shows on the face of it that the compiler has put in a terrific amount of work and research to make of it the invaluable record that it presents, all carefully arranged and completely indexed."—The Boston Globe.

Physiology and Anatomy. With chapters on Common Diseases and Accidents, and a List of Common Medical Terms. By HAROLD GARDINER. 427 pages, cloth, $3.00.

Specially prepared for students for the examinations of the Chartered Insurance Institute in the Life and Accident branches. Well illustrated with over sixty diagrams of human anatomy. It is a book that should also prove useful to the legal profession.

"This is a concise and clearly written treatise on physiology and anatomy, also containing chapters on the common diseases and accidents and a list of everyday medical terms. The book was prepared and is designed for the use of members of the legal profession and those engaged in the insurance business. It is very clear and contains a large number of helpful charts and diagrams, which illustrate the text. It should be of especial interest to lawyers conducting accident and insurance cases."—The New York Law Journal.

MASTERY SERIES

THIS series deals, with the four elements of the Greek philosophers, Earth, Air, Fire, and Water. In these volumes the author presents science not merely as a subject of the laboratory, but also as a vital force in the field, the factory, and the mine. In a word, he has striven to show how scientific knowledge is blended with imagination and enterprise in promoting the welfare and progress of mankind.

Manual of Cost Accounts. By H. JULIUS LUNT, Associate of the Institute of Chartered Accountants (Honours). 124 pages, cloth, $2.25.

The purpose of a costing system is not only to determine costs, but to indicate waste and inefficiency. The subject of cost accounts is, therefore, one of considerable importance, and in recent years has been engaging a great deal of attention in accountancy circles. In this book cost accounts are dealt with in a practical manner, while the theory of the subject is fully explained, so that it will appeal to both the practitioner and the student.

Cost Accounts in Principle and Practice. By A. CLIFFORD RIDGWAY F.C.A. 110 pages and 40 forms, cloth, $1.50.

Sets out clearly and briefly the method of costing suitable for a small manufacturer or a big engineer. The whole is illustrated with upwards of 40 forms specially drawn up for the book.

Costing and Price Fixing. By J. M. SCOTT-MAXWELL.
223 pages, cloth, $1.75.

Depreciation and Wasting Assets. Their Treatment in Computing Annual Profit and Loss. Fourth Edition. By P. D. LEAKE.
257 pages, cloth, $4.50.

Although the subject of Depreciation and Wasting Assets has hitherto received very little scientific attention its importance is so great and the problem so complex that there is need for a scientific treatment of the matter.

Gold Mine Accounts and Costing. By G. W. TAIT.

BUSINESS ENGLISH, OFFICE PRACTICE, SECRETARIAL WORK, Etc.

Business Letter Practice. Second Edition Revised. By JOHN B. OPDYCKE, Author of "The Language of Advertising." This work has been officially adopted by the New York Board of Education, Bowling Green (Ky.) Business University, North Dakota State School of Science, and other well-known institutions. 601 pages, cloth, $2.50.

The last word on the Business Letter. For the student, for the teacher, for the general reader, for the school, for the library, for the business office.

WHAT THEY SAY.

"New York Times."
" . . . a liberal education."

"New York Evening Post."
" . . . we do not know its equal."

"New York World."
" . . . a classic in business expression."

The "New York Herald"—
"John B. Opdycke is a high priest of the cult of Big Business. He has had considerable experience in conducting advertising campaigns as well as in teaching. He has the confidence of several large scale advertisers who have been willing to assist him in the compilation of this work. His book is full of examples of the very best modern business letters and they show that the business world is levying a contribution from art and literature to further salesmanship. . . . There is much ginger in his style . . . The book is to be commended for having a good index."

The "Mail Bag" (Cleveland).
"For those who want to write efficiently, intelligently, and purposefully . . . is practical rather than theoretical. At $2.50, which is not more than half of and certainly at least a third below, the usual price for a book of this kind and size."

The "Credit Monthly"—
"The book is eminently practical. . . . The letters are highly instructive and suggestive. . . . A business man who wants something more than mere form letters, something more than general suggestions and ideas; in other words, the business man who wants to learn how to 'sell' himself in better English can not do better than to read and study this book."

Pitman's Commercial Dictionary. 384 pages, stiff boards, 50c.

90 pages, illus., cloth, $1.00.
This book deals with the three types of duplicating machines available for office use, namely: (a) stencil machines, both rotary and flat; (b) printing-type machines; and (c) composition duplicators in which the copy is printed from an aniline ink original sustained upon gelatine or clay.

Office Machines, Appliances, and Methods. By W. DESBOROUGH, F.C.I.
147 pages, over 50 illus. and numerous tables, cloth, gilt, $1.75.
Modern business organization requires that all records and correspondence should be in perfect order, that statistical and accounting data should be available as soon as possible, and that the general routine work of the office should be carried out efficiently and accurately. An inspection of a well-organized office will demonstrate that efficiency is obtained at a minimum cost by the employment of labor-saving office appliances. This book describes and illustrates those appliances.

COMMON COMMODITIES AND INDUSTRIES

Each book 5 by 7½ in., about 120 pages, cloth, with colored frontispiece and many illus., maps, charts, etc. Price, $1.00 each.

This series now contains nearly 100 volumes, each treating of a particular commodity or industry in a brief non-technical but adequate manner. They are written by experts and practical men of business, are well illustrated, and up to date.

Many of these works have been adopted by the New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, Detroit, Cleveland, Buffalo Public Libraries and by a large number of Boards of Education.

WHAT THE PRESS SAYS

"For a simple exposition of common commodities and industries these primers may be highly recommended. They cover a large variety of subjects and give the general reader a foundation for more extensive investigation."—The New York Commercial.

"It is customary now, whenever really reliable and exhaustive information upon a subject is desired, to rush to Pitman's Common Commodities and Industries Series, and find therein tersely put, all there is to say upon the subject."—The Schoolmaster.

"A series of real interest and much value."—Western Mail.

OTHER VOLUMES IN PREPARATION

ECONOMICS, INDUSTRIAL ADMINISTRATION, COMMERCIAL GEOGRAPHY, WELFARE WORK, AND HISTORY

The Geography of Commerce. By W. P. RUTTER.
440 pages, illustration and maps, cloth, $1.50.

Geography is now humanistic. It is destined to rank among the foremost of educational subjects, and is gaining much from the biological and sociological sciences. Perhaps, of the many branches of this wide subject, the commercial is the most fascinating and essentially human, for, in its fullness, it is a deep study of the interaction of Man and Nature as seen in the production, transportation, and consumption of economic products.

The earth is the "home and mother of man." His destiny is shaped by his environment, most geographical. This shaping forms the main part of the study of this book. We pass from the physical background of Commercial Geography to the actual commerce of nations, the many economic regions of the world being traced to their geographical distribution.

A glance at the list of contents is sufficient to convey an idea of the wide scope of this work.

The author was for many years a lecturer of Commercial Geography, and in this new work he has given the reader a broad survey of the subject. Although it is written primarily for students in the universities and the higher commercial schools, the book provides the general reader with much that is thought-provoking and stimulating to the imagination.

The book is profusely illustrated with maps and diagrams, and for those who wish to pursue their researches the comprehensive bibliography will be found invaluable.

Economic Geography. Third Edition, Revised and Enlarged. By JOHN MCFARLANE, M.A. Adopted by the New York, Detroit (Mich.), Milwaukee (Wis.) Boards of Education, New York University, University of Chicago, University of California, University of Michigan, University of Minnesota, Ohio University, University of Santa Clara, (Calif.), Kansas State Teachers' College, New York Training School for Teachers.
648 pages, with numerous maps and illus., cloth, $3.00.

This standard text was, in its first edition, recognized to be one of the most complete works on geographical science yet produced. The author has made a substantial revision of the book, bringing the facts and figures right up to the present date, and introducing a quantity of new subject matter and several new maps.

"Is a mine of information, scholarly written and as a source book for grade and high school teachers it is excellent. Its value as a college text needs no comment."—The Journal of Geography (Chicago).

Economics for Business Men. By W. J. WESTON.
267 pages, cloth, $1.00.

The Economics of Private Enterprise. By J. HARRY JONES, M.A., Professor of Economics.
444 pages, cloth, $2.25.

This volume of modern economics has been written mainly to meet the needs of first-year University students and of candidates preparing for examinations in connection with Banking, Accountancy, and other business professions. It is divided into four books: Preliminary Survey;

Economics Organization; Economic Valuation; Employment and the Standard of Living. Principles are abundantly illustrated from pre-war and post-war experience, and as the subject has been stripped of all unnecessary technicalities it is hoped that the book will prove useful to all students of financial, industrial, and social problems. Special attention is devoted to the nature and effects of recent industrial changes.

Dictionary of Economic and Banking Terms. By W. J. WESTON, M.A., and A. CREW. 166 pages, cloth, $1.50.

Each technical term employed in the study of economics is defined lucidly and concisely.

History and Economics of Transport, The. Third Edition. By ADAM W. KIRKALDY, M.A., B.Litt., M.Com., and ALFRED DUDLEY EVANS. 364 pages, cloth, gilt, $4.50.

This volume will be of interest and value to the general reader, and particularly to the business man whose daily affairs bring him into close contact with the problems of Transport.

Outlines of the Economic History of England. By H. O. MEREDITH, M.A. Adopted by the University of Texas. 376 pages, cloth, gilt, $2.25.

Beginning with the Economic development of Britain during the Roman occupation, this work traces the progress made down to the present day. The author deals with the genesis of capitalism, money, and taxation, the growth of trade and industry, the trade union movement, the law and the wage-earning classes, finance, and national welfare, etc.

Welfare Work in Industry. By Members of the Institute of Industrial Welfare Workers. Edited by ELEANOR T. KELLY. 128 pages, cloth, $1.50.

This work not only offers an interesting account of the industrial welfare movement, but discusses in considerable detail the methods best calculated to ensure the complete success of any scheme of welfare work. The authors have been engaged in industrial welfare work for a lengthy period of years, in large and small concerns, and in many different trades, and their practical suggestions for the improvement of industrial relations will be of great interest and value to employers.

"The book is written in a clear, readable style, and the point of view is such as to make it valuable not only for welfare workers but also for employers. One finishes it with the conviction that welfare or personnel work, considered in the broad sense in which these authors view it, is indeed a right movement in industry."—Management Review (New York).

Man's Wants, Work, and Wealth. By SUSAN CUNNINGTON. 187 pages, cloth, $1.00.

Principles of Business Economics. By JAMES STEPHENSON. 496 pages, cloth, $3.00.

An analysis of the modern economic system from the point of view of the business man. From a treatment of general principles the author proceeds with a detailed description of the various business undertakings, the Money Market, the Labor Market, etc. The production and distribution of goods are discussed, and the voluntary organizations for the protection of common interests are described.

"The work is thorough, well done, and clearly written."—The Annalist (New York).

"The chapters on Co-operative Organization will be particularly interesting at this time when co-operative movements here are apparently gathering strength . . . the book is excellently illustrated with charts, and its value further increased by tests after each chapter."—Credit Monthly (New York).

Principles of Commercial History. By JAMES STEPHENSON, M.A. 279 pages, cloth, $2.25.

This volume is a particularly interesting presentation of that part of the history of civilization which comes under the heading of commerce and industry.

Principles of Economic Geography, The. By R. N. RUDMOSE BROWN, D.Sc. 223 pages, cloth, gilt, $2.25.

An outline of the principles of Economic Geography in a readable form. The author shows that there is more in the subject than a description of places and their products, and how, properly understood and appreciated, Economic Geography is a help in the solution of political problems.

Substance of Economics, The. Third Edition. By H. A. SILVERMAN. 364 pages, cloth, $1.75.

A Treatise for the Student and General Reader.

This book has been thoroughly revised in the preparation of the third edition. Several points in the text have been amplified, while all the information and statistics have been brought up to date.

"Presents the subject in as concise a form as is consistent with clarity and understanding."—New York Herald.

Social Administration. By JOHN J. CLARKE M.A. 372 pages, cloth, $2.25.

Elements of Economics. By S. EVELYN THOMAS, B.Com. (Lond.), A.C.I.S. 658 pages, cloth, $3.00.

This book presents the elementary principles of Economic Science in a clear and interesting manner, and will prove valuable to students working for the various professional examinations for which a knowledge of Economics is required.

An Introduction to Industrial Administration. By JOHN LEE, C.B.E., M.A., M.Com.Sc. 195 pages, cloth, $1.50.

An admirable guide to the new science of Industrial Administration. Industrial unrest, and the steadily growing recognition of the human element as the factor of supreme importance in industry, have brought this science into special prominence during the past few years, and made its study essential to every business man and advanced commercial student. This luminous exposition of the changed conditions of modern industry, and of the new conceptions of management and control which are of such profound social significance can be strongly recommended.

Time Standardization of Workshop Operations: A Means of Securing Equitable Payment and Lower Production Costs. By T. Pilkington, M.I.M.E.

266 pages with 95 photographs and original diagrams, cloth, $4.75.

In this work the aim has been to state principles and describe methods in such a manner as will enable the trained engineer to acquire the special knowledge bearing upon engineering machine shop practice, and to apply it with confidence in the installation of trustworthy Time Standards and in the organization and maintenance of an efficient Time Standards Department.

Examples taken from current practice are given by way of illustration and the text is illustrated by a large number of diagrams and charts, tables and photographs. The volume will be found of great practical value to organizers of factories, engineers, and all interested in modern industrial developments.

Factory Administration in Practice. Organization and Administration from the Factory Standpoint. By W. J. Hiscox.

224 pages, cloth, $2.50.

This book is written to appeal to every member of the factory administrative staff.

Industrial Control. The Application to Industry of Direction, Control and Light. By F. M. Lawson.

With numerous diagrams and illus., cloth, $2.50.

Sets before those who are engaged in organization work and true fundamental laws governing all control and direction, and shows how these can be applied to industry with complete success in every case.

Industrial Welfare, The Principles of. By JOHN LEE, C.B.E., M.A., Author of Management. 104 pages, cloth, $1.50.

This is a pioneer book. There are many books which deal with the practice of industrial welfare but there has been no previous attempt to discover the underlying principles, to analyse the various efforts which can be grouped under the heading of welfare methods, or to correlate the movement to its position in the history of industrial development

"A very interesting book . . . the author has given much thought and study to underlying conditions and is familiar to many executives through his previous writings. It refers to the lack of personal touch between the employer and the employed, and explains in a clear, concise way, the progress made in the many different systems in welfare work . . . is the first publication to explain this interesting subject as the many other industrial welfare books do not deal with the underlying principles."—The Silk Journal (New York).

Outlines of Industrial Administration. By R. O. HERFORD, H. T. HILDAGE, M.Inst.C.E., and H. G. JENKINS. 124 pages, cloth, $1.75.

A book based on a series of lectures delivered at the University of Sheffield.

Research in Industry. The Basis of Economic Progress. By A. P. M. FLEMING, C.B.E., M.Sc., M.I.E.E., and J. G. PEARCE, B.Sc., A.M.I.E.E. 264 pages, cloth, $3.00

"The chapters on the character of research, academic and applied, and the relation of one to the other, are written exceedingly well, and the manner in which the universities can help is fully set forth. This section has many excellent suggestions. . . . Descriptions of the means for making research are numerous and graphic."—The Annalist (N. Y. Times).

Sharing Profits with Employees. By JAMES A. BOWIE, M.A. 231 pages, cloth, $3.00.

This work includes sections on Profits, Profit-sharing, Co-partnership and other methods of sharing profits, and each of these sections contains a list of the publications dealing with the subject under review.

"This work is full of good suggestions for the student of industrial relations and is certainly worthy of careful reading."—The Nation (New York).

Introduction to the Principles of Industrial Administration. By A. P. M. FLEMING and H. J. BROCKLEHURST 148 pages, illustrated, cloth, $1.00.

In this book is presented, in simple form, that general survey of industry which is required in particular by those who are undergoing some form of training designed with the object of fitting them ultimately to occupy positions of responsibility in industry.

INSURANCE

Insurance. A Practical Exposition for the Student and Business Man. Third Edition. By T. E. YOUNG, B.A., F.R.A.S., Ex-President of the Institute of Actuaries, and Member of the Actuarial Society of America. 423 pages, cloth, $3.00.

A thoroughly practical treatise for all engaged in Insurance work. Treats fully of Life, Fire, and Marine Insurance. A work of living interest and will prove of the utmost practical value. Adopted by Yale University.

Guide to Life Assurance. By S. G. LEIGH. 200 pages, cloth, $1.50.

In this work, the educational needs of those beginning a life assurance career, either in the chief office of a company or in the field, are steadily kept in view, the object having been to explain in simple form the system and practice of present-day life assurance.

Insurance Office Organization, Management, and Accounts. (See page 53.)

Guide to Marine Insurance. By HENRY KEATE, Lecturer at the Manchester School of Commerce, England. 203 pages, cloth, $1.00.
This book is primarily intended for the use of shipping clerks and others who are concerned with the insurance of goods under Marine Policies.

Principles of Insurance. By J. A. EKE. 175 pages, cloth, $1.50.
A guide to the principles and practice of Accident, Fire, Marine, and Life Insurance.

Motor Insurance. By W. F. TODD, of the Ocean and Guarantee Corporation, Ltd. 176 pages, $1.75.
The treatment of mechanical road transport risks is dealt with in an interesting and practical manner.

The Law and Practice of Fidelity Guarantees. By C. EVANS.
164 + vii pages, $1.75.

Common Hazards of Fire Insurance. By W. G. K. RIDLEY, F.C.I.I.
86 + v pages, $1.50.

Workmen's Compensation Insurance. By C. E. GOLDING, LL.B. (Lond.). 112 pages, $1.50.

The Elements of Actuarial Science. By R. E. UNDERWOOD.
140 + viii pages, $1.50.

Successful Insurance Agent. By J. J. BISGOOD.
135 pages, cloth, gilt, 75c.

Fire Insurance, The Principles and Practice of. By FRANK GODWIN.
135 pages, cloth, $1.50.

Commercial Credit Risks: Export Credit and Credit Insurance. By A. H. SWAIN. 148 pages, cloth, $1.50.
A book for bankers, insurance managers, and brokers, merchants and export manufacturers.

LAW

Bills, Checks, and Notes. Third, Revised and Enlarged Edition. By J. A. SLATER, B.A., LL.B. (Lond.). 214 pages, cloth, $1.75.
This book traces the principal negotiable instruments, viz., bills of exchange, checks, and promissory notes, from their inception to their discharge, and points out the exact position occupied by every person who is in any way connected with these documents. All recent decisions of importance recorded in the Law reports have been carefully noted.

Patents for Inventions. By J. EWART WALKER, B.A., of the Inner Temple, Barrister-at-Law, and R. BRUCE FOSTER, B.Sc., of Lincoln's Inn, Barrister-at-Law. 390 pages, cloth, $6.00.
The object of this volume is to set out clearly and concisely the fundamental principles relating to patent law and practice.

The Principles of Marine Law. Third Edition, Revised and Enlarged. By LAWRENCE DUCKWORTH. 400 pages, cloth, $2.25.
In the present edition the text has been carefully revised, all the most recent decisions on Shipping Law and Marine Insurance having been incorporated therein. The volume will be invaluable to shipowners, shipbrokers, shipbuilders, underwriters, etc.

The Law Relating to Secret Commissions and Bribes. By ALBERT CREW, with American Notes by MORTEN Q. MACDONALD, of the District of Columbia Bar, Attorney-at-Law. With a Foreword by Sir EDWARD FRY, G.C.B., formerly Lord Justice of Appeal for England. 252 + xxviii pages, cloth, $3.00.
Containing the statutes and chapters on the Law of Great Britain and Ireland, the United States, and the Colonies.

Accounts of Executors, Administrators, and Trustees. With a Summary of the Law in so far as it relates to Accounts. Fourth Edition, Revised. By WILLIAM B. PHILLIPS, A.C.A. 152 pages, cloth, $1.50.

This book is intended for those called upon to act as executor, administrator, or trustee, and also for accountancy students.

Physiology and Anatomy. With chapters on Common Diseases and Accidents, and a List of Common Medical Terms. By HAROLD GARDINER. 427 pages, cloth, $3.00.

Specially prepared for students for the examinations of the Chartered Insurance Institute in the Life and Accident branches. Well illustrated with over sixty diagrams of human anatomy. It is a book that should also prove useful to the legal profession.

"A very helpful work for insurance company officials, general agents, adjusters, and agents of life, health and accident insurance companies. All who have to deal in any way with claims for indemnity for accident or sickness, will find this work of great assistance. . . . The book contains numerous illustrations which will be found exceptionally useful by members of the legal and insurance professions."—The Spectator (New York).

SHIPPING AND TRANSPORT

Port Economics. By B. CUNNINGHAM, D.Sc., B.E., F.R.S.E., M.Inst.C.E. 144 pages, cloth, $1.75.

A fully illustrated introduction to the study of the general principles of port operation, organization, and administration.

Shipping and Shipbroking. Second Edition. Thoroughly Revised. By C. D. MACMURRAY and MALCOLM M. CREE, Members of the Institute of Chartered Shipbrokers. About 550 pages, cloth, gilt, $4.50.

A very complete guide to all shipping matters. The chapters on vessels and their types explain the common measurements of vessels, their classification and, generally, the main features of shipping property; while the chapters on charter parties, chartering, and agency show clearly the actual work of a broker. The subjects of marine insurance and general average and shipping accounts have been dealt with, and, in addition, there are several chapters on the law of affreightment, etc.

Importer's Handbook, The. By J. A. DUNNAGE. 380 pages, cloth, $3.00.

The duties of an importer of goods are dealt with and advice is given on the many points which crop up when "clearing" goods. Forms are included throughout, and the student in particular will find them exceedingly valuable in illustrating the importer's dealings with the Customs authorities.

Shipping Business Methods. By R. B. PAUL. 104 pages, cloth, $1.00.

A guide for all engaged in the offices of shipowners and shipbrokers.

The Exporter's Handbook and Glossary. By FRANK M. DUDENEY. Foreword by W. EGLINGTON, Founder and Editor of "The British Export Gazette." 254 pages, cloth, gilt, $2.25.

"This book is designed to provide the manufacturer even more than the merchant shipper with a complete guide to the intricacies of export trade, with an understanding of the divisions of that trade, and of the methods and machinery employed therein. As an exposition of the principles and methods of export business, the book should prove a potent weapon in hands of manufacturers and merchants who are determined to gain and hold in the future a large share of that world trade. . . . A copious index, an extensive glossary of shipping terms and facsimiles of various shipping documents are included in the book."—The South American (New York).

Consignments, Account Sales and Accounts Current. By E. J. HAMMOND. 160 pages, cloth, $1.50.

This volume forms a thoroughly practical and comprehensive treatise on consignment transactions, account sales, and accounts current of merchants in their varied aspects. Joint ventures are also dealt with and modern methods of interest calculations receive consideration.

Shipping. By ARNOLD HALL and F. HEYWOOD.
5½ by 8½ in., 136 pages, cloth, 60c.

This book constitutes a reliable guide to the routine in connexion with the shipment of goods and the clearance of vessels inwards and outwards. Part I describes the work of a shipper, and explains his duties. Part II deals with the importation of goods; and Part III gives precise information regarding the work of a shipbroker. With 27 shipping forms.

Shipping Office Organization, Management and Accounts. (See page 53.)

Shipbroking, Introduction to. By CHAS. D. MACMURRAY and M. M. CREE. 108 pages, cloth, $1.00.

"Can be recommended for its undoubted value."—Lloyd's List.

"The first comprehensive book on all phases of shipbroking from chartering to coaling."—New York Herald.

Shipping Finance & Accounts. By ROBERT B. PAUL. 76 pages, cloth, 75c

Industrial Traffic Management. Second Edition, Revised and Enlarged. By GEO. B. LISSENDEN, Traffic Manager to Lever Bros., Ltd., England; with a Foreword by LORD LEVERHULME.
352 pages, cloth, $6.00.

A practical and comprehensive guide, dealing with the whole science of traffic management, for all those persons interested in the conveyance of goods by rail, canal, river, and coastwise.

Consular Requirements for Exporters and Shippers to All Parts of the World. Second Edition, Revised and Enlarged. By J. S. NOWERY. 5 by 7½ in., 157 pages, cloth, $2.25.

Case and Freight Costs. The Principles of Calculation Relating to the Cost of, and Freight on, Sea or Commercial Cases. By A. W. E. CROSFIELD, Lecturer and Associate of the Manchester Municipal School of Commerce, England. 5 by 7½ in., 68 pages, cloth, 75c.

Motor Road Transport. Second Edition, Enlarged. By JOHN PHILLIMORE. 226 pages, with 32 full-page plates and numerous charts and tables, cloth, $3.00.

A guide for those who intend adopting mechanical traction for the first time, or who, although possessing motor vehicles, have not a wide experience in their use. Useful tables of costs are included, upon which traders can base their own estimates of transportation charges.

History and Economics of Transport. (See page 62.)

Mechanical Refrigeration. New Edition, thoroughly Revised. By HAL WILLIAMS. 511 pages, cloth, $6.00.

An up-to-date survey of modern practice in Refrigeration. The earlier edition of Mr. Williams' book is well known to refrigeration engineers. It is intended for refrigeration engineers, dock officials, wholesalemen, manufacturers of refrigeration machines, and others.

"The author has covered the entire scope of his subject in an entertaining, informative, and authoritative manner. His book is a valuable contribution to his special department of engineering and represents the very latest information upon this extremely important subject."—Compressed Air Magazine (New York).

BUSINESS HANDBOOKS, ETC.

Practical Advice to Inventors and Patentees. Inventions and How to Patent Them. By C. M. LINLEY. 134 pages, cloth, $1.00. net.

This work gives practical information which will be of value to inventors and patentees. It not only points out what steps are necessary to obtain a patent for an invention, but also contains advice to those who contemplate investing capital in the development of inventions and patents.

Business Man's Encyclopaedia and Dictionary of Commerce. In four volumes. Edited by J. A. SLATER, B.A., LL.B., Barrister-at-Law; assisted by upwards of 50 specialists.

7½ by 10 in., about 1,800 pages, with numerous maps, illus., diagrams, business forms, legal documents, etc. Complete set, $25.00.

A reliable and comprehensive British reference work on all commercial subjects.

Commercial Goodwill: Its History, Value, and Treatment in Accounts. By P. D. LEAKE. 260 + xii pages, cloth, $6.00.

Guide for Company Secretary. Revised and Enlarged. By ARTHUR COLES, F.C.I.S. 448 pages, cloth, $1.75.

A practical manual and work of reference for the company secretary.

Commercial Geography of the World.

350 pages, with 90 maps and plates, cloth, $1.35.

"I have used your Commercial Geography of the World and consider there is nothing equal to it." Augustus T. Swift, Instructor in Foreign Trade and Commercial Law, English High School, Providence, R.I.

Commercial History. By J. R. V. MARCHANT, M.A.

272 pages, cloth, $1.65.

The World and Its Commerce. 128 pages, with 34 maps, cloth, 75c.

This book contains simply written chapters on the general geography of the world: the seven great industries: the commercial geography of the British Empire at home and abroad, and of foreign countries. The information conveyed is quite up to date, and new maps are included of the districts affected by the Peace of Versailles.

Dictionary of the World's Commercial Products. Second Edition, Revised By J. A. SLATER, B.A., LL.B. (Lond.). 163 pages, cloth, $1.00.

With French, German, and Spanish equivalents for the names of the products.

Commodities of Commerce. By J. A. SLATER, B.A., LL.B.

5½ by 8½ in., 168 pages, with 34 illus., cloth, gilt, $1.75.

A general guide to the principal commodities of the world, and valuable as an introduction to a systematic study of any particular class of commodities. The work is divided into three sections: Mineral, Animal, and Vegetable.

Commercial Commodities. By FRANK MATTHEWS.

5½ by 8½ in., 320 pages, illus., cloth, $3.50.

Gives the student and the general reader a not too detailed idea of the more important raw, or semi-manufactured, articles used in trade.

Fruit and the Fruit Trade. By FORD FAIRFORD. 154 pages, cloth, $1.75.

This work is concerned only with such fruits as are grown in different countries on a commercial scale, and particularly those that enter into international trade. Readers are made familiar with the nature and extent of the Fruit Trade, the methods employed in growing fruits, and the means by which they are conveyed from the four corners of the world to the principal markets.

Any of the books described in this catalog will be sent post paid upon receipt of price.

AERONAUTICS

Commercial Air Transport. By Lieut.-Col. Ivo Edwards, C.M.G., and F. Tymms, M.C. 163 + 14 pages, cloth, $2.50.

This new work presents for the first time a fully illustrated and concise exposition of the present position and possibilities of commercial air transport. The authors speak from a first-hand experience of the operation of aircraft. They discuss the basic principles on which air transport is founded; the conditions vital to the intensive working of aircraft; the principal types of modern aircraft and engines; the organization of commercial air routes, including meteorology and wireless services; air navigation and traffic control; passengers, freight, routes and time tables; and the probable lines of future development.

Air Vice-Marshal Sir Sefton Brancker, K.C.B., A.F.C., Director of Civil Aviation, contributes a valuable foreword to the work, and warmly welcomes it as "a concise and clear exposition of air transport as it exists to-day."

"The first English work on commercial aviation, and written from first-hand experience on the part of the authors."—Library Bulletin Aeronautical Chamber of Commerce of America (New York).

The Rigid Airship. By E. H. Lewitt, B.Sc., M.I.Ae.E.

276 pages, with many illus., and two large folding plates, cloth, $8.50.

This book is written on the results of experience gained by the author whilst engaged on the design of rigid airships at the Bedford works of Messrs. Short Bros., Ltd., and at the Air Ministry.

"Mr. Lewitt is a recognized authority on this subject, and has embodied in his book the result of many years' practical experience in airship design. His book is the only work available on the subject in the English language. The subject of Rigid Airships is becoming of increasing importance. Everyone interested in the progress of Aeronautics will find that this book will well repay perusing. The tabulated data render the book highly valuable for reference purposes."—Engineers' and Engineering (Philadelphia).

Textbook of Aeronautical Engineering. By Alexander Klemin, Associate Professor of Aeronautics, New York University.

Contents: Part I, Aerodynamical Theory and Data—Early Experiments and Modern Aeronautical Laboratories—Elements of Aerodynamical Theory—Flat Plates: Simple Problems on Sustentation and Resistance of Wing Surfaces—Comparison of Standard Wing Sections—Effects of Variations in Profile and Plan Form of Wing Sections—Study of Pressure Distribution—Biplane Combinations—Triplane Combinations—Uses of Negative Tail Surfaces—Resistance of Various Aeroplane Parts—Resistance and Comparative Merits of Aeroplane Struts—Resistance and Performance—Resistance Computations: Preliminary Wing Selections.

Part II, Aeroplane Design—Classification of Main Data for Modern Aeroplanes; Unarmed Land Reconnaissance Machines; Land Training Machines—Land Pursuit Machines, Land Gun-carrying Machine, Twin-engined All-round Machine—Estimates of Weight Distribution—Engine and Radiator Data—Materials in Aeroplane Construction—Worst Dynamic Loads, Factors of Safety—Preliminary Design of a Secondary Training Machine—General Principles of Chassis Design—Type Sketches and Secondary Training Machine, General Principles of Body Design—Computation of Strength Members and General

Layout of Body—Wing Structure Analysis for Biplanes—Notes on Aerial Propellers.

Elementary Principles of Aeroplane Design and Construction. By ARTHUR W. JUDGE.
128 pages, with 13 tables, 56 illus., and numerous Exercises and Answers, cloth, $2.25.

A Textbook for Students, Draughtsmen, and Engineers.

The general scheme of the book is to deal with the aerodynamical and stability principles first, and to follow on with the general application of these and of the mechanical principles to design work.

The Design of Aeroplanes. Second Edition, Revised. By A. W. JUDGE, A.R.C.S., Wh.Ex., A.M.I.A.E.
242 pages with 73 illus., and tables. $4.00.

PARTIAL CONTENTS: General Design Principles.—Calculation of Resultant Forces—Gyroscopic and Propeller Torques. The Estimation of Aeroplane Weights.—Weight Estimates and C.G.—Data for Weight Estimates—Engines, Fuel, Tanks—Total Power Unit Weights—Propellers—Wings—Control Surfaces—Fuselage—Under-carriage—Miscellaneous—Examples. Some Design Considerations.—Military Requirements—Wing Loading—Calculation of Weights, Areas, and Speeds—Application of Model Tests to Full-sized Machines—Wing-loading Data—Comparison of Monoplanes and Biplanes—Bird Flight Data—Distribution of Wing Loading—Loading of Upper and Lower Surfaces—Flying Angles—Aspect Ratio Corrections—Biplane Spacing Corrections—Effect of Stagger—Effect of Dihedral. The Characteristic Curves of Aero Performances.—Wing Resistance Curves—Horse-power Curves—Rate of Climbing—Gliding Angles. Stresses in Aeroplanes.—Factors of Safety Monoplanes—Bending Moments and Shearing Forces on Wing Ribs—Stresses in Wing Spars, Cables, and Struts—Methods of Monoplane Bracing—Calculation of Spar Dimensions—Drift Stresses—General Case of Monoplane Stresses—Bending and S.F. Stresses—Biplane Stresses—Top Loading Stresses—Shearing Force. Principles of Construction of the Wing System.—Systems of Biplane Bracing—Wing Plan Forms—Types of Wing Spar Sections—Wooden and Metal Wing Construction. Principles of Undercarriage Design.—Mechanical and Dynamical Principles Involved—General Design Principles—General Requirements of Undercarriages—Types of Undercarriage: Springing and Suspension—Mechanical Principles involved in Aeroplane Design—Fusilage Design—Appendix—Index.

Elementary Aeronautics; or, The Science and Practice of Aerial Machines. New Edition. By A. P. THURSTON, D.Sc., Member of the Aeronautical Society. 224 pages, with 180 illus., $2.50.

Aeroplane Structural Design. By T. H. JONES, B.Sc., A.M.I.M.E., etc. and J. D. FRIER, A.R.C.Sc., etc.
279 pages, cloth, gilt, with 121 illus., $6.00.

A book for Designers, Draughtsmen, and Students.

The Manufacture and Use of Plywood and Glue. By B. C. BOULTON, B.Sc. 90 pages, 17 illus., cloth, gilt, $2.25.

The whole field of the manufacture, uses, and properties of plywood has been covered, and many war developments in glues have been recorded for the first time.

Automobile and Aircraft Engines. A thoroughly Revised and much Enlarged Edition of High-Speed Internal Combustion Engines. By A. W. JUDGE, A.R.C.S., A.M.I.A.E. Adopted by Yale University.
649 pages, with 324 illus. and 115 tables, $8.50.

The present volume is the outcome of an endeavour to collect and to classify, in as brief a form as possible, the more important information relating to the subject of High-speed Internal Combustion Engines, as viewed from the theoretical and experimental sides.

"The volume collects and classifies very important information that might not otherwise be readily available."—Scientific American (New York).

Aircraft and Automobile Materials of Construction: Vol. I, Ferrous Materials. By ARTHUR W. JUDGE.
739 pages, with 275 illus. and about 200 tables, cloth, $7.50.

A treatise for Aircraft, Automobile, and Mechanical Engineers, Manufacturers, Designers, and others.

Vol. II, Non-Ferrous and Organic Materials. By A. W. JUDGE
594 + xii pages, with 179 illus. and 152 tables, $7.50.

DRAUGHTSMANSHIP

Blue Printing and Modern Plan Copying. By B. J. HALL, M.I.Mech.E.
144 pages, 62 figures, cloth, $1.75.

Describes the various processes of plan copying, the plant required, and best methods of working.

Drawing Office Practice. By H. P. WARD. About 150 pages, $2.25.

This book will be found useful by electrical and mechanical engineers, works managers, and others responsible for the equipment or maintenance of an engineering drawing office. The book will also interest engineers' draughtsmen, as it contains much useful information regarding drawing office practice.

Drawing and Designing. By CHARLES G. LELAND, M.A.
79 pages, with many illus., $1.00.

Engineer Draughtsmen's Work. Third Edition. By a Practical Draughtsman. Hints to Beginners in Drawing Offices.
With 80 illus., 75c.

Manual Instruction: Drawing. By S. BARTER.
48 pages, 32 plates, $1.25.

Showing the application of Geometrical Drawing to Manual Instruction in Wood and Metal.

Plan Copying in Black Lines. By B. J. HALL, M.I.Mech.E.
Cloth, 5 inserts, 75c.

This book describes a system of plan copying suitable for use in hot climates.

ELECTRICAL SCIENCE AND ENGINEERING

Accumulator Charging, Maintenance, and Repair. By W. S. IBBETSON, B.Sc., A.M.I.E.E., M.I.Mar.E. 120 pages, cloth, $1.00.

This book is intended for the use of all interested in the charging and upkeep of accumulators for wireless work, motor-car lighting and starting equipment, and country house lighting plant.

Railway Electrification. By H. F. TREWMAN, M.A., A.M.I.E.E.
244 pages, 110 illus. and 42 tables, cloth, $7.50.

A complete survey of the economics of the different systems of Railway Electrification from the engineering and financial points of view. This book is of special interest at the present time when systems of Railway Electrification are in active progress. There is at present no other up-to-date work which deals with both the financial and engineering sides of the subject.

Practical D.C. Armature Winding. A book for all interested in the Design, Construction or Repair of D.C. Armatures. By L. WOLLISON.
228 + viii pages, 152 illustrations, 8 colored plates and many line drawings and photographs. Cloth, $2.25.

It may safely be said that all engaged in an armature winding shop will find this book invaluable. The author possesses a very valuable combination of practical and academic experience.

Electrical Insulating Materials. By ALLAN MONKHOUSE, Jun., M.I.E.E., A.M.I.Mech.E.
409 pages with 112 illustrations and 26 tables, cloth, $6.00.
Mr. Monkhouse, owing to his experience as a research engineer with the Metropolitan-Vickers Electrical Company, and through his intimate connection with the Electrical Research Association, has been enabled to collect very complete information on the various materials used for electrical insulation.
"A valuable treatise that will be welcomed by the engineer and chemist concerned with the construction and operation of electrical construction for both high and low-tension circuits."—The India Rubber World (New York).

Electrical Engineering: Whittaker's Arithmetic of. Third Edition. Revised and Enlarged. Containing 81 Worked Examples and 375 Exercises. With numerous illustrations, $1.00.
The plan adopted in this book is first to give the fundamental quantitative relationships and laws, and then numerous worked-out examples illustrating the principles of the subject. In addition, there are added 300 examples for the student to work himself.

Electric Circuit Theory and Calculations. Second Edition. By W. PERREN MAYCOCK, M.I.E.E. Numerous Worked and Unworked Examples. 355 pages, with 120 diagrams, $3.00.
A Practical Book for Engineers, Students, Contractors, and Wiremen. With a Part on Arithmetic. Explains the theoretical principles underlying arithmetical problems concerning electric circuits of all descriptions and shows how such problems may be worked out.

Electric Wiring, Fittings, Switches, and Lamps. Fifth Edition, Revised. By the same Author. 628 pages, with 620 illus., $3.00.
A Practical Book for Electric Light Engineers and Contractors, Consulting Engineers, Architects, Builders, Wiremen, and Students.
PARTIAL CONTENTS: Connection of Supply Mains—Distribution—Distribution Boards—Transformers and Automatic Switches—Private Dynamo-Accumulator Installations—Automatic Accumulator Switches—Switches, Ceiling Roses, Lampholders, etc.

Electric Wiring Diagrams. By the same Author.
146 pages, with 246 illus., $1.50.
Illustrating Circuit-Connections for Supply Mains, Distribution Boards, Transformers, Lamps, Heaters, Motors, Bells, Private Generating Plant, etc., etc.

Power Wiring Diagrams. By A. T. DOVER, A.M.I.E.E.
With 254 illus., cloth, rounded edges, $1.75.
A Handbook of Connection Diagrams of Control and Protective Systems for Industrial C.C. and A.C. Machines and Apparatus. This book contains upwards of 200 carefully prepared diagrams of connections of electric power circuits, each diagram being accompanied by explanatory notes. It also contains a collection of useful data, curves, etc., relating to starters and protective apparatus.

Electrical Condensers. By PHILIP R. COURSEY, B.Sc., F.Inst.P., A.M.I.E.E. 635 pages, 514 illustrations, cloth, $10.00.
There is at present no other book in existence which deals with the theory, design, construction, and testing of every kind of electrical condenser.

Practical Electric Light Fitting. Ninth Edition, thoroughly revised and largely re-written. By F. C. ALLSOP. With 242 illus., $2.25.
A Treatise on the Wiring and Fitting up of Buildings deriving Current from Central Station Mains, and the laying down of Private Installations.

Mercury Arc Rectifiers and Mercury Vapor Lamps. By J. A. FLEMING.
100 pages, 44 illustrations, cloth, $1.75.
A treatise on the mode of operation and uses of mercury arc rectifier and mercury vapor lamps.

Electrolytic Rectifiers. By N. A. DE BRUYNE.
83 pages, 23 illus., cloth, $1.00.
An interesting monograph embodying original research work, and written in a style which renders it intelligible to the amateur with a little electrical knowledge. A valuable feature of the book is that it contains full and precise instructions, enabling the reader to construct a small rectifier which may be used for charging accumulators for wireless work. For scientific workers, professors of electrical engineering and physics, and wireless amateurs.
"We anticipate a ready market for this new and interesting book."—Popular Wireless.
"As far as the reviewer has been able to determine this is the first book on this subject that has been published . . . the author gives a very clear and concise explanation of the fundamentals and characteristics of this type of rectifier."—Electrical World (New York).

Electrical Technology. By H. COTTON, M.B.E., M.Sc.
392 pages, 330 illus., $3.75.
Written specially for students studying for the Engineering Degree, either the B.Sc., Engineering, or the A.M.I.E.E.

Guide to Kinematography Projection. By COLIN H. BENNETT.
200 pages, 123 illus., cloth, gilt, $3.00.
The present volume is intended chiefly for proprietors, manager-operators, and operators of picture theatres. The book contains not only full and accurate information for the operator, but also information and advice on other aspects of the subject, such as "How to make up the weekly programme," "Choosing and managing the staff," "Board of Trade regulations, etc."

The Dynamo: Its Theory, Design, and Manufacture. By C. C. HAWKINS, M.A., M.I.E.E., A.Amer.I.E.E. New (Sixth) Edition, thoroughly revised and largely re-written.
Vol. I deals with the general theory of the subject.
639 pages, with 311 illus., cloth, $6.00.
Vol. II deals with the application of the theory to the design of direct current generators. 338 pages, 128 illus., cloth, $4.50.
Vol. III deals with the design of alternators. 267 illus., cloth, $8.50.
"A thorough treatment of the modern alternator is a welcome addition to machinery literature. The author has thoroughly revised and rewritten this standard work, and it now covers admirably the latest elements in theory and design associated with alternators. An additional chapter that will be welcomed treats of alternators in parallel. While written primarily from the viewpoint of the designer, the book contains valuable material for the student and also for the practising engineer."—Electrical World (New York).

Electric Lighting in Factories and Workshops. By LEON GASTER and J. S. DOW. 37 pages, with 19 illus., 20c.

Direct-Current Electrical Engineering, Principles of. Fourth impression. By JAMES R. BARR, A.M.I.E.E. With 294 illus., some colored, $4.50.
Treats specially with the main principles of Electrical Engineering, showing how they are applied. The instruments and apparatus described indicate the best modern practice.

Direct-Current Dynamo and Motor Faults. By R. M. ARCHER, B.Sc. (Hons.), Lond., A.R.C.Sc., M.I.E.E. 216 pages, with 75 illus., $2.25.
For students and those in charge of Electrical Installations.

Continuous-Current Dynamo Design, Elementary Principles of. By H. M. HOBART, M.I.C.E., M.I.M.E. 220 pages, with 106 illus, $3.00.
A novel feature introduced into this book is a number of complete designs in tabulated form.

How to Manage the Dynamo. Sixth Edition. By A. E. BOTTONE. Pocket size, illus., 60c.
A Handbook for Engineers, Electric Light Engineers, and Electroplaters.

Continuous-Current Motors and Control Apparatus. By W. PERREN MAYCOCK, M.I.E.E.
Over 300 pages, with 150 illus., including many original connection diagrams, $2.25.
An Original and Practical Book.

Electric Lighting and Power Distribution. Ninth Edition, thoroughly Revised and Enlarged. By W. PERREN MAYCOCK, M.I.E.E.
Vol. I, 576 pages with 333 illus., $3.00.
Vol. II, 611 pages, with 364 illus., Ninth Edition, thoroughly Revised and Enlarged, $3.00.

Electric Traction. Fourth Edition. By A. T. DOVER, M.I.E.E.
688 + xx pages, with 518 illus., 33 tables, and 5 folding plates, cloth, $6.00.
A treatise on the Application of Electric Power to Electric Traction on Railways and Tramways. This book has been written to meet the requirements of Engineers and advanced Engineering Students. Special consideration has been given to traction motors, systems of control, electric locomotives, motor coaches, the computation of energy, consumption, etc. A number of worked examples are included in the text, and a selection of problems is given at the end of the volume.
"This book has been used several years as a text in the graduate course in Electric Railway Engineering, as it is the most comprehensive test on the subject."—James L. Entwistle, Mass. Inst. of Technology (Cambridge, Mass.).

Electric Motors and Control Systems. Revised Edition. By the same Author. 372 pages, with 315 illus., cloth, $4.50.
"This treatise will be welcomed by those requiring a broader treatment of the principles and special features of this application of electricity to traction. It meets the needs of the advanced student and the engineer, and is representative of the best modern practice."—Scientific American (New York).

Electric Lighting in the Home. By LEON GASTER and J. S. DOW. 32 pages, with 12 illus., 25c.

Electric Motors—Direct Current: Their Theory and Construction. New Edition. By H. M. HOBART, M.I.E.E., M.Amer.I.E.E. 428 pages, 374 illus., $4.50.
In the earlier editions, direct current motors and polyphase motors were treated in the single volume. The work has now been divided into two volumes, the first of which deals chiefly with direct current motors, and the second chiefly with polyphase motors.
In the present volume the most recent information on design is included. The design of interpoles to obtain sparkless commutation is discussed at some length. Many other details which are not dealt with in the ordinary textbook are also entered into. The various standards for the rating of electric motors are compared. In short the book contains practically all the information likely to be needed by the designer and advanced student of direct current motors.

Alternating Currents, Theory and Practice of. By A. T. Dover, M.I.E.E., A.Amer.I.E.E. 536 pages, cloth, $5.50.

This book is suitable for second and third year electrical engineering students.

Electric Motors—Polyphase: Their Theory and Construction. Third Edition. By H. M. Hobart, M.I.E.E., M.Amer.I.E.E. 396 pages, with 378 illus., $4.50.

This forms a companion volume to Electric Motors (Direct Current) by the same author. It embodies the most recent data for the design and construction of polyphase motors of sizes ranging from 1 h.p. to 500 h.p. No designer of motors of this type can afford to be without this book. In addition, lecturers and advanced students of electrical engineering will find it extremely useful, and finally, consulting engineers who have from time to time to advise upon the installation of electrical plant will find the book a most valuable work of reference.

Alternating Current Machinery, Papers on the Design of. By C. C. Hawkins, M.A., M.I.E.E.; S. P. Smith, D.Sc., Assoc.M.Inst.C.E., A.M.I.E.E.; and S. Neville, B.Sc. 392 pages, with 97 illus., cloth, $6.00.

Consisting of four papers dealing scientifically and practically with problems arising in the design of alternating current machinery.

The Steam Turbo-Alternator. A Treatise for Central Station Engineers and Operators, Designers, and Engineering Students. By L. C. Grant. 260 pages, 161 illus., cloth, $4.50.

Dealing with the various types of turbines, high-speed alternators, and their control gear in present-day use.

Electric Bells and All About Them. Eighth Edition, Revised and Enlarged. By S. R. Bottone. With 81 illus., $1.00.

A Practical Handbook for Practical Men.

Contents: Preliminary Considerations—On the Choice of Batteries for Electric Bell Work—On Electric Bells and other Signalling Appliances—On Contacts, Pushes, Switches, Keys, Alarms, and Relays—Electric Bell Wiring and Circuits—Index.

A Small Book on Electric Motors for Continuous and Alternating Currents. By W. Perren Maycock, M.I.E.E. 192 pages, 128 illus., cloth, $1.75.

"For those who are interested in knowing about ordinary motors and motor controls, A Small Book on Electric Motors supplies the groundwork knowledge that the general reader is only too glad to get, setting forth the advantages of electric power in industry and in the home, explaining various types of motors and control-gear, and adding descriptions and definitions of electrical matters and terms. The excellent and abundant illustrations are an outstanding feature of the instructions so admirably given."—Scientific American (New York).

Polyphase Currents. Second Edition, Revised. By A. Still, M.I.E.E. 300 pages, 101 illus., $2.25.

A Practical Treatise on Polyphase Working for Electrical Engineers. Commends itself to Practical Engineers and Students who are without the mathematical knowledge required for the study of more advanced works on the subject.

Alternating Current Bridge Methods. A theoretical and practical handbook for advanced students of Electrical Engineering. By B. Hague, M.Sc. 315 pages, 76 illus., cloth, gilt, $4.50.

Alternating-Current Work. Second Edition. By W. PERREN MAYCOCK, M.I.E.E. 420 pages, with 260 illus., $3.00.

An Introductory Book for Engineers and Students.

Alternating-Current Circuit. By PHILIP KEMP, M.I.E.E. 96 pages, illus., cloth, 75c.

This book is intended for the use of electrical engineering students when they first begin the study of alternating currents. The latter is a subject which almost invariably presents very great difficulty to first year students. Mr. Kemp in his new book has explained the fundamental principles in a manner specially suited to the needs of students who have not before studied the subject.

"A useful working summary or introduction."—Model Engineer.

Elements of Direct-Current Electrical Engineering. By H. F. TREWMAN and C. E. CONDLIFFE. 226 pages, 146 illus., cloth, $1.50.

Bridges the gap between the elementary textbooks of Magnetism and Simple Current Electricity, Ohm's Law, etc., and so many of the more advanced books which deal with the design point of view.

Design of Alternating-Current Machinery. By J. R. BARR, A.M.I.E.E. and R. D. ARCHIBALD, B.Sc., A.M.I.C.E. With 340 illus. and 17 large working drawings, $9.00.

CONTENTS: Complex Wave Forms and Harmonic Analysis—Insulation—Transformers—Design of Transformers—Alternators—Design of Alternators—Rotary Converters—Design of Rotary Converters—Index.

Practical Testing of Electrical Machines. By L. OULTON, A.M.I.E.E., and N. J. WILSON, M.I.E.E. Pocket size, with 104 illus., $1.75.

CONTENTS: Tests on Induction Motors, Alternating-Current Generators, Rotary Convertors, Synchronous Motors and Single-phase Railway Motors—Tests Common to Direct-Current Machines—Tests on Shunt and Compound Wound Generators, Shunt and Compound Motors, and Direct Series and Railway Motors—Index.

Electrical Engineers' Pocket Book, Whittaker's. Fourth Edition, entirely re-written. Edited by R. E. NEALE, B.Sc. Hons. (Lond.), A.C.G.I. Founded by KENELM EDGECUMBE, M.I.E.E. Pocket size, round corners, 671 pages, with 323 illus., cloth, gilt, $3.00.

This volume combines the range of matter and convenience of reference commonly expected from a pocket book, with the coherence of treatment and wealth of detail usually to be found only in specialized textbooks.

Electrical Instruments in Theory and Practice. By W. H. F. MURDOCH, B.Sc., and U. A. OSCHWALD, B.A. 366 pages, with 164 illus. $3.75.

Electrical Instrument-Making for Amateurs. Ninth Edition. By S. R. BOTTONE. 264 pages, with 96 illus., $1.75.

A Practical Handbook.

"The instructions are so simple that only inexpensive tools are required in making the instruments described."—Telegraph and Telephone Age (New York).

The Electro-Platers' Handbook. Fifth Edition. By G. E. Bonney.
221 pages, with 61 illus., $1.50.
A Practical Manual for Amateurs and Students in Electro-Metallurgy.

Contents: Electro-Deposition of Metal—Electro-Deposition by Current from Batteries—Dynamo-Electric Plating Machines—Electro-Platers' Materials—Preparing the Work.—Electro-Plating with Silver—Gold—Nickel—Copper—Alloys—Zinc, Tin, Iron, etc.—Electrotyping—Nickel-plating for Cycles.

Accumulators, Management of. By Sir D. Salomons, Bart.
178 pages, 36 illus., $2.25.
This book fills the gap between the manufacturer of accumulators and the general user, and is the result of facts obtained in the course of careful and scientific observation in the working of batteries. Various types of cell are fully described, and directions are laid down for the avoidance or rectification of troubles. Ninth Edition, Revised.

Induction Coils. Sixth Edition, Revised. By G. E. Bonney.
198 pages, with 104 illus., $1.75.
A Practical Manual for Coilmakers.

Contents: Inductive Theories and Experiments—How to Construct Small Coils—How to Construct Large Spark Coils—How to Make a Motor Coil—Medical Coils—Accessories to Coils—Large Coil for Radiography—Batteries for Coils—Repair of Batteries and Coils—Table of Copper Wire Properties—List of Conductors and Insulators—Index.

Induction Coil, The Theory of. By E. Taylor-Jones, D.Sc., F.Inst.P.
217 pages, cloth, 93 illus., $3.75.

Chapters: Introduction—Outline of the Oscillation Transformer Theory of the Induction Coil—Simpler Theory in which the Resistances are Neglected—The Capacity-Potential Curves of an Induction Coil—The Wave-Form of the Secondary Potential: The Electrostatic Oscillograph—Variation of the Coupling—Determination of the Constants of an Induction Coil—The Optimum Secondary Capacity—Maximum Primary Potential—Induction Coil Discharges—Secondary Potential at "Make"—The Telsa Coil—The High Tension Magnets.

Storage Battery Practice. By Robert Rankin.
180 pages, with numerous illus., $2.25.
A Practical Handbook on the manufacture and properties of Electric Accumulators and their installation and operation.

Electro-Technics, The Elements of. By A. P. Young, O.B.E., M.I.E.E.
250 pages, with 187 illus., $1.50.
This book explains in simple language the fundamentals of the Electrical Industry, and abounds with practical illustrations.

Transformers for Single and Multiphase Currents. Third Edition, thoroughly Revised. By Dr. Gisbert Kapp, M.Inst.C.E., M.I.E.E.
408 pages, 229 illus., $4.50.
The revision of the late Dr. Gisbert Kapp's book has been undertaken by his son, Mr. Reginald Kapp, who whilst adhering to the original plan of the author, has introduced examples to modify the theory where necessary to bring the work into conformity with present-day methods of transformer design. The book is particularly suited to the requirements of designers in the large manufacturing firms, constructing engineers, and students of electrical engineering.

Power Station Efficiency Control. By JOHN BRUCE, A.M.I.E.E.
257 pages, 75 illus., cloth, $3.75.

This book is intended chiefly for power station engineers, consulting engineers, and students of electrical engineering. It contains a résumé of modern methods of controlling the efficiency of electrical generating plant on the steam and electrical sides.

The Electrical Transmission of Photographs. By MARCUS J. MARTIN.
With 73 illus., cloth, $1.75.

To those interested in original work, and who possess the necessary skill, a study of this subject will prove most interesting, opening up as it does a large and as yet little explored field for original research. In a simple and concise form the Author presents the method of working of the various systems devised for the electrical transmission of photographs.

Electric Welding. By L. B. WILSON.
128 pages, with many illustrations, cloth, $1.50.

An up-to-date survey of present-day practice in electric welding intended for the use of operatives, and also for apprentices and students in mechanical engineering. All the present-day processes, viz., arc welding, resistance welding, cyc-arc welding, and percussion welding are dealt with in detail.

Pyrometers. By DR. EZER GRIFFITHS.
126 pages, 50 illus. and tables, cloth, $2.25.

The author is well known as one of the foremost authorities on the subject of Pyrometry. Power station engineers responsible for the management of temperature indicators and recorders, will find this an extremely useful book. Engineers in works and factories where drying ovens, heat treatment furnaces, or similar appliances are in use, will find advice on the selection of a suitable pyrometer for their particular requirements, together with instructions for the running and testing of instruments.

Oscillographs. By J. T. IRWIN. 162 pages, many illus., cloth, $2.25.

A concise treatise on the theory construction, and use of electro-magnetic, hot-wire, electrostatic and cathode ray oscillographs.

The Induction Motor in Theory, Design and Practice. By HERBERT VICKERS, Professor of Electrical Engineering, University of British Columbia.

322 pages, fully illustrated and many colored plates, cloth, $6.00.

This work deals with the latest developments in speed and power factor control.

"A thorough and complete textbook on all types of induction motors. It deals with the latest developments in speed and power-factor control and includes a modern treatment of the theory of induction motors and their applications,"—Electrical World (New York).

ENGINEERING CALCULATIONS

Electrical Educator. Edited by J. A. FLEMING, M.A., D.Sc., F.R.S.
VOL. I, 728 + xvi pages. VOL. II, 825 + xv pages. Cloth, gilt.
Per set of Two Vols., $17.50.

A highly valuable work for electricians, electrical engineers, contractors, and for those engaged on the commercial side of the electrical industry.

Alternating Currents, Arithmetic of. Containing 50 Worked Examples and 182 Exercises. By E. H. CRAPPER, M.I.E.E.
208 pages, with 45 illus., cloth, $1.35.

A companion volume to Whittaker's Arithmetic of Electrical Engineering (q.v.) and textbooks on Alternating and Polyphase Currents. To make the book as useful as possible, descriptive matter has been included in order that the student may study the subject intelligently.

"For those who are familiar with elementary mathematics, Arithmetic of Alternating Currents, by E. H. Crapper, will be found very valuable, as it describes in a thorough manner periodic and alternating currents; generation of alternating electromotive forces; inductances; inductive circuits; capacity and condensers; resistance; inductance and capacity in parallel; static transformers; induction motors, and transformation of currents."—Telegraph and Telephone Age (New York).

Dictionary of Electrical Terms. By S. R. ROGET.
303 pages, cloth, $2.25.

Up to the present no complete Electrical Dictionary has been compiled. The present book, which includes practically every electrical term (including those used in wireless telegraphy), will be of interest to every member of the electrical engineering profession.

The author's effort has been to explain rather than merely to define. As a result, the dictionary is an encyclopaedia in miniature. EVERY ELECTRICAL ENGINEER will find it a valuable investment. No STUDENT OF ELECTRICAL ENGINEERING can afford to be without it.

"A carefully prepared book which should prove of value to many."—Electrical Industries.

"The field covered embraces electric light, power and traction, telegraphy and telephony, including wireless, and other miscellaneous applications, as well as electricity and magnetism in general. The result is a compact volume, small enough for easy handling, which gives concise, intelligible definitions for between five and six thousand terms."—Mining and Metallurgy (New York).

Arithmetic of Telegraphy and Telephony. By T. E. HERBERT and R. G. DE WARDT. 187 + vii pages, with 38 illus., cloth, $1.50.

Students working through the book will not only acquire facility in making arithmetical calculations, but will also gain a good deal of information which will be useful to them in connection with their work. Answers to questions are given at the end of the book.

Experimental Mathematics. In two Books. By G. R. VINE, B.Sc.
Book I, with Answers, 64 pages, limp cloth, 45c.
Book II, with Answers, 72 pages, 45c.

Mathematical Tables. By W. E. DOMMETT, A.M.I.A.E., and H. C. HIRD, A.F.Ae.S. 88 pages, cloth $1.35.

SUMMARY OF CONTENTS: Logarithmic Tables—Trigonometrical Tables—General Mathematical Tables—Decimal Tables—Mensuration Tables.

Five-figure Logarithms and Trigonometrical Functions.
44 pages, cloth, 40c.

A reprint from Mathematical Tables.

Metric and British Systems of Weights, Measures, and Coinage. By Dr. F. Mollwo Perkin.
83 pages, with numerous illus., cloth, $1.00.

Quantities and Quantity Taking. New (Sixth) Edition. By W. E. Davis. 176 pages, cloth, $1.75.
A reliable Treatise for Architects, Surveyors, Builders, etc.

Metric Conversion Tables. By W. E. Dommett. 50 pages, cloth, 75c.
" The collection of 31 tables should be of service to the worker in science and to the engineer."— American Machinist.

Ventilation, Pumping, and Haulage, Mathematics of. By F. Birks.
222 pages, cloth, $1.50.

Trigonometry for Engineers, A Primer of. By W. G. Dunkley, B.Sc.
171 pages, with numerous diagrams, $1.50.
The aim of this book is to present the practical side of trigonometry in a manner which will prove useful to those engaged in engineering. With this purpose in view a large number of worked examples are given dealing with the application of simple trigonometry to engineering problems.

Gold Mine Accounts and Costing. By G. W. Tait.
93 pages, cloth, $1.50.

Mechanical Tables. Eleventh Impression. By J. Foden.
47 pages, 65c.
Showing the Diameters and Circumferences from 1 in. to upwards of 20 ft. in one-eighth inches, the Weight of a Lineal Foot of Rectangular Iron and of Round and Square Bar Iron of varying thicknesses and lengths, also Weights of Angle and Sheet Iron, and Weights and Strengths of Ropes and Chains.

Calculus, for Engineering Students. By John Stoney, B.Sc.
140 pages, illus., cloth, $1.00.
It is the practical side of the subject that is dealt with in the pages of this book. In them will be found sufficient to enable an engineer to understand and unravel most of the problems with which he will be confronted in the course of the mathematical part of his professional work and reading.

The Slide Rule: Its Operations, and Digit Rules. By A. Lovat Higgins, A.M.Inst.C.E. Waistcoat pocket size, 20c.

The Slide Rule. By C. N. Pickworth, Wh.Sc. With 29 illus., $1.00.
A Practical Manual.

Mechanical Engineering Detail Tables. By John P. Ross.
197 + xii pages, many designs, cloth, $2.25.
Forms a very complete handbook, covering most branches of Engineering. The drawings and tabular matter are clearly set out and so arranged that any desired data can be obtained immediately.

Mechanics for Engineering Students. By G. W. Bird, Wh.Ex., B.Sc., M.I.E.E. 142 pages, cloth, $1.50.
This book is one which will be found extremely useful by engineering students attending day or evening technical classes.

HEAT AND INTERNAL COMBUSTION ENGINES

Coil Ignition for Motor Cars. By C. SYLVESTER, A.M.I.E.E., A.M.I.Mech.E. 228 pages, with 106 illus., $3.00.

This book has been written principally for the chauffeur and owner-driver. After giving a brief outline of the fundamental principles of the subject, the Author proceeds to deal in detail with the various portions of the coil ignition system from a practical point of view, so that any faults can be detected and remedied with a minimum of trouble. Circuit diagrams of a large number of the coil ignition systems now in use form a valuable portion of the work.

Gas and Oil Engine Operation, including Gas Producers and Petrol Engines. By J. OKILL, M.I.A.E. 198 pages, 73 illus., cloth, $1.50.

This book is for the use of those who may not have had a technical training, and for students who have some knowledge of the theory of internal combustion engines.

Gas, Oil, and Petrol Engines, including Suction Gas Plant and Humphrey Pumps. By A. GARRARD, Wh.Ex. With 112 illus., $1.75.

In this book the Author has endeavoured to give a clear and reasoned description of the construction and operation of the various types of internal combustion engines. Representative examples have been dealt with, and the illustrations have been carefully selected and prepared.

Automobile and Aircraft Engines. A thoroughly revised and much enlarged edition of High-Speed Internal Combustion Engines. By A. W. JUDGE, A.R.C.S., A.M.I.A.E. Adopted by Yale University. 649 pages, with 324 illus. and 115 tables, $8.50.

The present volume is the outcome of an endeavor to collect and to classify, in as brief a form as possible, the more important information relating to the subject of High-speed Internal Combustion Engines, as viewed from the theoretical and experimental sides.

"The recent rapid development of the high-speed internal combustion engine has left the book literature of the subject somewhat in arrears; a British author here endeavors to remedy this situation with a work devoted exclusively to this type. He has selected the most important results, both theoretical and experimental, for careful analysis; has arranged these results and analyses in an orderly manner; and, realizing the influence of experimental work upon design, has added a chapter on the methods of measuring the pressures in the cylinders of high-speed engines. Other chapters deal with the conditions occurring in actual engines, the mechanics of the high-speed engine, and engine balance. The volume collects and classifies very important information that might not otherwise be readily available."—Scientific American (New York).

Magneto and Electric Ignition. New Edition, containing a chapter on "Recent Developments." By W. HIBBERT, A.M.I.E.E. 186 pages, with 95 illus., $1.00.

Explains the construction and action of the apparatus used for electric ignition.

ILLUMINATING ENGINEERING.

Gas Supply in Principles and Practice. By W. H. Y. WEBBER, C.E. 200 pages, with illustrations and plates, $1.25.

A simple guide for the gasfitter and gas consumer. The purpose of this work is to assist officers and workmen engaged in the practice of gas supply fitting, and will be found very useful by all users of gas.

Modern Illuminants and Illuminating Engineering. Second Edition, Revised. By LEON GASTER and J. S. Dow.
490 pages, with 213 illus., $7.00.

This book deals impartially with modern systems of lighting—gas, oil, electricity, and acetylene—and discusses their practical applications.

Low Temperature Distillation. (See page 88.)

Carburetor Handbook. A Book of Reference. By ERNEST W. KNOTT, A.M.I.A.E. 403 pages, illus., cloth, $3.00.

Essentially a practical handbook. The opening chapters explain the principles of carburation in a simple manner, and also the theory of the different types of carburetors now in use. Then follow complete descriptions of practically all important makes of carburetors which are in present-day use on motor-cars and motor-cycles in this country.

"Should be very helpful to those persons who want to make the most of their car on the least expenditure for gasoline."—Compressed Air Magazine (Easton, Pa.).

HYDRAULICS

Hydraulics. By E. H. LEWITT, B.Sc., A.M.I.Mech.E.
264 pages, 133 illus., cloth, $2.50.

This forms the first volume of the Engineering Degree Series, and covers the syllabuses of the London University and of the Institution of Civil Engineers in this subject.

"The task of the student is made as light as possible. The book is, in fact, quite the best we have seen on the subject so far as its particular purpose is concerned, and when we consider its very reasonable price we can have no hesitation in recommending it."—Electrical Review.

MECHANICS AND MECHANICAL ENGINEERING

Ball and Roller Bearings, Handbook of. By A. W. MACAULAY, A.M.I.Mech.E., with a Foreword by PROFESSOR GOODMAN.
About 400 pages, cloth, $3.75.

Is a simple exposition of present-day theories and practice containing descriptions of the various types of ball and roller bearings now in use, and full instructions for the selection, fitting, and maintenance of ball and roller bearings for a very large number of industrial purposes. It will prove of considerable use to designers of general engineering works, automobile engineers, makers of machine tools, colliery plant, rolling stock, cycles, sewing machines, and electric motors. The book contains an appendix on the gyroscopic action which takes place in ball and roller bearings.

Condensing Plant. By R. J. KÁULA and I. V. ROBINSON.
450 pages, 260 illus., cloth, $8.50.

A complete treatise on the design and operation of modern condensers and their auxiliary plant. The authors have had unique experience in the design of condensing plant, and have an exceptionally wide knowledge of all modern types. This book should be in the office of every engineer interested in the design of steam power plant.

Turbo-Blowers and Compressors. By W. J. KEARTON, A.M.I.Mech.E., A.M.Inst.N.A. 330 + xv pages, with 145 illus., cloth, $6.00.

This book covers the theory, design, construction, and testing of Turbo-Blowers, Compressors, and Exhausters. On account of the practical information which it contains, it will be found of great value to engineers and managers of iron and steel works, foundries, collieries, shipyards, sugar works, and other industrial works where large volumes of air have to be exhausted or compressed. Designers of exhausting and ventilating machinery, and of Diesel engines and aero engines will welcome the publication of this work, in which the subject receives the fullest treatment from both the theoretical and practical standpoints.

Friction Clutches. By R. WARING-BROWN.
132 pages, 75 illus., cloth, $1.50.
A handbook for Mechanical and Automobile engineers, designers, and students.

Fuel Economy in Steam Plants. By A. GROUNDS, B.Sc., A.I.C., A.M.I.Min.E. 120 pages, 13 illus., cloth, $1.50.
A treatise on the principles and practice of combustion for students, boiler attendants, and engineers in charge.

Mechanical Engineers' Pocket-Book. Third Edition, Entirely Rewritten. Edited by W. E. DOMMETT.
760 pages with 256 illus. and 175 tables, $3.75.
The whole of this work is the outcome of much care and thought, the result of many years' practical experience of a unique character. It may be asserted with confidence that never before have mechanical engineers had the opportunity presented to them of acquiring so much information of a practical nature compressed into so moderate a compass.

Mechanics' and Draughtsmen's Pocket-Book. New and Revised Edition. By W. E. DOMMETT, A.F.Ac.S., A.M.I.A.E., etc.
127 pages, numerous diagrams and illus., round corners, 75c.
"This is a handy book for the draughtsman's table. It contains 127 pages of engineering data constantly in demand by the man who is engaged in drawing plans and specifications. It shows how to solve equations using graphs; tapes and angles; mensuration; trigonometry coefficients of friction; wire gauges; specific gravity of various substances; weights of metal in various dimensions, etc."—Telegraph and Telephone Age (New York).

Fuel Oils and Their Applications. By H. V. MITCHELL, F.C.S.
171 pages, 49 illus., cloth, $1.50.
The aim of this book is to outline the principles involved in the selection, examination, and use of fuel oils for various power and heating applications ranging from steam raising and the heating of metallurgical furnaces to the production of power by internal combustion engines.
"A splendidly clear exposition of the science of oil burning. It is one of the books that should go into the library of every burner manufacturer, dealer and user—a careful, scholarly treatment of an important subject."—Fuel Oil (New York).

Steam Turbine Theory and Practice. Second Edition, Revised and Enlarged. By W. J. KEARTON, A.M.I.N.A. Adopted by the Lehigh University, Bethlehem, Pa., Pennsylvania State College, University of Cincinnati, Ohio, and University of Maine.
460 pages, 261 illus., 34 worked examples, and 84 with answers. Cloth, gilt, $4.50.
Suitable for students and designers of steam turbines. The first portion of the book deals with the theory of the subject, including all well-known types. The latter part of the book contains several examples from present-day practice, illustrating the various devices used for governing lubrication, blade fixing, and other details of paramount interest to designers and manufacturers.

MINERALOGY AND MINING

Low Temperature Distillation. By SYDNEY NORTH and J. B. GARBE. 223 pages, with 40 illus., cloth, $4.50.

A treatise for coal owners and users dealing with a Home oil supply and the utilization of "waste" coal.

This work will be of the greatest interest to gas engineers, combustion engineers, and others interested in the problem of the most economical methods of using coal, i.e. the extraction of the maximum amount of heat energy from the coal, together with the maximum of useful by-products. The book deals with practically every existing type of furnace for low temperature carbonization.

Colliery Electrical Engineering. By G. N. HARVEY, M.Sc., B.Eng., A.M.I.E.E. 400 pages, 153 illus., $4.50.

A treatise for mine-owners, managers, colliery engineers, and mining students.

Mineralogy. Fifth Edition, Revised, with Appendix. By F. H. HATCH, Ph.D., F.G.S., M.I.C.E., M.I.M.M. 258 pages, with 124 illus., $1.75.

Modern Practice of Coal-Mining. By D. BURNS, M.I.M.E., and G. L. KERR, M.I.M.E. With numerous illus.

Part I, Geology—Boring, $1.50.
Part II, Explosives and Blasting, $1.75.
Part III, Sinking and Fitting Shafts, $1.75.
Part IV, Drills and Drilling, $1.75.

Electric Mining Machinery. By SYDNEY F. WALKER, M.I.E.E. 387 pages, 132 illus., cloth, gilt, $4.50.

A treatise on the application of Electric Power to Mining Machinery. There are 46 chapters in this work, beginning at prime movers and ending with chapters on Signalling, Telephony, Shot-firing, etc., so that it embraces every branch of Mining now available for the introduction of Electrical Machinery. The book will be found very comprehensive and complete, and should prove indispensable for the library of the engineer.

"This is an able effort to put in the hands of the engineer comprehensive knowledge of modern mining problems and the way in which the electrical engineer is solving them."—Scientific American (New York).

Compressed Air Power. By A. W. and Z. W. DAW. 375 pages, with 75 illus., 40 tables, and numerous worked-out examples, $6.00.

A Treatise on the development and transmission of power by compressed air for engineers and draughtsmen and students of applied science.

Blasting with High Explosives. By W. GERARD BOULTON, M.I.M.E. 116 pages, with 40 illus., cloth, $1.50.

Principally intended for mining and quarry engineers and all interested in demolitions.

The Mining Educator. Edited by JOHN ROBERTS, D.I.C., M.I.Min.E., F.G.S. 1,440 pages, illustrated, Two Vols., cloth, gilt, $17.50.

A complete work for study and reference, covering the whole field of Mining, but with special reference to Coal Mining. It is specially recommended to those wishing to sit for the fireman's certificate, the colliery under-manager's and manager's certificates, and similar examinations. It contains lessons on all mining subjects, and special articles by eminent scientists and mining engineers.

METALLURGY AND METAL WORK

Ball and Roller Bearings, Handbook of. By A. W. MACAULAY, A.M.I.Mech.E., with a Foreword by PROFESSOR GOODMAN.
About 400 pages, cloth, $3.75.

Is a simple exposition of present-day theories and practice containing descriptions of the various types of ball and roller bearings now in use, and full instructions for the selection, fitting, and maintenance of ball and roller bearings for a very large number of industrial purposes. The book contains an appendix on the gyroscopic action which takes place in ball and roller bearings.

Metallurgy of Cast Iron. By J. E. HURST. 200 pages, cloth, $4.50.

A complete treatise, dealing with the production and composition of cast iron, with very full details as to the physical properties and chemical composition of the many grades of cast iron which are now used by engineers and others.

"It can be said at once that the author has produced a very useful book."—The Engineer.

Electric Welding. By L. B. WILSON.
128 pages, with many illustrations, $1.50.

An up-to-date survey of current practice in electric welding. All the present-day processes, viz., arc welding, resistance welding, cyc-arc welding, and percussion welding are dealt with in detail.

Steel Works Analysis. Fourth Edition, Revised and Enlarged. By J. O. ARNOLD, F.R.S., and F. IBBOTSON.
468 pages, with 22 illus. and diagrams, $3.75.

A Practical Handbook for Engineers and Metallurgists.

Practical Sheet and Plate Metal Work. Second Edition, Revised and Enlarged. By E. A. ATKINS, A.M.I.M.E. Adopted by the New York Board of Education.
545 pages, with 450 illus., $2.25.

For the use of Boilermakers, Braziers, Coppersmiths, Ironworkers, Plumbers, Metal and Zincworkers, Smiths, etc.

ABBREVIATED CONTENTS: Introductory—Elbows for Round Pipes—Tee Pieces—Pipe Bends in Segments—Pipe Elbows—Hoods—Tapered Articles—Pan Corners—Trunks, Boxes, etc.—Conical Articles—Baths—Elliptical Work—Roofing Work—Ventilators—Hollowed Articles—Solid Pans—Spouts—Handles—Vases—Plater's Work—Sheet Metal Joints—Riveted Joints—Metals and their Properties—Metal-Working Machines and Tools—Annealing, Welding etc.

Electric Arc and Oxy-Acetylene Welding. By E. A. ATKINS.
324 pp., 151 illus., cloth, $2.25.

"A very complete manual on methods, equipment and materials, and on the welding of various metals. Gives the results of many tests and experiments."—Mechanical Engineering (New York).

Pattern Making, The Principles of. Fifth Edition. By J. HORNER, A.M.I.M.E. Illus. with 101 engravings and containing a Glossary and the Common Terms employed in Pattern Making and Moulding.
180 pages, $1.25.

CONTENTS: First Principles and Materials—Tools—Joints for Moulding—Constructional Joints—An Engine Cylinder—Gear Wheels, Patterns—Gear Wheels, Moulded—Miscellaneous Examples—Pattern Turning—Index.

Metal Turning. Fourth Edition, almost entirely re-written and greatly enlarged. By J. HORNER. 290 pages, with 159 illus., $1.75.

CONTENTS: The Lathe—Tools and Tool Angles—Chucks—Chucking—General Remarks on Turning—Hand Turning—Slide Rest Turning—Boring—Screw Cutting, etc.

Fitting, The Principles of. Fourth Edition, Revised and Enlarged. By J. HORNER.

426 pages, with 350 illus., and an Appendix of Useful Shop Notes and Memoranda, $2.25.

For Engineers, Apprentices, and Students.

CONTENTS: Tools—Materials—Lining Out—Templets and Jigs—Chipping, Filing, and Drifting—Adjustments—Slinging and Lifting—Repairs—Joints and Packing—Keys, Cottars, Pins, and Case-hardening—Screws, Bolts, and Nuts—Measurement—Gears, Shafting, Belts, and Ropes—Fitting and Erecting Shops—Useful Tables, Notes, and Rules—Index.

Workshop Gauges. By L. BURN and G. F. F. EAGAR.

154 pages, 71 illus., 20 tables, cloth, $1.50.

An exposition of the various types of gauges now in use in engineering works, for skilled mechanics, boiler makers, and chemical engineers.

Engineering Workshop Exercises. With a chapter on "Screw Cutting and Notes on Materials." By ERNEST PULL, A.M.I.Mech.E., M.I.Mar.E. With 37 illus., $1.00.

Intended to provide a series of exercises in engineering workshop practice, which will bring into use the various tools and appliances used in the ordinary engineering workshop.

Files and Filing. From the French "La Lime," by CH. FREMONT. Translated under the supervision of GEORGE TAYLOR.

148 pages, 221 illus., $6.00.

A book of memoirs, as these prepared by M. Fremont on Tools are most suggestive, as well as instructive, both in the practical and academic sense.

Turret Lathe Tools: How to Lay Out. Second Edition.

Medium 8vo, with 166 illus., $1.75.

Metal Workers' Practical Calculator. By J. MATHESON. 68 pages, 60c.

A simple exposition intended for the use of blacksmiths, sheet metal workers, fitters and turners, boiler makers, and shipyard workers. It explains in simple language how to calculate the amount of metal required for various processes. This is a subject which often proves troublesome to craftsmen whose knowledge of mathematical processes may not be very advanced.

Metal Work. Teachers' Handbook of Manual Training. Second Impression. By J. S. MILLER, late Organizer and Instructor of Metal Work to the Reading Education Committee.

Demy 8vo, with diagrams and illus., $1.25.

Comprising demonstration lessons of all tools and principles used in a manual training centre, with plan and cost of equipment, etc., of a model centre.

Practical Ironfounding. Fourth Edition, thoroughly Revised and Enlarged. By the same Author. 409 pages, with 283 illus., $3.00.

This book is written both for the student and practical man. The principles are clearly explained and the most recent practice is included, particularly as it relates to machine moulding and the melting of iron.

Modern Milling. By ERNEST PULL, A.M.I.Mech.E.

A Practical Manual on Milling Machines, Milling Accessories, and Milling Operations, for the use of Engineers, Milling Operators, Practical Mechanics, and Engineering Students. The wide range of operations, the increase of output, and the more general use of milling for repetition and special work, have placed this class of machine in such a prominent position that the ambitious mechanic would do well to make a special study of its design and use.

CONSTRUCTIONAL ENGINEERING

Theory of Structures. By H. W. COULTAS, M.Sc., B.Sc., A.M.I.Struc.E., A.I.Mech.E.
350 pages, 198 illus., cloth, $4.50.

CONTENTS.—Beams with Dead Loads—Theory of Simple Bending and Moments of Inertia—Deflection of Simple Beams under Dead Loads—Built-in and Continuous Beams with Dead Loads—Beams: Distribution of Shear Stress—Columns—Framed Structures with Dead Loads—Deflection of Perfect Frames Under Dead Loads—Stresses in Redundant Frames, with Dead Loads and the Principle of Least Work—Beams and Frames with Live Loads—Three-Pinned Metal Arches, Ribs, and Suspension Bridges—Principal Stresses—Retaining Walls—Reinforced Beams.

Reinforced Concrete, Detail Design in. By EWART S. ANDREWS, B.Sc.
80 pages, with numerous illus., cloth, gilt, $1.75.

CONTENTS: Design of Floor of a Workshop Building—General Points and Slab Reinforcements—Design of Floor of a Workshop Building: Secondary Beams—Design of Floor of a Workshop Building: Main Beams—Design of Pillars for a Workshop Building—Design of Footings for Pillar—Design of Retaining Walls.

Reinforced Concrete. By W. NOBLE TWELVETREES, M.I.M.E. M.Soc.C.E. (France), etc.
264 pages, with 109 diagrams and 14 tables, cloth, $6.00.

A Foreword, on the Standard Notation for Engineering Formulae, has been written by E. FIANDER ETCHELLS, President of the Concrete Institute. This Notation has been employed throughout the book, which is at present the only one in the English language embodying the improved notation. The book also contains an exhaustive list of formulae relating to the design of reinforced concrete members.

Reinforced Concrete Members, Simplified Methods of Calculating. Second Edition, Revised and Enlarged. By W. NOBLE TWELVETREES.
With numerous tables and labour-saving diagrams, cloth, $1.50.

MARINE ENGINEERING, Etc.

Marine Screw Propellers, Detail Design of. By DOUGLAS H. JACKSON, M.I.Mar.E.
92 pages, with 26 illus., 6 diagrams, folding plates, and 9 tables, cloth, gilt, $1.75.

A Textbook for Draughtsmen and Students.

"The author . . . here presents, in small compass, an outline of the accepted theories, a full treatment of the practical application of them, and a short description of the various manufacturing methods."—Engineering Review.

Marine Engineers, Practical Advice for. Second Edition, entirely re-written and revised. By CHARLES W. ROBERTS, M.I.M.E.
206 pages, with 82 illus., $1.50.

The purpose of this book is to place together a few practical hints regarding the Management of Marine Engines and Boilers. It should be especially welcome to Junior Engineers in assisting them to grasp the general ideas which should govern the Management of Steamship Machinery.

TELEGRAPHY, TELEPHONY, AND WIRELESS

(See also "Technical Primer Series.")

Accumulator Charging, Maintenance, and Repair. By W. S. IBBETSON, B.Sc., A.M.I.E.E., M.I.Mar.E.
120 pages, with 32 diagrams, cloth, $1.00.

Intended for the use of all interested in the charging and upkeep of accumulators for wireless work, motor-car lighting and starting equipment, and country house lighting plant.

Wireless Telegraphy and Telephony, Introduction to. By PROFESSOR J. A. FLEMING. 120 pages, illus., cloth, $1.00.

Intended for the general reader, i.e. the "listener in," who takes more than a casual interest in wireless. Professor Fleming gives a brief sketch of the general principles of wireless telegraphy and telephony as at present operated.

"A remarkably useful and carefully prepared book."—The Broadcaster.

Elementary Telegraphy. By H. W. PENDRY, Central Telegraph Office, London. With 178 illus., $2.25.

A Manual for Students. Contains descriptions of the latest pattern instruments and a full account of the Central Battery developments.

Telegraphy. Fourth Edition, Enlarged and Revised. By T. E. HERBERT, A.M.I.E.E., Engineer of Postal Telegraphs.
1019 pages, with 640 illustrations, $5.00.

A Detailed Exposition of the Telegraph System of the British Post Office. Full and detailed accounts are given of secondary cells and the secondary-cell system of working telegraph circuits, the Hughes system, the Murray automatic system, Baudôt system, Wheatstone A B C, and Steljes recorder, superimposing, the construction and testing of aerial and underground lines, etc.

Telephony. By T. E. HERBERT, M.I.E.E.
884 pages, with 618 illus., cloth, $5.00.

The earlier chapters contain the essential principles of magnetism and electricity together with the methods of measurement and the calculations required for the proper appreciation of the purely telephone technology which follows. The final chapter on the Thermionic Triode has been written on account of the enormously important part which it is destined to play in all future telephone engineering.

Arithmetic of Telegraphy and Telephony. (See Engineering Calculations.)

Practical Telephone Handbook and Guide to the Telephone Exchange. Seventh Edition, thoroughly Revised and Enlarged. By JOSEPH POOLE, E.M.I.E.E. 872 pages, with 684 illus., $5.50.

A Textbook for Students of Telephony and a useful Handbook for Operators.

This book contains an up-to-date description, for readers in all branches of the telephone service, including latest common battery and trunking practice, both manual and automatic, aerial and underground line construction and loading, wireless and multiplex systems, traffic, exchange, design, etc., etc.

It is officially recommended as a textbook for the City and Guilds of London Institute Examination in Telephony.

Wireless Telegraphy. Second Edition. By W. H. MARCHANT.
201 illus., cloth, $2.25.

A Practical Handbook for the Use of Operators and Students. This book is intended primarily for the use of those engaged in the practical operation of Radio-Telegraph installations, and for students who already possess some knowledge of electrical science.

The Director System of Automatic Telephony. By W. E. HUDSON, B.Sc. 160 + xii pages, 155 illus., $1.50.

This book is intended for all concerned with the working of automatic telephones, and for students of telephony.

Ionic Valve, Guide to the Study of. Showing its Development and Application to Wireless Telegraphy and Telephony. By WM. D. OWEN, A.M.I.E.E. 5 by 7½ in., 65 pages, 12 diagrams, cloth, 75c.
Is a carefully prepared résumé of the whole valve situation.

See also Technical Primer Series.

FOREIGN LANGUAGES FOR ENGINEERS, Etc.

A Railway Technical Vocabulary. By L. SERRAILLIER. Comprising over 5,000 French, English, and American technical expressions relating to Railway Management. 220 pages, cloth, $2.25.

Dictionary of Commercial Correspondence in Seven Languages. New Edition, Enlarged and thoroughly Revised.
718 pages, cloth, gilt, $3.50.
Thousands of expressions used in Commercial Correspondence are given in this work in English, French, German, Italian, Portuguese, Spanish, and Russian, and many of the terms are not to be found in ordinary dictionaries.

English-Spanish Commercial Terms. By R. D. MONTEVERDE, B.A. Together with Weights and Measures for the use of Schools and for Self-Instruction. 120 pages, $1.00.

Naval Dictionary: Italian-English and English-Italian. By W. T. DAVIS. 4½ by 6 in., 356 pages, cloth, $3.00.
A dictionary of naval and mercantile ship and marine engineering words and phrases.

Dictionary of the Portuguese and English Languages, A New. By H. MICHAELIS. Portuguese-English and English-Portuguese. Each volume sold separately. In 2 vols., cloth, $6.00 each.
Enriched by a great number of technical terms used in Commerce, Industry, Arts and Sciences, and including a great variety of expressions from the language of daily life, based on a MS. of JULIUS CORNET.

PHOTOGRAPHY, OPTICS AND LIGHT

A practical handbook explaining modern methods and appliances for the production of high-grade commercial photographs.
"New books on commercial photography are always welcome, especially since so little of value has been published on the subject in book form, and since those few books are already out of print. The rapid rise to the fore that commercial photography has enjoyed in the last few years has caused many a portrait and amateur photographer to consider seriously this field, and Mr. Charles' effort is therefore particularly timely. He is a practical worker and 'knows his stuff' as the saying goes, and is also well equipped to put his ideas on paper. Knowing how speedily even comparatively large editions of books on commercial photography have been sold out in the past, we advise those of our readers who want this one to order immediately."—The Commercial Photographer (Cleveland, Ohio).

Retouching and Finishing for Photographers. By D. SPENCER ADAMSON.
137 pages, with 8 full-page plates and 16 other illustrations, $1.25.
A practical handbook of the highest value to professional photographers, keen amateurs and those who specialize in photographic retouching. The book is generously illustrated by line sketches showing the methods of working, and half-tone reproductions of actual photographs before and after retouching, beautifully printed on art paper.

Photographic Chemicals and Chemistry. By T. L. J. BENTLEY and J. SOUTHWORTH. 124 pages, cloth, $1.50.

"This work will be very valuable to many a photographer who has been prone to go through the various photographic processes with little or no actual knowledge of what he is actually doing and why. For this reason it should find favour, particularly since there is no modern and up-to-date work which discusses photographic chemistry without involving the reader in a mass of technicalities which speedily leave him at sea."—The Commercial Photographer (Cleveland, Ohio).

Camera Lenses. A useful Handbook for the Amateur and Professional. By ARTHUR W. LOCKETT.

About 108 pages, 100 illus. and diagrams, 75c.

"Explains simply and clearly, yet with scientific accuracy, all the underlying principles involved in lenses . . . contains good sound information not only for the novice but also for the expert."—The Camera.

Lens Work for Amateurs. By H. ORFORD.

With numerous illus., $1.00.

CONTENTS: A Lens Defined—Tools—Systems of Lenses—Mounting Diamonds for Turning—Making Patterns—Eyepieces—Illuminators—Microscopes—Prism Work—Mounting Lenses—Testing Lens Systems—Index.

The Optics of Photography and Photographic Lenses. Third Edition, Revised and Enlarged. By J. TRAILL TAYLOR. With a New Chapter on Anastigmatic Lenses, by P. F. EVERITT.

270 pages, with 98 illus., $1.25.

"An excellent guide, of great practical use."—Nature.

Photographic Technique, A Manual of. (Technical Primer Series.) Describing Apparatus, Materials, and the Details of Procedure. By L. J. HIBBERT. 118 pages, illustrated, cloth, 85c.

PHYSICS AND CHEMISTRY

Electricity and Magnetism, First Book of. Fourth Edition. By W. PERREN MAYCOCK, M.I.E.E. A first-class book for students.

351 pages, with 162 illus., $1.75.

"Is a work which constitutes a thorough course in elementary electrical engineering. The book is pocket size and contains 351 pages, covering in an instructive manner all of the principles concerned in the design and operation of electrical instruments. One specially valuable feature of the book is a section on electrical experiments, which enables the student to develop and prove the theories discussed throughout the text of the work."—Telegraph and Telephone Age (New York).

Engineering Science, A Primer of. By EWART S. ANDREWS, B.Sc. (Eng.). 95 pages, with numerous illus. and numerical examples, cloth, $1.00.

An introductory textbook for engineering apprentices and students in technical institutes and schools.

"A useful book giving the student a good elementary grounding in mechanics and best from the standpoint of the engineer."—Mechanical World.

Chemical Engineering, An Introduction to. By A. F. ALLEN, B.Sc. (Hons.), F.C.S., LL.B. 280 pages, cloth, with 177 illus., $3.00.

An Elementary Textbook for students of Chemical Machinery.

CONTENTS: Crushing and Grinding Machinery—Separating and Mixing Machinery—Filtering Apparatus—Dryers and Evaporators—Distilling Apparatus—Water Treatment Plant—The Control of Temperature—Transport—Appendix.

Volumetric Analysis. Second Edition thoroughly Revised. By JOHN B. COPPOCK, B.Sc., F.D.C. 100 pages, with 7 figures, cloth, $1.00.

A First Course Book of Chemistry. By A. COULTHARD, B.Sc.
156 pages, 89 diagrams, 85c.

This work deals with practical chemistry in such a way that it can be used both as a laboratory book and as a textbook for the lecture room.

PITMAN'S TEXTILE MANUFACTURE, Etc.

Artificial Silk and Its Manufacture. Third Edition, Revised and Enlarged. By JOSEPH FOLTZER. Translated from the French by T. WOODHOUSE. 266 pages, 117 illus., cloth, gilt, $5.50.

The manufacture (spinning or drawing) of artificial silk yarns is explained and illustrated very fully. In addition to the translation and in order to make the book more complete, the author has written some very interesting papers on the production of artificial ribbon, lace, cloth, leather, and the like.

"The book is invaluable alike to those connected with the textile industry and for research students and others in chemical and physical laboratories."—American Silk Journal (New York).

Flax Culture and Preparation. By Professor F. BRADBURY, Professor of Textile Industries, Municipal Technical Institute, Belfast.
170 pages, with 91 illus., cloth, $3.00.

A concise and complete description of the process of flax cultivation, from the selection of the seed to the preparation of flax for the market.

Contains many specially prepared illustrations of methods and procedure in the processes of growing and preparing flax, together with diagrams of machines used for them.

Furs and Furriery. By C. J. ROSENBERG.
Size 7 by 9¾ in. 357 pages, with 183 illustrations, cloth, $8.00.

A practical work on furs and the fur trade, and the making-up of fur garments.

"This excellent work will prove to be of unusual interest and value to the practical furrier. It is profusely illustrated, and goes into the practical end of the fur industry in a most thorough and illuminating manner. It fills a long-felt want, and should prove invaluable to manufacturers, designers, workers, and students. It is one of the few practical books on the furriers' trade, and is quite up to date."—Fur Trade Review (New York).

Union Textile Fabrication. By ROBERTS BEAUMONT, M.Sc., M.I.Mech.E., Textile Expert and Investigator.
376 pages, with 204 original diagrams, sectional drawings, and photographic reproductions and 25 tables, cloth, $6.00.

Exceptional care has been expended in the preparation of this work, the requirements of the practitioner, the manufacturer, and the investigator having been kept in view. The subject matter is divided into three sections—I.—Bi-fibred Manufactures; II.—Compound Yarn Fabrics; III.—Woven Unions.

Dress, Blouse, and Costume Cloths. Design and Fabric Manufacture. By ROBERTS BEAUMONT, M.Sc., M.I.Mech.E., and WALTER G. HILL.
579 pages, 700 illus., in monochrome and color, $12.00.

A complete exposition of the designing of the various fabrics covered by the title for students, manufacturers. designers, and experts.

Hosiery Manufacture. By W. DAVIS, M.A.
136 pages, with 61 illus., including many original photo-micrographs, cloth, $2.25.

"It is a pleasure to review this new book on loop fabrics. . . . The volume is equally valuable to those interested in hosiery, underwear, sweater, or other knit goods manufactured on all types of machines."—Textile World (New York).

Textile Calculations. By J. H. WHITWAM, B.Sc.
438 pages, with 186 diagrams, cloth, $7.50.

A work dealing with the arithmetical and geometrical principles underlying the calculations in textile production, and the calculations in the running and output of textile machinery.

Color in Woven Design. By ROBERTS BEAUMONT, M.Sc., M.I.Mech.E., Professor of Textile Industries, University of Leeds.
372 pages, with 39 colored plates and 285 illus., $6.00.

A Treatise on the Science and Technology of Textile Coloring in Woollen, Worsted, Cotton, and Silk Materials. Second Edition, Revised and Enlarged.

Weaving and Manufacturing, Handbook of. By H. GREENWOOD, Head of the Textile Department, Municipal Technical School, Bury.
128 pages, 25 illustrations, cloth, $1.50.

A complete work of reference for practical weavers containing all the information likely to be required in everyday practice.

Wool Substitutes. By ROBERTS BEAUMONT.
190 pages, with 56 illus., cloth, $3.00.

Deals with the manufacture and use of the various substitutes for wool in a manner which will particularly appeal to manufacturers.

Woollen Yarn Production. By T. LAWSON. 142 pages, cloth, $1.00.

This book deals with the whole process of making woollen yarns of every grade, from the shearing of the sheep up to the finished product. It contains useful information regarding the selection and treatment of the fleece, and methods of blending, as well as the purely mechanical processes through which wool is passed in being changed into yarn.

Yarns and Fabrics, Testing of. By H. P. CURTIS, Member of Council of Textile Institute. 168 pages, illustrated, cloth, $1.50.

An invaluable book for every one who is engaged either on the practical or commercial side of the Textile Industries.

REFRIGERATION

Cold Storage and Ice Making. By B. H. SPRINGETT.
122 pages, 17 tables and 17 illus., cloth, $1.00.

Mechanical Refrigeration. New Third Edition, Revised and Enlarged. By HAL WILLIAMS. 511 pages, cloth, $6.00.

An up to date survey of modern practice in Refrigeration. The earlier edition of Mr. Williams' book is well known to refrigeration engineers. It is intended for refrigeration engineers, dock officials, wholesalemen, manufacturers of refrigeration machines, and others.

ARCHITECTURE, SURVEYING, BUILDING, Etc.

Architectural Hygiene; or, Sanitary Science as Applied to Buildings. Fifth Edition, Revised. By SIR BANISTER F. FLETCHER and H. PHILLIPS FLETCHER. 284 pages, 306 illus., cloth, $3.00.

A Textbook for Architects, Surveyors, Engineers, Medical Officers of Health, Sanitary Inspectors, and Students.

Water Color Painting, The Technique of. By L. RICHMOND, R.B.A., and J. LITTLEJOHNS, R.B.A., Authors of "The Art of Painting in Pastel." Size 11 in. by 8¾ in., cloth, gilt, with 32 full-page colored plates, $6.00.

This new book has met with the unqualified praise of artists, art teachers, architects, and students, as well as the Art Press. The following are a few extracts—

"Messrs. Richmond and Littlejohn's book which concerns only the craft of the water colorist is a repertory of experiment well illustrated by color plates. . . . The survey is thorough and to a water-colorist who has already achieved with reasonable proficiency personal habits, the book should usefully serve the purpose of a first-aid kit."—The Saturday Review of Literature (New York).

Field Manual of Survey Methods and Operations. By A. Lovat Higgins, A.M.I.C.E. 938 pages, with 424 illus., cloth, gilt, $6.00.

This volume covers all the requirements of engineers and surveyors practising in the United Kingdom and the Colonies, and treats various methods peculiar to the United States, the text being interspersed with a number of common synonyms.

"A very practical treatise of surveying methods and operations."—New York Times.

Water Mains, Lay-Out of Small. By H. H. Hellins. 16 diagrams and 8 inset tables, cloth, $2.25.

A volume of notes and tables dealing with various problems in simple, compound, double, and ring mains.

Waterworks for Urban and Rural Districts. By H. C. Adams. 240 pages, with 115 illus., and 3 folding plates, cloth, $4.50.

Surveying and Surveying Instruments. Second Edition, Revised. By G. A. T. Middleton, A.R.I.B.A., M.S.A. 176 pages, with 56 illus., $1.75.

Surveying, Tutorial Land and Mine. By Thomas Bryson. 193 pages, cloth, $3.00.

This work will be found of special use to students of mining engineering. The treatment is, however, such that it will also be found suitable for use by students in other branches of civil engineering.

Carpentry and Joinery. New Edition, Revised and Enlarged. By Sir Banister F. Fletcher, F.R.I.B.A., and H. Phillips Fletcher, F.R.I.B.A. 324 pages, with 500 illus., $3.00.

A textbook for Architects, Engineers, Surveyors, Craftsmen, and Students.

PITMAN'S TECHNICAL PRIMERS

Edited by R. E. NEALE, B.Sc. (Hons.), A.C.G.I., A.M.I.E.E.

Each 4 by 6¼ in., about 120 pages, illustrated, cloth, 85c.

This series of Technical Primers is intended to enable the reader to obtain the very necessary foundation of a clear appreciation of first principles and basic facts in any particular branch of technology. Each author, who is in every case an expert in the branch of industry, engineering, or science concerned, has endeavored to present a sound technical survey of fundamental facts, principles, equipment, and practice.

Such a treatment of individual subjects is invaluable to students, apprentices, foremen, charge hands, and craftsmen; and many volumes will be useful to engineers in practice and to commercial managers and works managers of industrial concerns.

MISCELLANEOUS

Wonders of Electricity, The. By A. T. MCDOUGALL.
180 pages, fully illus., cloth, 75c.

Dictionary of Electrical Terms. By S. R. ROGET.
303 pages, cloth, $2.25.

Up to the present no complete Electrical Dictionary has been compiled. The present book, which includes practically every electrical term (including those used in wireless telegraphy), will be of interest to every member of the electrical engineering profession.

The author's effort has been to explain rather than merely to define. As a result, the dictionary is an encyclopaedia in miniature. EVERY ELECTRICAL ENGINEER will find it a valuable investment. No STUDENT OF ELECTRICAL ENGINEERING can afford to be without it.

"A carefully prepared book which should prove of value to many."—Electrical Industries.

Printing: Its History, Practice, and Progress. By H. A. MADDOX.
160 pages, 45 illus., cloth, $1.50.

Among the many books on Printing there appears to be a need for a compact work particularly adapted to the requirements of the general reader, the printing student, the advertising specialist, and those who aspire to the higher administrative positions in the printing world where a good working knowledge of the all-round technique of the trade is a necessity. The aim of the author has been to produce such a book and, while rendering it as thoroughly practical as possible, to avoid too exhaustive an inquiry into the higher technicalities of printing and particularly its mechanics. Recent innovations have provided the author with an opportunity to place before his readers the later developments in the art and practice of printing.

"Gives an exceptionally good brief history of printing, and in its explanations of machines and processes it is very up to date and clear... the book can be a very real help."—The Printing Art (Cambridge, Mass.).

Automatic Pistols. By Major HUGH B. C. POLLARD, Author of "Shot Guns." 110 pages, with 72 illus. and numerous tables, cloth, $1.75.

"We heartily endorse Major Pollard's remarks on shooting, and agree with him when he says that he believes that his views in the main are shared by all expert shots and shooting men.... The technical explanations of mechanism are on the whole able and sound.... The tables showing the comparative ballistics of the different makes are most interesting."—The Field (London).

Publications of Isaac Pitman & Sons

Brewing and Malting. By J. Ross Mackenzie.
143 pages, 137 illus., cloth, $2.50.
An interesting and concise description of the general scientific principles upon which the practice of modern brewing and malting is based, together with particulars of the various manufacturing processes.

English for Technical Students. By F. F. Potter, M.A., B.Sc.
110 pages, cloth, 60c.
A most interesting and useful book teaching how to write free and correct English, especially with reference to scientific subjects.

The Ceramic Industries Pocket Book. By A. B. Searle. Adopted by the Pennsylvania State College.
7 by 4 in., 267 pages, with 68 diagrams, cloth, rounded corners, $2.50.
A reference book for those engaged in the clay-working, glass, and allied trades.

Shot-guns, Their History and Development. By Major Hugh B. C. Pollard, Author of "Automatic Pistols."
120 pages, illus., cloth, $1.75.
This book is one which will be read by sportsmen and practical gunmakers all over the world. It commences with a brief historical sketch, in which the various types of firearms are described.

Music Engraving and Printing. Historical and Technical Treatise. By William Gamble. 278 pages, cloth, $6.00.
This instructive book has a very practical importance, as it stimulates such an interest in the methods of music printing that the craft will be raised to a higher level and the work will thus be prevented from ever again falling into foreign hands. The author traces musical notation from the earliest known examples and shows the rise and progress of music engraving and printing. The book will be found to be of immense practical value.

Lightning Conductors and Lightning Guards. By Sir Oliver J. Lodge, F.R.S., LL.D., D.Sc., M.I.E.E., Principal of Birmingham University.
With numerous illus., cloth. $4.50.
A Treatise on the Protection of Buildings, of Telegraph Instruments and Submarine Cables and of Electric Installations generally from Damage by Atmosphere Discharges.

Refractories for Furnaces, Crucibles, Etc. By A. B. Searle. Adopted by the University of West Virginia.
180 pages, with illus. and tables, cloth, $1.50.
A guide for manufacturers and others who employ heat in the process of production.

German Grammar for Science Students. Third Edition. By W. A. Osborne and E. E. Osborne. 114 pages, cloth, 85c.
Written to enable students to read scientific articles and treatise published in the German language.

You can order from your nearest bookseller any of the books listed in this catalogue, or they will be sent post paid on receipt of price by the publishers.

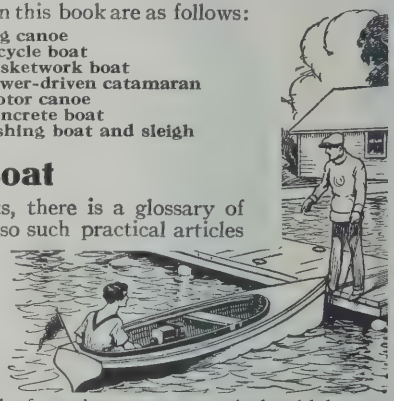
Build Your Own Boat

How to Make 21 Kinds

Everyone who enjoys the water should have this book. It is a book for those who want to make their own boats and for those who do not. It tells both how to make boats and how to sail them.

The kinds of boats you can make by following directions in this book are as follows:

Motor boat
Paddle-wheel boat
Portable folding boat
Paper boat
Hydroplane catamaran
Steel boat
Pile-driver punt
House boat
Cruising catamaran
Long Island Scooter
Sea Gull (sailboat)
Canoe
Sailing canoe
Fast 19-ft. runabout
Log canoe
Bicycle boat
Basketwork boat
Power-driven catamaran
Motor canoe
Concrete boat
Fishing boat and sleigh



Learn How to Sail a Boat

Besides telling how to make these various kinds of boats, there is a glossary of nautical terms that will be worth a great deal. There are also such practical articles as the following:

Float mooring
Boat dump
Anchors for boat landing
How to tow a canoe
Bumper for boat landing
Canoe transport
Hanger for oars
Auto-trailer boat truck
Submarine mirror
Portable boat landing
Rod anchor

Boating is one of the most enjoyable and most healthful of outdoor sports, and should be encouraged. This book will prove to be one of the best you can get on the subject. Every article is practical and easy to follow.

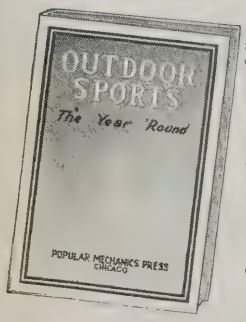
Outdoor Sports the Year Round



This is a book made up of 226 clearly-written and concise articles on how to make equipment for new and popular sports. These articles are illustrated with 317 pictures. Each article tells how to make some device or how to conduct some outdoor game. Inasmuch as outdoor recreation is not only popular but most healthful, this has proved to be one of our most popular books. As a slight indication of the contents of the book, consider the following list into which most of the 226 articles may be classified:

Baseball
Boats
Boomerangs Camping
Canoes
Dog cart
Electric automobiles
Esquimau snow houses

A Goldmine of Discoveries for Lathe Operators

There are 259 discoveries made by 106 lathe operators in this and many foreign countries, combined in Popular Mechanics Lathe Handbook. Almost every emergency that may arise is considered. It is a book for

Shop Owners	Experimenters	Lathe Operators	Amateurs
Foremen	Teachers	Auto Mechanics	Students

In fact, everyone interested in shop work should have it.

The Result of Seven Years' Work

Every now and then you discover a new way to do some lathe job. Probably it is an unusual job that requires a special dog, a different kind of center, or a specially designed gauge. Other lathe operators are making similar discoveries. For seven years, the editors of Popular Mechanics Press have been collecting such discoveries, and now the best of those secured are offered to the lathe operators of the world in this handbook.

YOU NEED THESE 259 DISCOVERIES

Just what is the nature of the discoveries revealed in this wonderful book? They may be classified as follows:

83 on special lathe tools and attachments
23 on special devices for holding work
28 on boring and drilling in the lathe
11 on thread cutting in the lathe
29 telling how to do unusual jobs
32 on miscellaneous lathe kinks
33 on gauges and indicators
20 on special lathe centers

The Greatest Source of Ideas for Lathe Operators

The man who advances is the man who has ideas. It matters not whether his ideas are original. But they must be of value in the work he has to do. With 249 practical ideas for lathe work at your finger tips, you are prepared to take your place as the most useful man in your shop. The Lathe Book here described places these ideas at your disposal. It gives you the opportunity to forge ahead in ability, in usefulness, and in salary. Price, 50 Cents.

Wood-Working for Amateur Craftsmen

Here is a book by Ira S. Griffith, Supervisor of Manual Training and an instructor in wood-work in several different institutions. The book is designed both for the use of the amateur who learns the use of wood-working tools at home, and for the use of students in high schools and industrial schools. There are no unnecessary words, yet all the directions needed are there. The various operations are clearly pictured so that the student will learn from the beginning the right way of handling tools. There are also directions for making several interesting and useful pieces of furniture in order that the student may have something to show when he has completed his course. This is a book for any one to buy for individual use whether he is a boy 10 years old or a grown man.

The chapter headings are as follows:

Laying out rough stock

Don't Dream—Build!

It is a lot of fun to dream and plan, but that doesn't improve your home. You must get busy and BUILD! What has been holding you back? Probably two things. You haven't known just what to build, and you haven't been ready to pay a contractor to do the work for you. Both of these drawbacks are removed by Popular Mechanics Concrete Handbook. In it you will find pictures of the devices you are likely to be able to make use of about your home or your farm. And the pictures are accompanied by directions that will enable you to do the work yourself.

There Are a Hundred Uses for Concrete About Your Home

Besides the more common uses of concrete in building sidewalks, curbs, floors, and foundations, there are dozens of things to be made that will improve your home and lighten the work of caring for it. Perhaps you are in great need right now of one of the following devices which can well be made of concrete with the facilities anyone has on hand.

Table for gas plate
Bird bath
Cistern cap
Safe cement steps
Chimney cap
Toy blocks
Garden seat
Cyclone cellar
Building blocks
Sewer manhole cap
Gate posts
Garbage pail container
Kitchen sink support
Flower boxes
Garden vases
Lawn pedestals

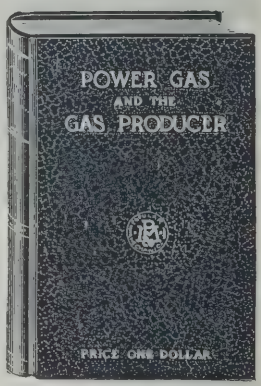
Power Gas and the Gas Producer

In preparing this book, the author, J. C. Miller, has gone into the matter very thoroughly. The method of making producer gas and the method of using it have both been covered. The book is thoroughly illustrated with many plates and diagrams. Perhaps the best idea of the contents of this splendid book is to be learned from the following list of chapter headings:



Producer gas and the gas producer	Gas-producer operation
Classes of gas producers	Gas power and steam compared
Industrial gases	Reliability of gas power
Comparison of heat values	Gas and steam power costs
Types of producers	Gas-producer installation
Gas-producer fuels

The Kingdom of Dust

By J. G. Ogden

Would it surprise you to know that some of the dust that came out of Mt. Vesuvius at its last eruption is hovering this very moment over your head? This is only one of the startling facts revealed in this fascinating book. Scarcely one out of ten thousand realizes the importance of dust in the world of today. In some ways dust has an important value, and in other ways it is really a dangerous thing for you not to understand the laws that control it. Everyone, man, woman or child, can be benefited by reading it. It is illustrated with many attractive pictures. An idea of its fascination may be had from its table of contents, which is as follows:

A boundless domain	The skeleton in the closet
Physical phenomena produced by dust	The friend of the housewife
Cosmic dust	The right hand of death
Earth's winding-sheet	Perfumes and odors in the dust
The foe of the workman	The wonders in the dust

THE PRINCETON MONOGRAPHS
IN ART AND ARCHAEOLOGY

This series of monographs, each written by an eminent authority in its particular field, covers in the widest sense the entire history of European art, from the Archaic Greek period to comparatively recent times. A format for the Monographs has been chosen which permits adequate plates and a clear and sightly text. Twelve Monographs have already been published, while others are in preparation. The published works follow:

I. DELLA ROBBIAS IN AMERICA

By Allan Marquand, late Professor of Art and Archaeology in Princeton University.

Illustrated. $5.00*

Contains all the examples of Robbia ware in America.

II. PROBLEMS IN PERICLEAN BUILDINGS

By George W. Elderkin, Associate Professor of Art and Archaeology in Princeton University.

Illustrated. $2.00*

Four essays offering new solutions for three of the most difficult problems in Athenian architecture.

III. LUCA DELLA ROBBIA

By Allan Marquand, late Professor of Art and Archaeology in Princeton University.

Illustrated. $10.00*

A complete and scholarly monograph on one of the most charming phases of Italian art.

IV. LOST MOSAICS AND FRESCOES OF ROME

By Charles R. Morey, Professor of Art and Archaeology in Princeton University.

Illustrated. $3.00*

A publication of drawings contained in the collection made by the Commendatore Cassiano dal Pozzo, now in the Royal Library, Windsor Castle.

V. MEDIAEVAL CHURCH VAULTING

By Clarence Ward, Professor of the History of Art and Director of the Art Museum, Oberlin College. Illustrated. $5.00*

A concise and clear view of the entire subject.

VI. EARLY CHRISTIAN ICONOGRAPHY AND A SCHOOL OF IVORY CARVERS IN PROVENCE

By E. Baldwin Smith, Professor of Art and Archaeology in Princeton University.

Illustrated. $7.00*

A scholarly treatise, attractive to the layman, and indispensable to the student.

VII. ROBBIA HERALDRY

By Allan Marquand, late Professor of Art and Archaeology in Princeton University.
Illustrated. $10.00*

Treating of a neglected series of Robbia works of art,—the coats of arms which include those of the principal families of Florence.

VIII. GIOVANNI DELLA ROBBIA

By Allan Marquand, late Professor of Art and Archaeology in Princeton University.
Illustrated. $10.00*

Contains genealogical and documentary material published for the first time, followed by a catalogue raisonné of the works of Giovanni and his atelier.

IX. BENEDETTO AND SANTI BUGLIONI

By Allan Marquand, late Professor of Art and Archaeology in Princeton University.
Illustrated. $10.00*

Biographical sketches of Benedetto and Santi Buglioni together with discussions of their works and style and a complete catalogue of monuments.

X. THE PORTRAITS OF DANTE

By Frank Jewett Mather, Professor of Art and Archaeology in Princeton University.
Illustrated. $3.50*

Scrupulous use of measurements of Dante's skull and their graphic application to the problem of the portraits, which seems to have put beyond dispute the fact that the Palatine Miniature is the most authentic likeness.

XI. ANDREA DELLA ROBBIA

By Allan Marquand, late Professor of Art and Archaeology in Princeton University.

Illustrated. 2 vols. The set, $15.00*

These two volumes contain more biographical material on Andrea della Robbia than has ever been published before.

XII. KANTHAROS

By George W. Elderkin, Associate Professor of Art and Archaeology in Princeton University.

Illustrated. $10.00*

This book is the outgrowth of a study of the archaic sepulchral reliefs of Lakonia and has therefore retained its early title of Kantharos although several chapters have nothing to do with Dionysos.

THE PUBLICATIONS OF AN AMERICAN ARCHAEOLOGICAL EXPEDITION TO SYRIA, 1899-1900

I. TOPOGRAPHY AND ITINERARY

By Robert Garrett. $10.00*

II. ARCHITECTURE AND OTHER ARTS

By the late Howard Crosby Butler. $20.00*

The architecture of the desert regions of northern Syria and the Haurian, with chapters on sculpture and mosaics.

III. GREEK AND LATIN INSCRIPTIONS

By William Kelley Prentice. $15.00*

Some 450 inscriptions in Greek and a small number in Latin, for the most part hitherto unpublished, given here both in the original characters and in modern type, together with a translation into English and a commentary.

IV. SEMITIC INSCRIPTIONS

By Enno Littmann. $10.00*

A majority of these 233 Semitic inscriptions are here published for the first time.

PUBLICATIONS OF THE AMERICAN SOCIETY FOR THE EXCAVATION OF SARDIS

When making plans for publishing the results of the American excavations at Sardis it was decided that the archeological material was too great in quantity, and too varied in character to permit of its adequate discussion within a single volume or even within two or three. It was therefore decided to issue a number of fascicules, each by a specialist and dealing with a single subject. Several volumes are now in preparation, and the following have already been published.

Volume I, Part I
